Market Shows Decided Strength All Wenk Spots When Any Buying Develops-Demand is Noticeable.

OMAHA: Nov. 12, 1908. On ning cables came weaker, starting un-turned to he lower on wheat and he lower on corn. There appeared no material change in the wheat situation, but the market shows decided strength on all weak apots when any buying develops. There was a noticeable milling demand during today's sension.

Corn receipts are said light, but country selling is expected to lossen up shortly. A very good export demand for corn is developing.

very good export demand for corn is developing.

Wheat railled again soon after the opening in spite of lower cables and the late selling of yesterday was soon overcome by peristent buying and a well-established milling demand. December wheat opened at 57%c.

Corn proved atronger with wheat and decidedly better demand. Attention was attracted by a much better export business which has developed suddenly. Better receipts are expected soon, as country acceptances have been improving. December form opened at 56%c.

CATTLE—There was the usual Thursday's moderate run of cattle and the qualty of the offerings was hardly good enough to attract much attention. Still the market as a whole was in a very satisfactory condition, pretty much everything changing hands early in the morning.

Everything went to show that packers were anxious for beef steers, but the supply of that kind was extremely light. There were, however, a few pretty decent cornfeds that soid up to $5.59. There was also a sprinkling of westerns, but the most of them were on the trashy order. The feeling was strong and had there been anything toppy here it would undoubtedly have sold 4,695 7,579 Mil. & St. P. 187 Southern Pacific Seers 118 Sou

HOGS-Hogs started out this

HOGS-Hogs started out this morning with prices around live higher, but it turned out to be one of those "runaway markets," and it was not long until prices were 15c higher, and some were pointing out sales that looked 20c higher. The market was not overly active at the advance, but still most of the good hogs sold in pretty fair season. The bulk of the hogs went at $5.7506.85 and on up to $5.96. Representative sales:
