

EVANGELISTIC SPIRIT KEEN

Never More Active Than Now, Says Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman.

HE FINDS CHRISTIANS AWAKE

Noted Evangelist Visits Omaha and Other Seminaries Preparatory to Beginning Tour of the World.

There was never so much interest among Christians in the evangelistic work, especially among men, as at present," said Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, the noted evangelist, who spent Wednesday in Omaha, visiting and speaking at the Omaha Theological seminary. He spoke Wednesday morning and also in the afternoon and at noon was entertained at the Young Men's Christian association at a luncheon given by the leading Presbyterians of Omaha.

This increased interest is shown everywhere in several ways. One is in the increased demand for meetings and also because the cities are much more responsive. I have lately been from Canada on the north to Knoxville, Tenn., on the south and the same spirit prevails.

Every church should be an evangelistic church and the preacher should have an enthusiasm akin to a pastor for bringing men to Christ. He should have the help of his entire church, including the congregation, the officers and the choir.

Dr. Chapman, accompanied by George T. Davis, representative of the Pocket Testament League, is making a tour of the Presbyterian seminaries of this country prior to taking a trip for a year to Australia, China, Japan and the Philippines. He will be accompanied on that trip by Mr. Davis and by Charles M. Alexander, the noted singer. After his visits to the seminaries Dr. Chapman will conduct campaigns in Richmond (Va.), Boston and Springfield, Mass., and Chicago. He sails in April, 1909.

Gets Close to Young Men.

Dr. Chapman had an offer of the use of some of the churches in Omaha for his addresses Wednesday, but he said he preferred the chapel at the seminary, so that he might get closer to the young men who were studying for the ministry.

In his address at the chapel he urged the young men to get the evangelistic spirit early in their career, citing himself as an example of the greater good he might have done if he had earlier seized upon his opportunities. He said the evangelistic spirit might be had in a church from extra meetings, but he said these were not needed, as it could be secured by evangelistic sermons. He said that many preachers could preach an evangelistic sermon if they only thought they could and urged upon all to try it once in a while. He called upon them to get the spirit of enthusiasm.

Mr. Davis spoke at the morning meeting at the chapel and urged upon those present to join the league, all the requirements being that they should promise to read a chapter of the Bible each day.

The first meeting at the seminary was at 9:30 a. m., the second at 11 and the third at 2:30. At this hour an evangelist conference was held and laymen and clergy were invited to participate in it. Following that Dr. Chapman spoke again.

Presbyterian men of Omaha and South Omaha formed an organization Tuesday night, the object of which is to have a general organization to entertain such men as Dr. Chapman when they come to Omaha and also to welcome new pastors. The executive committee of the new club consists of Dr. M. V. Higbee, Dr. Nathaniel McGriffin, Dr. D. E. Jenkins, Henry F. Kleiser, secretary, and W. J. Johnson, treasurer. Mr. Kleiser projected the plan.

Practically all the corn crop is in the crib and farmers are busy in shape than ever to care for their stock.

The snow is very welcome at this time.
