BILL FOR MUNICIPAL COURT

Measure Will Be Introduced to Supplant Justices of Peace. YOUNG LAWYERS ARE BACK OF IT.

Contemplates Three Judges and Clerk, with Stated Salaries and Provision that City Gets the Fees.

A municipal court for Omaha is the object of one bill to be introduced in the coming Nebraska legislature. This court contemplates the elimination of the justice of the peace office, though another measure will be introduced to effect this second purpose.

Young attorneys of Omaha are back of the bill and W. P. Thomas, member-elect of the house, to whom three rough drafts of the measure have been presented, probably will introduce it.

The Nebraska constitution has a provision giving the right to establish municipal courts in metropolitan cities.

RECEPTION TO NEVIUS PARTY

Plans Contemplate Much Entertainment of G. A. R. Chief. ARRIVES SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

Camp Fire at Masonic Temple and Attendance on Sunday Services Are Some of the Details of Program.

The program committee to arrange for the entertainment of Commander-in-Chief Henry M. Nevius and staff of the Grand Army of the Republic met at the office of East Department Commander T. A. Creigh in the Bee building Thursday evening to perfect details for the reception.

FORCED TO STAY IN OMAHA

Pat Walsh Pleads in Vain with Judge to Let Him Leave Town. Pat Walsh can't leave town. Oh, yes, he might be able to beg or borrow street car fare to Council Bluffs, or at least "hoof it" over the bridge, but he is the victim of what he considers a deep laid plot to enforce his presence in the Gate City, out of whose gates he is really anxious to pass.

RALSTON RATE CASE IS UP

Subject Will Be Investigated by State Railway Commission on Saturday. The Nebraska State Railway commission has sent word that that body will visit Omaha Saturday and look into the Ralston rate situation.
