ARCHBISHOP QUIGLEY PRESIDES

High Praise for Work of Propagation of the Propaganda

MANY NOTED PRELATES ATTEND

Special Legate of Pope Pius One of the Representatives at the Congress—Words of Cheer to Workers.

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—In the presence of archbishops, bishops, abbots and priests, and a multitude of laymen, the first session of the first Roman Catholic missionary congress in this country opened today in the First Regiment armory in this city.

Address of Archbishop Quigley. The morning session, presided over by Archbishop Quigley of Chicago, was devoted to foreign missions, and was preceded by an opening chorus by the students of the cathedral college.

Tracing the history of the missionary work of the Roman Catholic church, Archbishop Quigley told of the earliest missionaries by which the evangelization of the Americas today and the spreading of the church in America has heretofore worked.

Special Legate of Pope. In his address of welcome, special emphasis was laid by the archbishop on the presence of Most Rev. Dimecio Felicini, archbishop of Larissa, and special legate of Pope Pius X.

Archbishop Felicini. At the conclusion of the address of welcome, delivered in a hall in which he pronounced the blessing of Pope Pius X on all taking part in the congress, and predicted a glorious growth for the church under the new conditions.

POPE'S PONTIFICAL MASS AT ROME

Unusual Ceremony Observed at St. Peter's on 16th Anniversary.

ROME, Nov. 16.—A pontifical mass was celebrated this morning at St. Peter's by the pope on the occasion of the fifteenth anniversary of his joining the priesthood. It was the most imposing ceremony witnessed in Rome since the coronation of the pontiff.

Tribunes had been erected only for the pope's sisters, the members of royal families, the diplomatic corps and the special missions sent by the heads of states. The rest of the people were admitted by tickets.

PRESIDENT HAS NO REPLY

Executive Declines to Be Drawn Into Any Controversy Concerning Religious Faith.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—No comment was made today at the White House on the letter to the president from the New York synodical conference of the Evangelical Lutheran church of America, asking him to recall his denunciation as "unwarranted bigotry" any refusal to vote for a candidate for high office because of membership in the Roman Catholic church.

MRS. STAHL DEAD IN BOSTON

Report that Widow of Base Ball Player Was Murdered Proves Erroneous.

BOSTON, Nov. 16.—After an autopsy and nearly twenty-four hours of investigation the local police today said that they were satisfied that Mrs. Charles W. (Chick) Stahl, the widow of the American league baseball ball player, whose body was found yesterday in a doorway of a house in South Boston, died from natural causes and that she had not been robbed of any jewelry.
