ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Mosher-Lampman College is the school that attracts those students who want the BEST OF EVERYTHING.

The best teachers.

The best system of Shorthand.
The best system of bookkeeping.
The best instruction in penmanship.

Every instructor in the business department of the Mosher-Lampman college has had from six to twenty years experience in business college work. Every teacher in our shorthand department has had from ten to twenty years experience in training stenographers. This is the main REASON WHY our students are holding the best positions and drawing the best salaries.

Miss Bertha Brown, who began the study of Mosher shorthand at the Mosher-Lampman college a little more than a year ago, is now official court reporter for the Eighth judicial district of Nebraska, and is now making more than $150 per month. Mr. Bert Bossiter is now being trained in Mosher shorthand at the Mosher-Lampman college for a position as official court reporter, to which he has been appointed.

Why go to the ordinary college and be prepared for an ordinary position, when it costs no more to attend the Mosher-Lampman college and be prepared for the best places?

Students can enter at any time.

Winter Term

will begin Monday, January 4. Call, 'phone or write for catalogue and further information.

That Little Word "NOW"

It is a word without a future. It means today. It means that your business education should not be postponed. Because our First Winter Term began December 1, does not excuse you from entering College NOW. Why delay another day? Why not make up your mind as you read this? "Every minute lost gives an opportunity for misfortune." Every minute saved and rightly used means so much capital invested for future use. Aren't you wasting time when you plan for a business education at some unknown future date?

Every Day Is Enrollment Day at

Boyles College

Keep that fact in mind and act accordingly. Our courses of study are so arranged that you can enter Monday morning as soon as the office is open, or in the evening if you want to attend Night School.

Positions are opening all of the time, but at the end of some term of study. There will be jobs for you tomorrow and the next day and the day after and every day some one is completing the course, getting a diploma and a position.

You will never get anywhere without making a start. Make up your mind to begin a business career, to be a better-than-ordinary Bookkeeper or Stenographer or Telegrapher—to be the Boyles College sort, whose services are always in demand.

Write or 'phone when you will be in. Catalogues are free.

NOW BEING DEMONSTRATED AND FINANCED

An Invention That Has Startled the Whole World.

High Grade Fiscal Agent Wanted.

Here is one of the greatest electrical inventions of the age—The Burlingame Telegraphing Typewriter—the invention of Elmer Burlingame.

The invention consists of an electrical apparatus that can be attached to any standard typewriter. The message is recorded in page form both in sending and receiving typewriter written out letter for letter just as sent. THE BURLINGAME TELEGRAPHING TYPEWRITER CAN BE USED IN CONNECTION WITH THE METHODS OF EQUIPMENT NOW EMPLOYED IN MESSAGE TRANSMISSION.

The Burlingame Telegraphing Typewriter has been tested before electrical experts of large corporations and the United States government; these experts have reported most favorably on the invention.

High grade fiscal agents wanted to sell stock in the Burlingame Telegraphing Typewriter Co. Rare opportunity for the right man. Agents must have office equipment and a clientele; must qualify as to financial ability and furnish references. Accepted agents get exclusive territory and a set of demonstrating typewriters with all necessary equipment.

Agents will be supplied with the finest collection of literature ever gotten up for stock promotion, including reproduced press notices from papers all over America and letters signed by telegraph and telephone experts, United States army, navy and signal officers, university professors and well known electrical engineers.

Write at once for further particulars. Though the Burlingame invention was bought out but a few months ago, territory is fast being taken up.

Applications for exclusive territory for sale of stock must be accompanied with satisfactory bank references. Only high grade men with necessary qualifications need apply. Address Burlingame Underwriters, 606 Chronicle Bldg., San Francisco, Cal.
