Probably Fifty Persons Were Killed by Tornadoes in Arkansas.

STORM STARTS IN MISSOURI

It Sweeps East Through Two Counties Wide.

HEAVIEST LOSS AT PINEY

Extensive Damage Done at Knoxville and Habitations, with Fatalities Everywhere Along the Way of the Wind.

FORESTS TORN UP BY ROOTS

Miles of Land Swept Bare of Crops and Habitations, with Fatalities Everywhere Along the Way of the Wind.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 24.—Relief is being hastened to Arkansas towns which were last night reported destroyed by tornadoes and this afternoon the stricken district is in communication with the outside world. Late reports confirm former statements that damage amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars to property over the state has been done and that the loss of life will probably exceed forty. It is impossible as yet to secure the names. One of the tornadoes started in Missouri, traveling south through Carroll, Newton and Johnson counties. The heavy wind abated when the Arkansas river was reached. It swept a path through these counties a half mile wide, almost totally destroying Berkeley, Murray, Lowson, Ozark, Dale, Boston, Judea, Truth, Omega, Dryfork, Desmore, Parthenon, Mossville, Limestone, Redfork and other hamlets. The tornado split at the head of the Mulberry creek, a portion going into Clark where a number of houses were blown down. The main storm almost wiped out Piney. There the largest loss of life occurred. There are probably thirty dead at that place, Knoxville and London.

A second tornado came from the direction of Louisiana and traveled north through La Fayette, Pike and Hempstead counties. Had this storm continued forty miles further there would have been a junction of the two tornadoes. Louisville, L. D. Ozan, Murfreesboro and other towns are reported to have suffered severely, with a scattering loss of life.

Heavy Loss at Piney.

The town of Piney, a German settlement on the Iron Mountain railroad, between Knoxville and London, suffered the most according to reports received thus far. Reports from Knoxville and London, the only near points from which anything can be learned, are to the effect that a number of people are believed to have been killed. The number of dead is variously estimated at from nine to twenty. While no report stated that any names were ascertained, it is known that only one person, a girl, was killed. Five business houses and a number of homes were destroyed, according to reports.

From the towns of Berryville and Cravens, the most definite reports are received. At the former, thirty persons were injured, the property loss is roughly estimated at between $2,000 and $4,000. At Cravens four persons are known to be dead, members of the family of John Ross, a farmer, who were caught under the falling timbers of their home. L. G. Holt and wife, an aged couple, were seriously injured and may die.

Sixty Killed in a Storm.

Eight persons, who took refuge in a store, were caught in the crash of the building and all were injured and eight others are reported missing. At Cravens practically all the larger buildings were either demolished or so badly damaged that they were a disaster. Reports received from Knoxville a dispatch, received this morning, partially confirms the report that the village of Barr, four miles from that place, was totally wrecked. Section men who went to the scene state that the entire intermediate country has been laid waste by the wind and hail which followed the hurricane in places standing to a depth of six inches.

In the vicinity of Mulberry five persons are reported killed and others injured.

MURDER CHARGE PREFERRED

Wife of Nephew of Admiral Sampson Accused of Deed at First Declared Suicide.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 24.—Mrs. Georgianna Sampson of Palmyra, widow of Harry Sampson, nephew of the late Admiral Sampson, was today charged with the murder of her husband, whose death was at first said to be suicide.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 24.—Mrs. Georgianna Sampson, widow of Harry Sampson of Palmyra, who died on November 1 as the result of a gunshot wound, was today formally accused of the murder of her husband by the district attorney, after a plea of murder. Sampson was a nephew of the late Admiral Sampson, who commanded the American fleet at the battle of Santiago.

Harry Sampson died on the Allyn farm, between Palmyra and Macedon. It was at first believed that Sampson took his own life, but following his death stories were circulated which discredited the theory. Finally, the coroner decided upon a rigid investigation. Dr. Albert Hamilton, a gunshot expert, testified that the dead man could not have fired the shot which killed him.

It came out at the inquest that Sampson, on the Saturday before his death had discovered a letter written to his wife by a man outside of the family which had been the cause of a bitter quarrel.

The name of the man from whom Mrs. Sampson received the letter which aroused Sampson's jealousy was not revealed at the inquiry.

The governor held after the conference that the senatorship was talked over only incidentally, the senator telling the governor that he is a candidate for re-election to the senate.

Senator Dick is expected later in the day.

CUMMINS IS CHOSEN SENATOR

Lieutenant Governor Garst Becomes Chief Executive of Iowa.

ACCEPTANCE PLEA FOR HARMONY

New Senator States His Position on Question of Freight Rates, Stock Watering and Revision of Tariff.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 24.—Hon. A. B. Cummins, senator-elect, Hon. Warren Garst, governor-elect, and Hon. Warren Garst, lieutenant-governor-elect, today made their formal acceptance of office. This was Iowa's busy day. A United States senator to fill out the unexpired term caused by the death of the late Senator Allison, which would have expired March 4, 1909, and the selection of a governor to fill out the unexpired term of Governor A. B. Cummins, who would have completed seven years as Iowa's chief executive January 15, 1909, was the order of business.

Following the election of Governor Cummins to the senate by a vote of 109 to 35 at 12:30, Lieutenant Governor Garst, at 2 o'clock, was duly inaugurated and assumed the reins of office.

A reception at which thousands attended was held in the rotunda of the capital building at 8 o'clock. Governor Garst and Senator Cummins stood in line for more than two hours receiving the congratulations of Iowans. It was not a dress suit affair. Rich and poor alike gathered at the great Capitol building, nearly half the day. It seemed, turned out to extend well wishes to the newly elected senator and governor. Chief Justice Ladd administered the oath of office to Governor Garst. Senator Cummins will go to Washington early next month to be officially sworn in.

While Senator Cummins' speech of acceptance was a plain one and for an eradication of factional differences in Iowa, he was none the less specific on the questions which have engaged his attention during his past career. Speaking of his attitude on the tariff, he pledged himself and his efforts for immediate revision. He declared himself unalterably opposed to discrimination in the matter of freight rates and condemned stock watering and other abuses of powerful corporations.

Speaking of his position relative to a revision of the tariff, Senator Cummins said:

"As you know, I am, in political faith, a republican. I believe in the essential principles of that party, and I shall do my utmost to carry them into effect. For thus, and thus only, as I view my duty, can I promote the welfare of all the people. I beg to illustrate my meaning. I am deeply convinced of the justice and wisdom of the tariff system which imposes protective duties upon imports, and with my voice and vote in the senate of the United States I shall do everything in my power to preserve it. To me this established policy of the republican party means duty upon competitive products. It is the only way to protect the American producer in his home market against the unfair rivalry of other countries, but, upon the other hand, low enough to insure to the American consumer a fair American price. I am in absolute harmony with the tariff schedule of this country. I stand, as you all know, for a revision of the tariff schedules, an honest revision, keeping the promise to the people as well as to the ear; a revision tested by the standard declared in the platform of the republican party. I may have will be exerted to fulfill the pledge upon which the coming administration was entrusted with political power."

ROYALTY OPPOSED THE MATCH

Private Letter Discloses Feeling of Opposition in Italy to Abruzzi-Elkins Union.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 24.—Interesting and authentic details of the stand taken by Queen Margherita of Italy in connection with the proposed union between the duke of Abruzzi and the duke of Elkins were received in this city yesterday. They came in the form of a letter from Signorina Josephina Buzzati, widow of the late governor of the royal castle at Spaghagna to her son, Signor Pietro Buzzati of this city.

"My mother wrote the letter to me during the time that Queen Margherita and the young duke were staying at the castle," said Buzzati. "She says the affair was the gossip of the hour before the arrival of the queen, ten days before she wrote, but that her own feelings had not fully formed. She says she had no doubt that the queen would be ready to grant the franchise or the adoption of regulations in regard to oil and gas franchises in Oklahoma and the Indian territory, the president approved the recommendation of Secretary Hitchcock, with the exception of one small and unimportant grant to a Delaware Indian, to whom the Delaware Indians, in recognition of eight years of service to the tribe, had voted in council a fee of $5,000, which he declined to accept and who was given twice the usual amount of the land. The statement about the alleged promise to a western senator is as ridiculous a falsehood as the rest of the story."

FIND TOMB OF MOUND BUILDERS

Excavation at East St. Louis Discloses Skeletons of Men Above Normal Height.

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., Nov. 24.—Human bones believed to have been those of six or seven mound builders, were found at Second and Chestnut streets, East St. Louis, Tuesday by workmen who were digging an excavation for a bay warehouse.

One skeleton was walked up in a stone tomb eight feet high. When a heavy slab of rock was taken from the top the skeleton, standing upright, could be seen within. It was that of a man apparently seven feet tall. An effort was made to remove the skeleton intact, but when other stones were removed, it fell to pieces.

Buried under seven feet of earth near the base of this ancient tomb, were found the skeletons of fifteen men, all above the normal height. They were seated in a circle about the tomb where their chieftain had been seated. The ground was cleared away, these skeletons also fell apart.

Despite the efforts to keep the bones together, most of them were carried away by persons living in the neighborhood. In the bottom of the chief's tomb were found five pottery vessels, twenty flint arrow heads and stone hatchet.

GYPSUM MEN ASK FOR A DUTY

George E. Roberts Appears in Behalf of the Industry at Fort Dodge.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—(Special Telegram.)—George E. Roberts, ex-director of the mint, now president of the Commercial National bank of Chicago, who has large gypsum interests at Fort Dodge, Ia., was the chief speaker for the committee of gypsum producers and was inclined to criticize the ways and means committee today.

Mr. Roberts said about fifty independent corporations were making and marketing gypsum in this country, that there were over 100 factories, with about $20,000,000 invested and employing from 3,000 to 6,000 people. He showed that the industry had grown from the production of 25,832 tons in 1857 to 1,751,748 tons in 1907, and said that with free gypsum the industry would be impelled. He sought to show that the present duty on imported gypsum had not shut out the importers, as the imports had doubled and importers largely controlled the business near the Atlantic seaboard by reason of low water rates from Nova Scotia. He said the selling price of gypsum in this country was the lowest known. He pointed out Canada was excluding American gypsum by a tariff.

Mr. Roberts denied that the imported article was superior for general plastering purposes and was inclined to criticize the action taken in plastering the house office building with the imported article when just as good gypsum could be had in Virginia or New York, where, he said, there was a ledge 100 miles long.

Representative Clark tried to get Mr. Roberts to admit that the reason the duty was imposed on gypsum in the first place was that Senator Doolittle, who was on the ways and means committee in 1857, had an interest in the gypsum mines at Fort Dodge and insisted on protection.

"I will not admit that at all," said Mr. Roberts. "It was a simple act of justice to impose the duty."

It appearing that the government got $200,000 revenue out of gypsum, Mr. Clark asked if gypsum would not stand a shave, thus yielding more revenue. Mr. Roberts could not see it that way. Mr. Clark wanted to know how, if the duties were increased, the government could possibly get more revenue from the government. "If you will read history," said Mr. Roberts, "you will find the government revenues are the largest in times of prosperity, and if you will pursue the course that will insure general prosperity you will not need to worry about the revenue."

S. T. Meservy of Fort Dodge, one of the committee on protection of the gypsum industry in Iowa, was present, but did not address the committee.

The secretary of the treasury has selected a site for the public building to be erected at Casper, Wyo., located at the southeast corner of Second and Walnut streets, owned by Mrs. Lucy L. Moore and A. T. Butler. The sum paid was $3,000. Postmasters appointed: Nebraska—Spring Ranch, Clay county, John D. Morehouse, vice R. W. Heines, resigned. Iowa—Ladaga, Taylor county, E. H. Baxter, vice A. T. Butler, resigned.

Myron E. Whitney has been appointed regular and Adde L. Whitney substitute carries for Capt. B. J. Waterloo, Ia.

PRESIDENT SAYS STORY FALSE

Calls New York Sun Story About Himself and Prairie Oil Unttrue.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The following statement was given out at the White House today:

"As the New York Sun story entitled, 'Roosevelt and Prairie Oil,' has seemed to deceive a number of people, the following statement is made public about it:

"As soon as the story was brought to President Roosevelt's attention, he not only called for reports concerning the statement from the Department of Justice and the department of the interior, but also communicated with ex-Secretary Hitchcock so as to be sure that the president's recollection was not at fault. The story is false, beginning at the beginning to end. Not only is there no such report in the Department of Justice, and never has been, but no such report has ever been made. In granting the franchise of the Prairie Oil company the president simply approved the recommendation of Secretary Hitchcock, submitted to him precisely as all other recommendations were submitted. Moreover, in every case referring to the granting of franchises or the adoption of regulations in regard to oil and gas franchises in Oklahoma and the Indian territory, the president approved the recommendation of Secretary Hitchcock, with the exception of one small and unimportant grant to a Delaware Indian, to whom the Delaware Indians, in recognition of eight years of service to the tribe, had voted in council a fee of $5,000, which he declined to accept and who was given twice the usual amount of the land. The statement about the alleged promise to a western senator is as ridiculous a falsehood as the rest of the story."

JAPANESE-AMERICAN TREATY

Agreement Alleged to Be Entered Into That Laborers Shall Not Emigrate.

HONOLULU, Nov. 24, via San Francisco, Nov. 24.—The Hawaii Shippage, the leading Japanese daily newspaper published in Hawaii, has received from its Tokyo correspondent what purports to be the text of a treaty concluded by Japan and America regarding cooling immigration. It is said that the signing of the treaty is not to be announced until next February. The principal clause of the treaty is given as follows:

"The high contracting parties agree that there shall be no immigration of laborers from Japan to the United States or its possessions. The Japanese government shall allow the emigration of the laborers among their population to the country of the other unit in any case, but in no case shall the emigrants be allowed to reach the United States, believing and agreeing that the employment in one country of the laborers of the other country tends to impair the existing friendly relations between the two governments."

CANNON MAKES STATEMENT

Speaker Says There Will Be Honest Revision of Tariff.

CONGRESS IS COMPETENT TO ACT

Says Members Will Carry Out Instructions of Their Constituents Too Early to Consider Speaker's Position.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Declaring that there will be an honest revision of the tariff and that there is not a present need of "fretting" about the selection of a speaker for the house in the sixty-first congress, Speaker Cannon arrived here from his home in Illinois late today for the approaching session of congress. He added to the newspaper men who greeted him that he believed the people would get the sort of tariff revision that they voted for. Later he issued a statement in which he declared that he was not attempting to dictate to the house and that through the system of election of members the people were reasonably certain of having their views enacted into law. Citing an example of hasty action leading to a misinterpretation of public sentiment in regard to a tariff bill, he expressed an opinion that there would be no mistake made next summer in the revision of the tariff.

Text of Statement.

The full text of Speaker Cannon's statement was as follows:

"The election of a speaker for the sixty-first congress is yet a considerable distance in the future, and while it is most desirable that the members of the house be elected as early as possible, I believe that the representatives will be elected as early as the custom of the foundation of the party, and select a candidate for speaker of the house. Every one of the republicans, without an exception, will, I believe, strive to the best of his intelligence, to select their party in the revision of the tariff.

Result Will Be Satisfactory.

There must be mutual concession and compromise, out of which will come the best for both sides. It is most desirable that the people be made aware of the situation, and that the people be able to judge for themselves. It is most desirable that the people be able to judge for themselves. It is most desirable that the people be able to judge for themselves.

NANKING SITUATION ACUTE

Fighting in Streets of City and Foreign Residents Seek Refuge on Gunboats.

PEKING, Nov. 24.—The situation at Nanking, where a mutiny on the part of the Chinese troops broke out on November 13, is serious. There has been fighting in the streets of the city, and a portion of the foreign residents have taken refuge on board a British gunboat. Others of the foreigners elected to remain on shore.

This information was conveyed to Peking today in official telegrams to the legations here. There is also a gunboat for their protection, but in view of the assurance given here yesterday by Yuan Shih Kai, one of the grand councilors, that the situation was quiet and the incident of the mutiny closed, this request was not forwarded. The information coming in here contradicts the representations being made by the foreign board, and the legations have requested the board to supply them with further news.

War board announced today that it had 1,000 troops at Nanking pending the conclusion of the maneuvers.

The new government at Nanking is firmly established and foreigners there do not entertain fears of an insurrection. The troops, however, are being closely watched, for it is feared that they may follow the example of the battery of artillery and the squadron of cavalry that hung out the banner of revolt last Thursday.

The native press intimates that the trouble in Nanking can be traced to opposition to the missionaries, but this charge is without substantiation.

MANILA TO RECEIVE FLEET

Entertainment Will Begin Formally Thanksgiving Day. Pleas Glad Over New Order.

MANILA, Nov. 24.—A conference between the naval chief of staff and the fleet reception committee of this city was held today. The committee will be in charge of the entertainment of the men of the Atlantic fleet on Thursday, November 26, the entertainment to continue from that date until Monday, November 28, the whole five days included in this period, during which the men will be ashore, will be taken up with many forms of entertainment. The big military hippodrome, which is to be a feature of the reception, will take place on Saturday and many of the sailors will be present.

The people of Manila are greatly elated over the announcement that Admiral Sperry has decided to land his sailors and has enthusiastically entered upon the work of preparing for the reception which has been so long abandoned that the plans for the entertainment must be reformed.
