PROVISIONS OF THE RESOLUTION

Committee to Report on Status of Secret Service, Giving Names of All Employed in Work and Suggest Needed Action.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28-The senute today decided definitely to enter upon an investigation relative to the portion of the annual message of the president which criticises the action of congress in prohithring the detail of secret service men to duty in other departments.

The resolution directing the inquiry had been in contemplation ever since the mesriving at the terms in which it had been the secret service officers. couched and in agreeing upon the proper Count Boni relinquished his money de-person to introduce it. It was at last de-mand in the suit to secure possession of "While it is true." Secretary Garfield cided time: Senator Aldrich should stand his children.

TAX ON GREAT WEALTH.

In cealing with the problem of the distribution of great wealth Prosident Schurman pointed out that if multimillionaires, themselves, failed to renormine their obligation to share their fortunes with the community, which they have accomulated with the on-operation of the community, then it is in the power of the government to enforce this obligation by a system of taxation on the transfer and inhertance of decedent's estate. He expressed the opinion that there was no "inster tax, no tax whose incidence is more lightly felt."
