Correct Weight on Lard Pails.

Afterney General Thompson, by his deputy, Grant Martin, has given an opinion notding that pails or cans of lard do not come within the exception of the pure food law relating to canned goods and that such packages must be branded correc as to weight and contents. He says the question s not without doubt and he knows of no way to test the law except by instituting prosecutions and getting a decision from J the courts as soon as possible. He suggets that the legislature had in mind when it excepted canned goods goods that are hermetically sealed for the purpose of preservation. As lard will not spoil by exposure to the aid he holds that it is a violation of the law to sell lard put up in nounces that arrangements have been made

Piano Sale Unusual

Our present STOCK REDUCING SALE is unusual in every way you may look at it.. "The reason why" of this sale, as stated a week ago today, was the contract made the first of this year for 2,200 pianos. As a business organization with a record of living up to its contracts—we do not intend to break this contract in any way. The manufacturers have shipped in TEN CARLOADS of High Grade instruments during the past two weeks as a final round up on this year's shipments of pianos. This means that every piano of the FULL TEN CARLOADS will be sold by Christmas. No stone will be left unturned to accomplish this result. Therefore we will sacrifice every piano in our salesrooms by offering it at a price which is
