Eastern League and American Association Tell What They Want.

NATIONAL COMMISSION HEARS IT

Secretary Farrell of the National Association is Given Until Wednesday to Sabmit a Reply.

Naw YORK, Dec. 3.-Although the chill of winter hung over all and throughout the greater portion of the day a cold rain fell, base ball was played yesterday with as much avidity as though June sunshine carned from an unclouded sky. It was not, however, that kind of base ball that brings thrills to the spectators, but the chamber sessions that work for the good of the game—that formulate new rules and disentangle the snarls in the skein of management that threatens discord in the smooth running of affairs. The chief events were meeting of the National Base Ball commission, and of the representatives of the eastern league and American association, which bolted the recent Chicago meeting and the presentation by the latter to the national commission of denands, which, if granted, they declare will make for the betterment of the game. It has been anticipated all along that the dissentients of the Chicago meeting would demand higher classification and modification of the rules covering the drafting of players and these things they did semand. But they also requested that they be permitted to conduct their affairs as a separate organization, though inder "such restrictions, quies and reguations as the national commission shall from time to time adopt."

Harry Pulliam, president of the National league; Ban Johnson, president of the American league, and Garry Herrmann. chairman, constituting the national commission, heard the demands. They were presented by Henry J. Killiles of Milwankee, and in attendance at the meeting also were President P. T. Powers of the Eastern league, President John D. O'Brien of the American association and T. H. furnane, J. H. O'Rourke, M. H. Sexton. B. M. Shivelly and Secretary J. H. Farred of the National association

Before reading the paper Mr. Ktilliea nid that the wishes of the Easter-American combination were not in any way inunded to make for disorganization of the present arrangement of base ball. Secre-(ary Farrell of the National association then asked that he be given until wednesday to reply and this was granted.

Text of the Demands. hir. Killien's paper follows:
