YOUR STOMACH MISERY IS UNNECESSARY Five Minutes Later Indigestion and Distress in Stomach Vanishes.

Misericable is the man or woman who suffers from indigestion or dyspepsia. There are few diseases which create such misery, long drawn-out suffering, as indigestion. It pursues them before meals, after meals and between meals; they take it to bed with them. It is with them wherever they go, though indigestion is the simplest disease of all to cure.

Tell such afflicted ones, dear reader, of Pape's Digestin; urge the sufferer to go to any pharmacy here and give to cents for a case. Such a sufferer would ever bless you, because five minutes after taking there would be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, or heartburn, or fullness and discomfort, no belching of gas or eructations of sour food, debilitating headache, nausea, water brash and other symptoms of a sour, disordered stomach.

Pape's Digestin will digest anything you eat without the aid of the stomach. Digestin is a wonderful stomachic, purgative and aperient; it keeps the intestine clean and fresh; then your food will not ferment and poison your breath with noxious odors.

Digestin will rest the stomach and increase the gastric juices; this is what is mostly needed—more and better digestive juices—and no gas—than indigestion and all stomach trouble will go.

Each 5-cent case contains sufficient to usually thoroughly cure the most chronic dyspepsia.

GRAIN MEN DISCUSS LAWS

Fort Dodge Meeting to Formulate Measures for the Legislature.

OBJECTION TO BILL OF LADING

Ten Per Cent Increase When Road Assesses Risk Considered Excessive—Number of Legislators Never Had Picture Taken.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DENVER, Dec. 3.—(Special.)—One of the most significant meetings during the coming week will be that of the Iowa grain dealers in Fort Dodge, at which time will be considered and discussed the new uniform bill of lading which was placed in force recently, and to plan some amendments they wish to present later. The new bill of lading, which was called by George A. Wells of Des Moines, secretary of the Western Grain Dealers' association, and in his address to the gathering Mr. Wells may have some suggestions regarding laws the grain dealers should urge the legislature, in session here this winter, to pass.

The new uniform bill of lading, which is satisfactory to the grain dealers, contains a provision which they claim is unjust. This is the one affixing a 10 per cent increase in rate, or penalty, as it is called, where the road assumes the common law liability while in transit. The grain dealers say while a penalty of some kind should be placed on the carrier, a 10 per cent increase is too much, they contend, in the matter of the shipment of grain.

The grain dealers also propose to offer a protest to the contemplated increase in the basis of rates by the north and south lines of the state on shipments of grain to St. Louis.

Trustee is Appointed. Governor Warren Garst today appointed W. H. Harwood of Des Moines trustee to the State Normal School board to succeed Lieutenant Governor George Clarke of Adel, who resigned the place because of assuming a state office.

Never Had Picture Taken. One legislator this winter will undoubtedly undergo a new experience. In response to a request from the office of the secretary of state for a picture to place with those of other members in the official Register, Representative Henry Tegeler of Dyersville, Dubuque county, replies that he is a democrat, father of ten children and never had his picture taken for publication.

Nearly every session has its unphotographed member—says a legislator. He is not so well known as the recent democratic state chairman, Clint Price. He absolutely refused to surrender to the photographers and with a cold heart turned away all newspaper men. Then one day the sketch artist, Mr. E. G. Sawyer, with pencil and pad. Next day a picture purporting to be Price appeared in a daily paper. The day following Price appeared with a supply of good photographs for all the newspaper men who desired them. He said it had come to be a matter of self-defense.

Garst Working on Message. Governor Warren Garst is now busily engaged preparing his message to the general assembly that convenes January 11. This duty of outlining to the legislators needed assistance from his shoulders with his six-week term as governor. It is expected the governor will have some strong recommendations to make to this assembly.

Mayor Has More Trouble. That Mayor A. J. Mathis, during his term as police judge of Des Moines, made an agreement with three well-known bondsmen allowing them to pay to the city $5 for all men charged with intoxication when the prisoner was fined $10 is a fact established beyond a doubt. This agreement comes indirectly from Councilman John MacVicar, superintendent of the department of public improvement.

This latest sensation, sprung so soon after Mayor Mathis turned back into the city treasury over $1,300 in fees without a word of explanation, comes as a bomb to the other members of the council and city hall attaches, although some were aware of the truth.

POISON CANDY BY MAIL Mrs. Marie A. Smith and Daughter of Denver Seriously Ill from Eating Confection.

DENVER, Jan. 3.—A box of home-made candy sent through the mails has nearly resulted in the death of three persons and the police are now trying to trace the sender of the candy in the belief that a deliberate attempt was made to poison the people to whom the confection was sent.

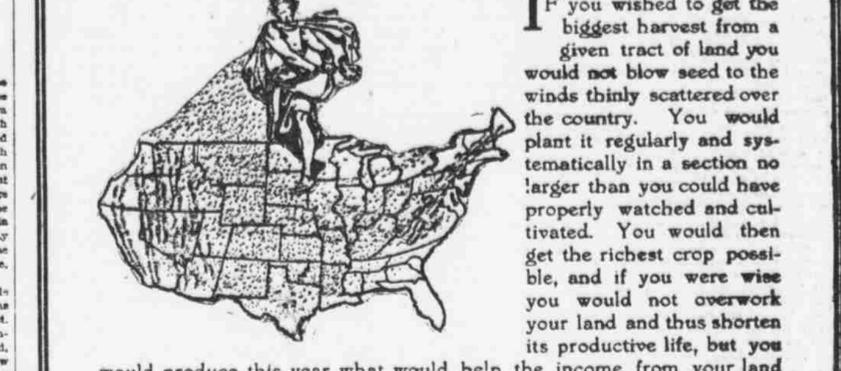

MARSHALLTOWN—George Long, Jr., aged 25, of Thornton, Ia., seriously and profusely fatally injured today by accidently shooting himself in the abdomen with a shotgun while hunting. Young Long is a student at the State Normal, Ames, and he was at home spending his vacation when the accident occurred.

MARSHALLTOWN—Henry Y. Brown, a former old employee and general foreman in the shipping department of the Iowa Central at Cedar Lake, near Minneapolis, Ia., for more than a year has been general foreman of the car department of the Iowa Central, resigned today. He returned to Minneapolis to enter the employ of the Great Northern. He is succeeded by W. H. Samuels of St. Louis.

FORT DODGE—Webster county hunters and fishermen pushed through the permanent organization of a branch of the state association very suddenly in Fort Dodge Thursday night and begins its existence with a membership of about thirty. C. Crawford, H. E. Peterson and E. E. Crawford were named as delegates to attend the annual convention in Des Moines, January 1. The main object for this hurried organization and the speaking of the delegates will be to protest against certain recommendations made by the state association such as obliging farmers to pay a license or being the state to pay a license on an annual fee of $10 for hunting from non-residents and of $1 from residents of the state. Other less important measures that are proposed will be protested.

A RICH HARVEST CAN ONLY BE REALIZED FROM THOROUGH CULTIVATION

TO MANUFACTURERS: If you wished to get the biggest harvest from a given tract of land you would not blow seed to the winds thinly scattered over the country.

It is just so in advertising. The use of so-called "national mediums," of general circulation, is scattering your seed too thinly over too great a territory. You may get valuable general publicity in this way but you cannot expect it to do any thorough cultivating. This is no disparagement of general mediums, for space in them is well worth what it costs, but you must not expect them to yield anything like maximum results for a given territory.

You can only obtain maximum results and profit from any given locality by the means of Daily Newspaper Publicity. The newspaper will cultivate the local field as no other medium can possibly do it. It goes to the home. It takes the news of the day to the home fireside. It is the messenger between the outer world and the reader you seek to reach. It sells things.

By selecting any section of country which best appeals to you for the purpose, you can in a short time and at practically no cost, demonstrate the value of this great cultivating agency—the daily newspaper—to your entire satisfaction. If you have been a user of space in general mediums, then you are all the more able to get the best value from local cultivation. Take almost any one of the general mediums for an example. It may have 200,000 or even 500,000 circulation, but you will not find a great number in any one city or town.

You can only get the maximum publicity by the use of the local daily newspaper. Take for example a certain city in Michigan of 100,000 population. A canvass of 21,132 homes showed that 19,781 of them took some daily newspaper. Can there be any other way to thoroughly cultivate the home field which can approach the messenger of the day—the newspaper? It stands supreme in power to cultivate trade locally and if you do not recognize the fact you are not awake to your own best interests.

DEMOCRATS PLAYING POLITICS

Legislative Delegation Bows to Dahlman as Well as Hitchcock.

TO KEEP LOBECK WHERE HE IS

Eliminates Him from Majority Race and Abolishes Solomon's Office—Votes for Elective Fire and Police Board.

The Douglas county legislators-elect have bowed to Hitchcock and Dahlman at one and the same time, agreeing to support the congressman-editor's pet scheme for an elective fire and police board and deciding on a bill to abolish the office of county controller and retain that of city controller.

Of course, there's no politics in this compromise, but the extent of it, E. G. Solomon, present county controller, is a republican; C. O. Lobbeck, present city controller, is a democrat with majority aspirations. The existence of the county office means the abolition of the city job at the expiration of Lobbeck's present term.

Some members of the delegation urged that if Lobbeck's term expires this spring it means he will get in Dahlman's way for the nomination for mayor. Hence the simplest thing in the world to do is to abolish Solomon's job and make a place for Lobbeck and thus clear the track for Mayor Dahlman's re-nomination.

Some members of the delegation urged that if Lobbeck's term expires this spring it means he will get in Dahlman's way for the nomination for mayor. Hence the simplest thing in the world to do is to abolish Solomon's job and make a place for Lobbeck and thus clear the track for Mayor Dahlman's re-nomination.

All this action took place yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the delegation. Of course the little formality of having these matters enacted into law down at Lincoln will be necessary before the action becomes effective.

Tanner Chief Rebel. Chief among those who favored an appointive board was John M. Tanner, state senator from South Omaha, but he said if Lobbeck's term expires this spring it means he will get in Dahlman's way for the nomination for mayor. Hence the simplest thing in the world to do is to abolish Solomon's job and make a place for Lobbeck and thus clear the track for Mayor Dahlman's re-nomination.

Some of the legislators wanted the commissioners elected nonpartisan, as are the water commissioners, but this was lost and they will be elected on partisan tickets, providing the city charter is amended as the legislators have planned.

The change affecting the method of choosing members of the boards is the principal feature of the new charter-to-be. Of course the little formality of having these matters enacted into law down at Lincoln will be necessary before the action becomes effective.
