Gustav Luders of "Prince of Pilsen" fame has also composed and dedicated to the bride a value for the reception at the Metropolitan club after the ceremony, which he has called "Wedding Bells." A song with lyrics and music by the bridegroom, who is himself a composer of note, entitled "Little Woman of the West," will also then be rendered. It is said that this numebr played a prominent part in their romantic courtship.

Ernest R. Ball, the composer of "Love Me and the World is Mine" and other ballads, has contributed his share to the happiness of the "Chief," as he lovingly calls Mr. Witmark, by dedicating his new Davis beautiful love song success, "To the End of the World With You," to Miss Cahn. These musical attentions by Mr. Witmark's friends are greatly appreciated by the bride, as Miss Cahn comes of a musical family.
