

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Cables Strong on Wheat and Corn as Result of Argentina Reports.

SOME TRADERS SHORT ON WHEAT

Corn Market to Bull and Better Offerings, With Only Fair Demand, Has a Weakening Effect on Values.

OMAHA, Nov. 20, 1908. Cables came strong, bid higher on wheat and corn, due to frost reports from Argentina.

Opening wheat cables were stronger and from reports in Argentina strengthened support of the local grain closing traders were strong, with prices up December wheat opened at 77 1/2 and closed at 80 1/2.

Corn market to bull and better offerings, with only fair demand weakened values.

Primary wheat receipts were 1,287,000 bushels and shipments 614,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 787,000 bushels and shipments 1,229,000 bushels.

Clearances were 27,000 bushels of corn, 4,000 bushels of wheat and flour equal to 530,000 bushels.

Liverpool closed unchanged to bid lower on wheat and higher on corn.

Seaboard reported 120,000 bushels of wheat taken for export.

Heavy Decline in Values Due to Weak Speculative Position.

UPWARD REACTION AT THE CLOSE

Attention is Turned Toward Revision of Tariff and Other News Factors that were Ignored During the Rise.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The reactionary forces, which have been gathering strength in the stock market for several days, caused a sharp fall in prices today.

There was no appreciable change in the nature of the news from all points of the program of industry and business towards restoration.

While there was no unfavorable news which could serve as a factor in precipitating the selling, the fact of the reaction in stocks directed attention to the possibility of a market correction.

Advice of political development were re-ported, indicating more than a simple correction in this direction.

Standard Oil company was considered ominous of the force of the anti-trust legislation.
