Announcements of the Theaters.

Convulsions of laughter! That is what Frank Bryon. "The Dude Detctive," is causing this week at the Orpheum. Thrilling the multitudes! That is what the Davies Trio are doing in their great act, "Motoring in Mid-Air." Six other fine acts at this home of vaudeville. Some singing, some dancing, some stories, some acrobatics-well, just a fine bill of advanced vaudeville, Interesting kinodrome views, too. Daily matinees.

"A Knight for a Day," which opens at the Boyd theater this evening, tells a story of the lost heirs to a Corsican estate. The 8,400 heirs may be identified by a peculiar medal of which each has half. It is supposed, also, 1,000 30,000 that it is necessary for them to marry. The 5,000 30,000 30,000 search for the holders of the pieces of the 21,000 35,000 30,000 medal starts at the first of the piece.
