Our December Stock Reduction Sale has interested scores of piano buyers within the last ten days. Each buyer has proven a walking advertisement owing to the great saving secured in buying a piano from our stock. As we told you recently, we are overstocked and have taken strenuous measures to reduce this stock before Christmas. Consider well the worth of one of our pianos as a Christmas Present. The first cost will not be much and the satisfaction will be so much greater than your family would receive from something inferior. Come and see our pianos and learn all about the prices and terms. Come tonight or tomorrow.

Hearty Welcome Accorded President-Elect in Augusta.

MILITIA AS GUARD OF HONOR

Family United and Plans Are Made for a Pleasant Stay—Home-visit to Visit Augusta During Time.

ADUETA, Ga., Dec. 18—A vociferous Georgia welcome was extended to William H. Taft, president-elect of the United States, on his arrival here today.

The big train shed was crowded with people, who cheered lustily as the form of Mr. Taft appeared on the car platform. An official welcome was extended him by a large committee headed by President L. C. Hayne of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Taft was also cheered by the crowd which surged around the party on its way through the station to the automobile of Mr. and Mrs. Leander A. Thomas, whose house is the Tafts will be until Monday, when they will occupy the Turner cottage.

The Thomas home is near the Bon Air hotel, three miles from the city and the Turner cottage is adjacent to the hotel.

As the automobile moved away a company of Georgia's mounted militia fell in behind as an escort of honor.

Mr. Taft acknowledged the demonstrations both at the station and as he was driven through the city by raising his hat and making a plentiful distribution of the "Taft smile."

The trip from New York, which was begun yesterday morning early and interrupted at Washington for luncheon and a conference at the White House, ended with no further incident.

Mrs. Taft joined the train last night at Danville, Va. Robert and Charley Taft, the two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Taft, are with them and Miss Helen, the daughter, will arrive the first of the week.

Judge W. E. Ewe, who has returned here from Washington made the announcement that President Roosevelt promised him that he would visit Augusta during the stay of Mr. Taft.

SANTA CLAUS LETTERS DEAD

Order Permitting Their Delivery to Charitable Institutions Will Not Be Renewed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18—Postmaster General Meyer announces he will not renew his order issued in December, 1907, permitting delivery to charitable organizations of letters addressed to "Santa Claus." Numerous complaints have been made by charitable organizations that owing to the large number of such letters taken by the various charities while the order was in force it was not possible to investigate each case and that the presents fell into the hands of unworthy persons. The practice was objected to on the ground that it tended to make beggars of children.

The postmaster general has directed postmasters to treat the "Santa Claus" letters in accordance with those sections of the postal laws which provide that letters bearing fictitious addresses shall be sent to the division of dead letters unless the addresses of the senders appear upon the envelopes.

It is estimated that more than 50,000 letters are addressed by the children of the country to "Santa Claus" annually.

ENFORCE LAW, SAYS THOMAS

Legislator Declares Fake Employment Agents Can Be Reached.

OPPOSES ANY MORE LEGISLATION

Makes Statement that Sharks Who Take Fees and Provide No Jobs Can Be Held for Fraud.

Discouraging further legislation to curb employment agencies, W. P. Thomas, one of the two attorneys on the Douglas county delegation to the legislature, believes if the present laws were enforced there would be no trouble with them and there would be no further robbing of the unsuspecting who sign with the agencies for employment.

"We have a statute to provide against obtaining money under false pretenses and it appears to me that this was enforced the employment agencies would soon cease taking fees from the unemployed and sending them out after fictitious jobs," said Mr. Thomas. "When an employment agency accepts a fee from a man and then sends him on a wild goose chase, it has obtained money under false pretenses and ought to be prosecuted under the statute."

Mr. Thomas did not know that the employment agencies in Omaha operate under permit, and said that he thought it would be a good plan to make them take out permits. When he was informed that they all work under city permits, he said if they were revoked when the agency treated unwisely the wrongdoers would soon be weeded out. But it has been many a long day since a permit granted to an employment agency has been revoked.

Too Many Laws Now. "We have so many laws on the statute books now that care ought to be exercised in passing more laws on points already covered," said the legislator.

Mr. Thomas is working on the "loan shark" bill, fathered, in a measure, by John G. Yeiser. Mr. Yeiser, in his bill, attempts to fix the rate of interest to be charged, but Mr. Thomas has not as yet figured out what had best be done in this respect, as greater interest must be charged on short-term loans than on long-term loans. Here again comes in a statute provision which provides that interest in excess of 10 per cent is unlawful.

The Illinois state legislature two years ago passed a law prohibiting the assignment of salary yet unearned, but this was held unconstitutional by the supreme court of that state on the ground that a man has the right to sign away his property interest in his salary, on contract, the same as he has the right to sign away his property interest in chattels.

power to stop a county option bill if Henry is elected.

But Mullen is not the only trouble Governor-elect Shallenberger is having. It is said now that Dan Gellius of Omaha is about to stick to his knitting and refuse to qualify for deputy game warden. Gellius, it is said, has figured that it may be only two years and then down and out and a good job lost so he is liable at any moment to give out a statement that he will not accept.

It is possible that Mr. Shallenberger can get Mullen to take this place and it is also certain he wishes Mullen were not his old employer.

County Option the Issue.

The fight is on. The democratic legislature will be organized along the lines of for or against county option.

J. E. Broderick, representative from Clay county, is authority for the statement, and he knows. The editorial in the party organ this morning started the lineup.

"The World-Herald is very inconsistent," he said, "when it discussed in an editorial this morning the democratic legislature and county option. The members of the legislature who ran on the fusion ticket, and WASHINGTON, Dec. 18—A stinging reprimand on two army officers is contained in a general order signed today by General Franklin Bell, chief-of-staff, publishing the action of the president in the case of Colonel Daniel Corman and Captain Charles G. French, tried by court-martial at Fort Wayne, Mich., in connection with the use of force. The court sentenced Colonel Corman to suspension from command for one month and to be reprimanded. General Bell's order says the record shows that Colonel Corman signally failed in the performance of his duties as post commander, as a result of which public property has been appropriated unlawfully. The sentence is deemed inadequate, the order says.

BRIDGEPORT WANTS COUNTY SEAT

BRIDGEPORT, Neb., Dec. 18—(Special.)—Bridgeport is the central point available for the county seat of Morrill county and the Commercial club of this place is making a campaign for it. The Lincoln company, which owns the townsite, has deposited $10,000 and a guarantee of a block of land in the Valley State bank in this city, to be used for court house purposes if the county seat be permanently located here. This contribution to the county at the beginning of its career, when it will need every dollar available to meet its obligations, is received by the people with great satisfaction and insures the county seat for Bridgeport.

The greatest confidence in the future of Morrill county and Bridgeport prevails, and it is expected that this city will rapidly grow to be the best city in western Nebraska.

As confidence is the greatest asset that any jeweler can boast, the growth of his store depends upon the value of the service as recognized by the people.

This recognition has come to us by our ability and willingness to meet the requirements of a discriminating patronage, so when we say "gifts for men" you will know that we understand the difficulty of finding suitable things that we have succeeded from our standpoint, that we want you to see our supply.

We never were so well equipped to serve you. Every thing new since our first. A world of the market's best. Plenty of clerks and workmen to handle orders.

A new and distinct line of smelter's den pieces and wall racks at $1.00 to $15.00 attracts more admiration and patronage than anything we ever saw for the money.
