A casual reading, however, of the charge and spec-ifications with the findings thereon will be sufficient to enable the service to form its own estimate of an officer who has been found guilty of the acts elleged in this case. organ, which is constantly protecting and feeding every other organ of the body. It is the most abused, neglected and corned member of man also. Most men abuse their stomach with under-cooked food, high living, alcohol, tobacco, pastries and scores of other unhealthy practices. When the stomach at last sickens of all this abuse and cannot do its full duty, most men are not warned, but keep up their assaults on the stomach until at last it rebels and begins to strike back and cry for help. Man by his own abuse has taken away from the stomach the tools to work with. These tools are the gastric juices which go to make up the digestive agents. From 7 to 35 lbs. of gastric juice are turned into the stomach every day. When poor, poisonous food consumes this julce, dilutes it, robs it of its strength and throws it, a fermented mass from the system, of course there is just that much of the gastric fluid which cannot be readily supplied by the blood. When food comes into the stomach filled with depleted fluids lacking of power to do their part, the good strong stomach is using poor tools and, of course, cannot succeed in its work. A condition which often prevails is that which takes place when the gastric uice contains too much alkall. If the fuice were wholly alkaline it would not only devour and digest the fuid, but would eat and digest the stomach itself. Such gastric fluid does the digestion no good and attacks the walls of the stomach, making them raw and sore and setting up inflammation and irritation.
