EVERY WILL BE CHANCELLOR

His Election Will Be Confirmed at the End of the Year.

80 BOARD OF REGENTS STATE

Matter of Athletic Director for University is Referred to a Committee for Determination.

"We elected Mr. Avery acting chancellor Wednesday and we certainly would not come up to Omaha two days later and elect a successor to him. In all probability Mr. Avery, at the end of the year, will be made permanent chancellor of the University of Nebraska. We cannot, therefore, be considered as looking any further for a man to take the place of Dr. Andrews."

This statement was authorized by the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska, which held an executive meeting at the Paxton Friday. Regent Abbott voiced the statement.

Both retiring Chancellor Andrews and Acting Chancellor Avery were at the meeting, as were all the regents except V. G. Lyford of Falls City.

The regents announced that they did not take up the matter of chancellor at this meeting, since they had temporarily elected Mr. Avery with the understanding that his election, in the event of a successful term of office, would be made permanent.

Those present at the meeting were E. Benjamin Andrews, chancellor; Dr. Samuel Avery, acting chancellor-elect; W. G. Whitmore of Valley, Fred Abbott of Aurora, Charles Allen of Lincoln, E. R. Anderson of Crete, George Coupland of Elgin and Dr. Dales, secretary of the Board of Regents and of the university.

One of the problems to meet was a movement placed on foot to change the management of athletics at the university from the present system to that of having an athletic director, appointed by the Board of Regents. By the proposed system the athletic director would not be subject to control by the athletic board, as he would not receive his election at the hands of the board.

The question was referred to a committee composed of Charles Allen, president of the Board of Regents; Fred Abbott and Acting Chancellor-elect Avery. This committee was given power to act and will meet in Lincoln Saturday.

Petition Against Changing.
The petition below signed by about 1,000 members of the student body of the University of Nebraska, was presented to the Board of Regents:

We, the undersigned students of the University of Nebraska, believing that university athletics should be at least partly under the control of the students, desire to petition the Nebraska Board of Regents to defer action on the recommendation of the chancellor and athletic board until the proposed plan is made plain to all members of the university.

First—We believe that athletics in their nature are something which should be controlled by the students and yet be subject to faculty regulation.

Second—That the proposed change should be presented to the student body before final action is taken on it by the Board of Regents.

Third—That the controlling of the control under one man, as a director of athletics, would not be for the best interests of the university sports as a whole.

Fourth—That the new method has been carefully worked out and secretly planned without the consent or knowledge of the student members of the university. The recommendation has been "railroaded" through contrary to the wishes of the student representatives.

Increased Requirements.
Dr. Ward, dean of the medical college, recommended that the requirements of the medical college be increased so that it will be necessary for applicants to have had at least two years college training before they will be eligible for entrance.

The recommendation is that the requirements include a minimum of at least two years' college work in addition to the other requirements. This was referred to the acting chancellor-elect.

Dr. C. E. Bessey also recommended the regents accept two splendid gifts which have been offered to the university. One consisted of a collection of 236 specimens of plants collected by William Cleburne, formerly of Omaha and now residing at Newport, Ky., and the other was a collection of several thousand specimens of Nebraska plants collected by Prof. H. J. Webber, a graduate of the University of Nebraska in 1899 and now a professor of expert plant breeding at Cornell university.

T. A. Kieselbach, a graduate of the University of Nebraska, was elected instructor in field crops.

Dean Ward of the medical college recommended the board secure the services of Dr. F. Creighton Wellman, a noted authority on tropical diseases and tropical biology for a series of lectures in Omaha.

The board adopted this resolution: In the death of Dr. Bicknell, adjunct professor of ophthalmology and otology of the Omaha Medical college, we recognize a severe loss to the university. In arranging the details and carrying out the plans of the affiliation between the university and the Omaha Medical college and in solving the difficult problems which have arisen since then, Dr. Bicknell, as secretary of the board of trustees in Omaha, has displayed a marked ability and has performed an invaluable service to the university and to the state.

GOVERNOR GARST IS EARLY

Iowa Executive Says He Wishes to See Exposition as Well as Speak Saturday.

"I came a day early because I wanted to see the Corn exposition," said Governor Warren Garst of Iowa. Governor Garst will be a speaker on "Governors' day," Saturday. "All Iowa is interested in the exposition, so far as I can judge, and the attendance from our state will be large."

"Iowa is quieter in a political way than for years and there is every prospect that this will continue. It is a consummation devoutly to be hoped at any rate."

Governor Garst assumed his title only a few days ago upon the elevation of Mr. Cummins to the senate. He had been the latter's right hand man in the intricate warfare, which has raged for several years among Iowa republicans, and was the candidate of the "progressives" for the governorship in last June's primaries, when Cummins was beaten by Senator William B. Allison, and Garst by Governor-elect Carroll Governor Garst seemed likely to retire from Iowa politics, but the death of Allison and the success of Cummins over Lacey in the senatorial primary in November permits Mr. Garst to occupy the gubernatorial chair for a time.

Mrs. Garst accompanied him here.

ROSS CLARK STRUCK BY SHOW

Los Angeles Railroad Is Impressed at Immediacy of Corn Exposition.

J. Ross Clark of Los Angeles, brother of W. A. Clark, multimillionaire and former senator from Montana, was in Omaha Thursday night and Friday, enroute from the east to his home in Los Angeles.

Mr. Clark is a railroad owner and also proprietor of the Los Angeles beet sugar factory. He spent Friday evening at the corn exposition under the guidance of Charles J. Lane, assistant general freight agent of the Union Pacific and said he was most thoroughly impressed with the immediacy of the undertaking and was surprised at the educational features which had been brought out so clearly.

Accompanying Mr. Clark was W. R. Kelly, former general solicitor of the Union Pacific, who now makes his home in Los Angeles. Mr. Kelly said he was enjoying the best of health and he looked the part. He spent his time in Omaha visiting his grandchildren, Mrs. Raymond Welch of Omaha being the daughter of Mr. Kelly.

SCAMI DID NOT KILL HIMSELF

Death Accidental from Inhaling Fumes of Carbonized Gas, Says Coroner's Jury.

Death from inhaling the fumes of carbonized gas from a coal fire built in a common water bucket was the verdict of Coroner Heafey's jury in the case of Ferdinando Scami, the Italian who died at the Omaha General hospital Wednesday. Although the idea of suicide had gained some prevalence among countrymen of Scami, the witnesses at the inquest left the impression that death had been entirely accidental and suicide was not mentioned in the jury's verdict.

Scami had been living near Seventh and Pacific streets in a small room without stove or other furnishings. He was removed to the hospital by Dr. Fitzgibbon the day before his death, when it was found that he was suffering from gas poisoning.

NO CLUE TO SAFE CRACKERS

Omaha Police Are Notified of Depredations at Naacora Wednesday Night.

Omaha police officers have been notified of the blowing up of the postoffice and lumber company safes at Naacora, Neb., Wednesday night by cracksmen, who escaped with a quantity of stamps and some money. A telegram from Sioux City said that $400 in stamps was taken from the Naacora postoffice, while the Naacora branch office of the Edward & Bradford Lumber company was robbed of $90 in stamps, $90 in cash and checks to the amount of $200. No clue to the identity of the robbers has been secured, but the police of the surrounding territory have been telegraphed of the matter.

RICE HAS HOME FOR WIFE

Furnishes House in Boston and Will Send for Woman.

LATTER SAYS SHE IS GLAD TO GO

Abbie Rice, as Witness in Davis Case, Has Over One Hundred Dollars Coming to Her from the County.

Telegraphic information received by The Bee from Boston states that Mrs. Abbie Rice's husband has secured a home in that city for her. The telegram was shown that Mrs. Rice in the matron's office in the city jail, and while she seemed pleased to receive the information that her husband has evidently progressed faster in his home-making than he expected, she said she did not know whether he had a home for her yet or not.

"The last letter I had from Mr. Rice was about a week ago," said Mrs. Rice, who was engaged in polishing tableware and who was humming to herself when the porter entered the matron's department at the city jail. "In that letter my husband wrote me that he wanted me to come to him just as soon as possible and that he was trying hard to get us a nice little home and would send for me soon. He did not say that that home would be in the city of Boston, but I expect somewhere in the east. Maybe this telegram of yours means that he has a home all ready for me now, and he has waited to write me, while your correspondent went to the expense to telegraph. I will be glad to him as soon as he sends for me. We have 'kissed and made up,' and I look for a pleasant home and a pleasant life in the future."

Mrs. Rice, as chief witness for the state in the Charles E. Davis case, will have over $100 coming to her as witness fees from Douglas county when she leaves the care of Matron Gibson. Mrs. Rice was held in jail as a witness ninety days, and for this she will receive $1 a day. During the eight days of the trial she was in constant attendance, and will receive $2 a day as her fee. This will give her a neat sum with which to begin life over again.

PORTER M. JONES IS DEAD

Old-Time Omaha Printer Dies While at His Work in Ogden, Utah.

OGDEN, Utah, Dec. 11.—P. M. Jones, a linotype operator in the employ of the Examiner, dropped dead at his work at midnight last night. He was for eighteen years prior to coming to Ogden in the service of the Omaha Bee. The body will be shipped to Omaha for interment.

Porter M. Jones left Omaha about a year ago for Ogden on a visit, but he liked the climate and remained there, sending for his wife. He was one of the best known printers in the west. He had been prominent for years in the affairs of the union, having held every office up to president of the local hall to offer. He was once delegate to the International Typographical union and was an organizer for it.

Mr. Jones was past 50 years of age. He married only a few years ago. It is doubtful if any printer who ever worked in Omaha had more friends among the men of the craft than he. These friends were severely shocked at the news of his sudden death. He was a man of superior intellectual qualities and quiet and attractive in manner.

POEM DEDICATED TO MAYOR

Verses Penned by Cowboy Friend of Dahlman, Who Wrote for Congressional Record.

"Dedicated to Mayor James C. Dahlman."

This inscription will appear above a poem which Joe McGill of Thermopola, Wyo., in the city for the corn exposition, is engaged in writing, with the public regard and the mayor as his subjects. Mr. McGill and the mayor rode the range together in the early days and the poet called on His-nones Thursday to secure his permission to dedicate to him the verses he is writing. Mr. McGill, who is in Omaha with the Burlington exhibit car, prides himself on being the only poet who has succeeded in getting his lines emblazoned in the Congressional Record. A number of years ago he wrote the congressman from his district asking for an appropriation with which to buy two mitch goats. The peti-

ST. PHILOMENA CORNERSTONE

Founding of New Catholic Church Under Direction of Bishop Keane Sunday.

The ceremonies of the laying of the cornerstone of the new St. Philomena's Catholic church in course of erection at Tenth and William streets, will take place Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m.

The ceremony will be performed by Right Rev. James J. Keane, D. D., bishop of Cheyenne, in the absence of Bishop Scannell. The sermon will also be preached by Bishop Keane. There will be no procession or organized demonstration of the parishes and Catholic societies, but it is expected a large audience of Omaha and South Omaha Catholics will be present. It is expected that all of the Catholics who were present or assisted in the opening of the old cathedral will grace the occasion by their presence, as the sacred memories of the Catholic pioneers of this city in connection with the old St. Philomena's church will be reviewed on this occasion. Father Scannell, pastor of St. Philomena's parish, will have immediate supervision of the ceremonies. The sacred music incidental to the occasion will be rendered by a choir of priests under the leadership of Rev. E. M. Gleason.

STREETER AMAZED AT GROWTH

Former Omahan Says He Would Scarcely Know City, Such Progress It Has Made.

"How the old town does grow," said Ed Streeter of Portland, Oregon, at the Henshaw Friday. "If I had but turned loose without knowing where I was I am sure I would not have recognized Omaha from the changed appearance of the whole district alone."

This from a man, who, at one time was one of the men in the house of Paxton & Gallagher, and at one time ran for mayor of the city of Omaha, against E. E. Howell. He said that Omaha was surely forging to the front and showing a progressive spirit far in advance of many of the other western cities.
