IOWA STUDENTS WIN PRIZE

Student Judges Pull Down the Thousand-Dollar Trophy.

KANSAS SECOND, MISSOURI NEXT

Prize Exhibits and Number of Sweepstakes Are Given Their Ribbons by the Judges at Corn Show.

Iowa's student judges carried off the $1,000 trophy offered by the Western Grain Dealers' association, the decision of the judges being made last evening just before the close of the second day of the National Corn exposition.

The Iowa team consisted of Messrs. Arnaldt, Wood, Hendricks, Quaife and Murphy.

The Kansas team was second and the Missouri team third.

Another students judging contest will be held today, the prize to be the trophy offered by the Mexican delegation, headed by Zaferino Dominguez of Puebla, Mexico, who arrived in the city last evening, bringing with him the trophy, worth $1,500 and one of the finest specimens of the silversmith's art.

Iowans were jubilant over the success of the students' judging team yesterday. It is worth something to them to know that the agricultural college of that state students are being trained to be competent judges of America's grains.

HIT ON HEAD MAKES BOY BAD

Severe Injury Is Ascribed as Cause of Young Fellow's Tendency to Err.

R. J. Morris, who was arrested by the police Wednesday evening, has been turned over to the county authorities, who intend to have him examined and sent to an institution for dipsomaniacs. He was locked up in company with I. L. Hazard, alias Long, on request of a local merchant whom they tried to persuade to cash a check to which Morris had forged his mother's name. Officers Neilsen and Chapman were sent to arrest the young men who tore up the worthless check when taken into custody.

A severe injury to his head is believed by the authorities to be responsible for Morris' streak of badness. About five years ago he suffered a heavy blow across his head, which hurt the skull and is supposed to have started him as an incorrigible.

Young Hazard's connection with the case was not deemed important, as he was discharged in police court Friday, and the county attorney has decided to stop prosecution in both cases if the young men are taken care of by their families or by an institution.

Morris has lived with his mother, who is a widow, at 412 North Sixteenth street, while Hazard's home is at 1319 Sherman avenue. He is about 20 years of age.

FARM FOR HOUSE OF HOPE

Quarter Section of Land Is What Rev. C. W. Savidge Is Trying to Get.

"I am now after a quarter section of good farming land for my House of Hope," says Rev. Charles W. Savidge. "I don't expect anybody to give me the land, but I want to rent it and I will pay a cash rent for it, too. It must be near Omaha so I can work it. One of my men who has recently joined me is an experienced farmer from Illinois, and he and I can take care of this farm and make it produce nearly everything we need at the House of Hope for those old people we are caring for.

"If you think the parson can't plow and do any other farm work, you are wrong. I was raised on a farm and am stronger now than ever."

Christmas Cake.

A spiced fruit cake is covered with white icing and a star formed of tiny scarlet candies on the top; then scarlet candle holders (rose buds) are placed at the corners of the star, and sugar red roses placed on the sides. A wreath of holly will add to its attractiveness.

All the world loves a bargain. You can find bargains by watching the "Want Ad Pages" of The Bee.
