In the midst of dancing parties, receptions and card parties, a number of well-known society women are planning more studious meetings after the holidays. Several small art classes are being formed, some of them to meet fortnightly and follow a prescribed course, not only of paintings and sculpture, but of architecture and interior decorations. Also a number of society women are to take up the study of languages and music. Miss Gwendolen White, who was to have been one of the debutantes this season, has decided to give her time to music, and will leave later in the season either for New York City or abroad to study.

The date for the charity ball has been finally decided upon as Tuesday evening, February 2, at Chambers' dancing academy. The ball will be for the benefit of the Creche and many of the leading workers for charity in Omaha are working for the success of the affair. The women of the Creche board will manage the affair, and will be assisted by a number of patronesses. The board includes: Mrs. T. L. Kimball, Mrs. J. E. Baum, Mrs. Ada Walker, Mrs. T. W. Van Nostrand, Mrs. A. D. Brandeis, Mrs. E. R. McMahon, Mrs. T. Kountze, Mrs. Joseph Cudahy, Mrs. Thomas Kilpatrick, Mrs. A. J. Beaton, Mrs. Arthur Remington, Mrs. W. A. Lyman, Mrs. Casper E. Fort, Mrs. W. J. Connell, Mrs. E. M. Fairfield, Mrs. Ward Burgess, Mrs. A. C. Smith, Mrs. Luther Kountze, Mrs. Ben Gallagher, Mrs. N. P. Dodge, Jr., Mrs. John S. Brady, Mrs. C. The pronunciation of the name of the Russian actress, Nazimova, who will be here the latter part of the week, has been causing much embarrassment for hosts planning theater parties. Even the names were not quite certain until the advance man appeared, and now he says with the greatest ease, "Natz-je-mo-fa," with a slight accent on the second syllable. The proudest people are those who learned the pronunciation while visiting in the east, and few of them have missed an opportunity of demonstrating their knowledge to interested and admiring listeners.

With the midwinter pleasures occupying most of the time and attention of the society leaders the outdoor clubs have jumped back into the limelight during the week past by the announcements that big sums of money were to be expended in enlarging the plants of at least two of the clubs and in otherwise making improvements. The Omaha Field club directors have decided to spend $6,000 in doubling the capacity of the dance pavilion and in increasing the dining room facilities 50 per cent and also in doubling the kitchen space. The Happy Hollow club has decided to spend a like amount in making improvements on the club house, including a new dance hall and bowling alleys. Mr. Euclid Martin, Mr. A. T. Austin and Mr. Edwin Haney were elected new directors of Happy Hollow club.

Army circles have enlivened society considerably of late and now comes the possibility of a military wedding. Dame Rumor says that a charming girl, the daughter of an officer stationed here, is the fiancée of a general's son stationed at one of the posts a few hours' ride from Omaha.

The following from one who knows whereof he speaks is worthy the serious consideration of all who may be in position to remedy an abuse that undoubtedly exists only through thoughtlessness: "On Monday night at the cotillion at Chambers there was a very great amount of unnecessary discomfort to both man and horse, caused by the thoughtlessness of the people attending the same, in ordering their carriages to return at a certain hour and then keeping them waiting from one to three hours. This is an occurrence which happens at very nearly every function given in Omaha, Monday night being an exceptionally bad night owing to the sudden change in the weather. If the people using the carriages would kindly give a thought to the drivers and horses they would certainly do away with a great amount of suffering and earn the thanks of both the drivers and owners, besides doing an act of humanity to the horses."

"WILLIAM M. SIMPSON."
