front way while she was to go to the barn the back way. "He wanted to appear," she said, "that he had heard burglars, had gone out to investigate and was shot."

"He second me," she said. "He insisted that I go back to the barn with him. I went back and when we got there he was angry and insisted that I shoot him right away. He told me to step back from him so the powder marks would not show on his clothes. I was to shoot him in the abdomen. He thought he would live two or three days so he could settle up his affairs. He wanted to settle some debts. He said the people he owed had no record of his debts."

Her Nerve Failed Her. "I stepped back and then told him I couldn't do it. He said, 'Why couldn't you do it?' 'I don't know, but I couldn't do it.'"

She said, Dr. Rustin became very angry and insisted that she shoot him. They talked so long the cars stopped running and Dr. Rustin called a carriage with which they went back to the house. She said she had no place to stay that night so Dr. Rustin called up Clara Gleason's place and arranged for a room, where they stayed that night. The next day was Saturday and they were together most of the day. She said he intended to have the shooting done later. They were together again Monday at Clara Gleason's. She said he talked about the note at the bank.

"I thought I could get some money for him and I did him so, but I could not," she said.

At this point Mrs. Rice for the first time appeared to be on the verge of breaking down. She had her eyes wearily at times and apparently was controlling herself with difficulty.

Arrival of the Man. About 10 o'clock Tuesday afternoon she went to Dr. Rustin's office with him. She was in his office, someone entered the reception room, she said, and the doctor went out and conversed with this person. Then he came back to her.

Did he say anything to you? asked County Attorney English. "Yes," she said. "What did he say?" Here the defense broke in with the objection.

A Man May Eat Any Meal And Digest It Easily If He Will But Try. FREE DIGESTIVE TABLETS. Don't be afraid of your meals. The reason you have dyspepsia is that something is lacking in your digestive apparatus, necessary to the stomach's work.

Objection is Sustained. Judge Sears sustained the objections of Mr. Gurley to her telling what Dr. Rustin said to her about his financial condition and she was held down to what she actually saw in the way of money.

PRODUCTION OF CRUDE OIL. Frank B. Kellogg Asks John D. Archbold About It. LOW GRADE NOT FOR REFINING. Vice President of Standard Oil Company Says All Talk About Tariff Favoring the Company is Mere Bosh.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—When the hearing in the government's suit to dissolve the Standard Oil company was resumed today, John D. Archbold, vice president of the company, testified that the Standard purchased the Pacific Coast Oil company of California in 1900 for $50,000. After that its capitalization was increased by successive stages to $17,000,000 in 1906, when the name was changed to the Standard Oil company of California.

Production of Crude Oil. Mr. Archbold said that as far as he knew the Texas Oil company was not owned or controlled by the Standard. The Texas company sold some of its output, the witness said, to the Standard.

SLAGER SIX, WOMAN ONE YEAR. (Continued from First Page.) along toward morning. Suddenly the Rusers were aroused by a shot. The bullet had penetrated the young husband. He cried for pity as another shot was fired and he lay on his back.

Captain Haze Gets Them. One day Captain H. P. Haze of Omaha, an old police and detective officer and formerly deputy sheriff, took up the case. He went out to the Chalmers home, worked assiduously on the fragments of facts and finally pounced upon John Slager with the cold-blooded demand:

TREASURY SHOWS DEFICIENCY. United States Treasurer Says Cause is Not Decreased Receipts, but Increased Expenditures.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Charles H. Treat, treasurer of the United States, in his annual report calls attention to the fact that owing to the disturbed relations between the income and outgo of the government there was a deficiency last year of $88,070,501, as against a surplus for the preceding year of $4,296,888, and points out that the total revenues for 1908 exceeded the expenditures by only $1,000,000.
