American and National League Members Exchange Views.

PRACTICE RULE IS CHANGED

American League Will Maintain Bulletin Boards on All of Its Grounds Showing Batting

NEW YORK, Dec. IL-A novel feature of oday's two base ball league sessions, which closed the American league's annual meeting and left only enough work for the National league to keep it busy tomorrow. was a joint meeting of these two organiza-

It was at the suggestion of Ban Johnson and agreed to by all, that the rivals for the favor of enthusiasts of the national sport exchange felicitations at the meeting place of the National league in the Waldorf-Astoria. All members of the American league were represented, and all of the National league excepting New York, which has not appeared at any of the gessions.

It was stated by the spokesman of the visiting league that the meeting had been desired for no specific purpose save for harmony and a wish to foster a spirit of closer identity and co-operation. Representatives of eight American clubs spoke, and the representatives of seven National clubs responded. President Pulliam said that as the American league had held its annual meeting here, the National league would reofprocate by holding its spring schedule meeting in Chicago.

At its concluding session the American league adopted a rule governing preliminary practice work. To this forty minutes is to be given before each game, thirty minutes to be allowed to the visiting teams exclusive and ten to the home team. Umpires are to have charge of the field during this time. Umpires are to be instructed that runners on balls thrown into the bleachers are to be given an additional base instead of being allowed to go all the way

Taylor George is the Only Winning Pavorite at Santa Aniva,

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. II.—Taylor George, the li to 30 favorite, was the only successful first choice to win at Santa Aniva park today and the public received a hard blow when the other five favorites were defeated. The feature of the card, the Altadena handicap, resulted in a victory for Magazine at 2 to 1 in the betting. Magazine took the lead early and forced a fast pace and won under a drive by three-quarters of a length from the favorite, Vox Populi. Jockey Page was fined 3200 by the judges for allowing Taylor George to swerve in the least extremth and interfere with the Lord of the Forest. Summary:

WITH THE BOWLERS.

Among the bowling games of the season, probably the most enjoyed, was played on the Association alleys last night between the sales and office force of the Peoples store. This game was pulled off by Mr. Bengele, one of the managers of this popular store. The women were present and enjoyed the game as was evidenced by the cheering. They also participated in the game. "Some at least have questioned the propriety, if not tht legality of our efforts and apparently others have believed these efforts would be of no substantial benefit, but we knew our motives were good. We have never intended to antagonize the laws of the country or rights and interests of any one. We have occasionally read published criticisms of our movement on the ground that there output or to divide territory. But the fault lies in the unjustified assumption of fact." Mr. Gary declared the steel manufacturers never intended or resorted to any evasion and that an effort would be made
