

Don't Blame Your Stomach

When Without Exertion Or Cost You Can Enjoy Meals And Cure Dyspepsia.

Don't blame your stomach or your luck when your meals declare war on your system. When the stomach won't do its work it is because it cannot.

When foul smelling odors come from your stomach, when the head aches and the sourness of mouth every morning makes you hate your breakfast, when dreams and nightmare assail you, don't give up the fight.

This is the appeal of nature, and it should be heard. Over-eating, late suppers, poorly chewed food, too rich pastries and underdone cooking are some of the causes of the stomach's ill health.

When the stomach is busy, it presses and churns all the liquid matter from food and with its juices dissolves into liquid form or pulp everything which comes into it.

If each food be poisonous it affects the juices, attacks the stomach, goes into the blood and weakens the entire system.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest a full meal easily without material assistance from the stomach. They will restock the gastric fluid with all the elements needed.

They build up the stomach at once, destroy sour taste, bad breath, belching, stomach and bowel trouble and quickly restore natural conditions.

One grain of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 3,000 grains of food in the stomach or in a glass vial without aid of the human digestive apparatus.

The method of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the methods of Nature. They contain every requisite for the stomach and digestion.

After a meal one of those little tablets when it enters the stomach mingles with the juices, attacks the food and digests it. It removes the fermented and decayed mass, lying stagnant there and causes the stomach at once to be wholly a question for you to solve.

Your druggist will furnish Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets 50c the box, or send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package free. Address, F. A. Stuart Co., 159 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

NEGROES ONLY WANT JUSTICE

Black Men Ask Court to Remit Fine of Brown Man Who Keeps Restaurant.

Upon the plea of three representatives of the negro race of Omaha, Judge Sears of the criminal branch of the district court has decided to dismiss the case against Kojiro Kooka, the Japanese proprietor of the Nagasaki restaurant, fined $25 for refusing to serve a negro patron, upon the payment by the Jap of the costs of the action.

Scott Barber, the negro who was refused a meal in the Nagasaki restaurant, was the spokesman for the trio and he told the jurist that his race did not want damages against the caterer; all his people wanted was justification. This they believe they have secured in the decision in their behalf in the case recently tried in Judge Sears' court.

The case against Kooka was first tried before Justice of the Peace Altstad, "Der Shodder," decided the action adversely to the Jap and fined him the minimum, $25. Kooka then appealed to the district court, but the same decision was awaiting him there. He was perfecting an appeal to the supreme court when the negro delegation prevailed upon Judge Sears to dismiss the case.

Considerable amusement is afforded members of the Omaha Grain exchange by an article written by G. H. Wilson, commissioner of the Kansas City Transportation bureau, in regard to the case at issue before the Interstate Commerce commission.

Wilson, who is writing a review of the year, achieves humor of the unconscious kind in the course of his narrative, and the weakness of his plea is such that the expressed wonder is he ever let it be published. Into the merits of the case he does not go, undoubtedly for the reason that detailed explanation is not advantageous to the Kawville grain men.

Wilson's statement, which appears in the Drivers Telegram, says: The much-contested and much-discussed differential adjustment as between Omaha and this market has finally been tried out and is next to be argued in Washington before the full commission.
