Reception and Dancing Party Bring Out Another Debutante.

SOCIAL SETTLEMENT GIVES TEA

Rev. Robert H. B. Bell Honored by Association He Has Assisted in Establishing - Card and Other Clubs Meet.

The Rome hotel Monday evening was the scene of a beautiful reception and dancing party, given by Dr. and Mrs. Robert S. Gilmore for their daughter, Miss Amy Gilmore. The guests were received in the reception room, which was a bower of roses and chrysanthemums, most of which were sent by the many friends of the young debutante. A background of paims and ferns, extending around the room, was very effective. Punch was served in the ladies' dining room, the punch bowl being hidden in a mound of ferns, and the long corridors were bordered with paims, settees and divans being arranged at intervals, where the dancers might rest. Supper was served from small tables, each having a candelabra with pink and white candles, for a centerpiece, surrounded by ferns and pink carnations. The ball room was a cool and delightful place for dancing, and the orchestra was at the end of the room, back of a screen of paims. This was the first reception and ball combined given this season and proved a charming innovation. Some stunning costumes were worn. Mrs. Gilmore had an attractive gown of black satin, made directoire style, and richly embroidered in gold. Miss Gilmore was charming in a white satin directoire gown, decollete, en traine with a wide panel embroidered in a design of white satin corn, and carried American Beauty roses. Miss Peggy Polleys of Minneapolis and Miss O'Rourke of Callfornia, guests of Miss Gilmore, were each gowned in white, the former wearing directoire gown of satin poplin, braided in silver. Miss O'Rourke wore white chiffon, made empire, trimmed with satin bands and lace. Assisting through the rooms were Miss Peggy Polleys of Minneapolis and Miss May O'Rourke of California Others assisting were the debutantes, including, Miss Katherine Powell, Miss Marion Hailer, Miss Bess Baum, Miss Jeanie Ayerigg, Miss Miriam Patterson, tional Corn exposition met Monday morning Miss Jean Cudahy, Miss Gwendelen White, Miss Kathryn Barkalow, Miss Hilda Hammer and Miss Louise Peck. CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

In other parts of this paper will be found advertisements of the different retail merchants of the city, urging shoppers to do their Christmas shopping early.

We also urge the public to take time by the forelock and shop in comfort by shopping early.

In a short while, when there is but little time left before Christmas, everybody will hurry down town and return on the cars loaded down with packages and bundles; and although we will make every effort to provide adequate facilities to carry the crowds, we know there is bound to be severe congestion. Therefore, take advantage of this splendid weather, the unbroken stocks of merchandise at the stores and the opportunity to travel in safety and comfort before the rush commences.
