Account is taken of the obligation of the New York trust companies to accumulate about $45,000,000 in cash to provide for the additional requirement for reserves in effect on February 1. It is considered possible that this operation may further defer the decisive easing of the money market.

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—General Hquidations of a pre-holiday character caused a slump in the price of wheat here today, closing quotations also closed weak.

The great majority of traders in the wheat pit who were "long" were nellined to "even up" at the end of the year and in afficipation of the hol.day tomo.row, and in consequence the market lacking any substantial support was weak throughout the entire day, News of the day also favored such selling, the bulk of the gossip being of a bearish nature. The Liverpool market was weak notwithstanding an advance here yesse day. Stocks of wheat at Minneapoils and Duluth increased $50,000 bushels this week and the total exports of wheat and flour for the week from the United States and Canada were equal to only 3,115,000 bushels compared with 5,119,-000 bushels the corresponding week a year greatest weakness as the desire of shorts in the December optin to oversales caused to the December optin to oversales caused the December optin to oversales caused the December optin to oversales caused to the December optin to oversales caused the December optin to oversales caused to the December optin to the December optin to the December optin to the D Denver & Rio Grande. HOGS—After experiencing a severe break during the last two days hogs looked up once more, the trade being reasonably active, while prices were generally 10c higher. As noted yesterday, the market at that time was very uneven, and for that reason salesmen were differing somewhat in their ideas to but will as a noted.

higher. As noted yesterday, the market at that time was very uneven, and for that reason salesmen were differing somewhat in their ideas today, but still, as noted above, the average market was right at 10c higher than yesterday. The hogs sold largely at $5.40g5.70, with the best grades of heavy hogs running on up to $5.40.

SHEEP—Reseipts this morning were only fair, but it was just as well, as the demand was not nearly so brisk as it has been. In fact, it was very evident that the edge was decidedly off the market. As a matter of fact, there was an undercurrent of weakness on the close yesterday, although it was not fully realized at the time, due to the discouraging reports received from other selling points. Owing to an oversupply at Buffalo, the market there broke down very badly and, as usually happens in such cases, the weakness spread westward until it was felt at this point today in full force.

The trade opened very slow and dull and it was very much later than usual before anything like a clearance was effected.

It was very much later than usual before anything like a clearance was effected. Lambs were generally 25c lower than yesterday, while sheep were at least 10935c lower and in some cases possibly more than that.

The reaction today was not at all surprising nor should it be regarded as a recommendation.

The reaction today was not at all surprising nor should it be regarded as at least discouraging. The fact is that prices on both sheep and lambs have been advancing very rapidly and that a setback was really due.
