PEKING, Nov. 14.-5 p. m.-The report of vesterday that the dowager empress of China was mortally ill was today confirmed by the foreign board of the gov ernment. It is reported that at 3 o'clock this afternoon, the emperor was so lov that his death was regarded as imminent TOKIO, Nov. 14.-6 p. m.-In this city the report of the death of the emperor of China is generally accepted as true. The news of his passage is accompanied by a rumor that the empress downger is also dead, and while this is not given general credence, it is understood that she has been seriously ill for several weeks. The Associated Press has excellent grounds for believing that the situation in China, in the event of the dowager's death, will not be made the occasion of any sum mary move on the part of Japan, but that the Japanese government will await an agreement of the powers. It may be said that it is not Japan's inganization in Chinese territory, to take any slep whatsoever until there has been a community of all the interested nations murse satisfactory to all has - al upon.

They had engaged their tables a week or more in advance, of course, and went around that evening to hear the returns and enjoy the sights. When they were seated at the digner table the walters handed them a folder which contained the bill of fare and the solemn anouncement that the dinner was $7 a plate.

Of course when a fellow is seated at the table he has to be game and go through with it, so they paid. At supper time the same performance was gone through, except that supper cost only $5 a plate. It went, seemingly, for the evening, but there were many wore ones. The price did not include wine. It was simply for the eating. -New York Telegraph.

CLEVER CROOK KILLED RALSTON

One of Gang That Robbed Store at Stella--Property Found.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Nov. 14 .- (Spe cial.)-Additional evidence has been unearthed near Weeping Water establishing the fact that the two young men who murdered City Marshal Charles A. Ralston recently, were professional yeggmen, or professional tramp burglars who committed the robbery in Stella, Neb., a few days before they killed Ralston. The day prior to the murder in Weeping Water the two men were seen in a ravine about one-half mile west of town. A few days ago John Badgley, one of the citizens who is still looking for the murderers, made a search in the ravine and found about one dozen watchcases, which were stolen from Thomas Schutz, the Stella jeweier. A few days later, F. Garrison found a small value in the ravine which contained sixteen watches and $57.45 worth of postage stamps of different denominations, two bottles of nitro-glycerine and some fuse, and not far distant was found a gold watch. Sheriff Quinton returned Saturday morning with the stolen goods, but after a search through the western portion of this county said that he had no further clue to the mur-
