RELIEF PARTY LEAVES ROME

American Rescuers Are Bound for Earthquake District.

MESSINA IS STILL SHAKEN

Tremors Continue at the Rate of Ten an Hour—Bodies of Cheney and Wife Are Still Buried in Ruins.

ROME, Jan. 7.—A special train left here this morning for Civita Vecchia with the American relief party, headed by Ambassador Griscom, on board.

They will sail for Messina on board the steamer Bayern, chartered to convey the American relief to the south. The party includes William Hooper of the Red Cross, Gay of Boston, John E. Elliott, Wilfred Thomson, and a score of other Americans, including doctors and nurses. Mrs. Griscom, Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Elliott accompany the relief workers as far as Civita Vecchia.

The ambassador is going only as far as the strait of Messina, where he will meet the Bayern on its work of relief. If will meet Admiral Sperry, who is coming from Port Said on board the flagship Connecticut, in the strait, and return with the Connecticut to Naples. The American battleships following the Connecticut north will be placed at the disposal of the Italian authorities.

Shocks Still Felt.

MESSINA, Jan. 7.—Earthquake shocks are still continuing here at the rate of about ten per hour. There also has again broken out, completing the destruction of the city hall and the records stored therein. A party of men under the direction of Major Landis, the American military attaché at Rome, has been working for four days to extricate the bodies of A. Cheney and his wife from the ruins of the American consulate. The apartment of the Cheneys has not yet been uncovered, and many feet of wreckage still remain to be removed.

Bayard Cutting, jr., Winthrop Chanler and Stuart K. Lupton, American consular representatives, are making every effort to trace Americans supposed to have been in the earthquake zone at the time of the disaster, but so far without success. The consuls have determined to isolate Messina as the only means of preventing an outbreak of serious illness. The relief parties complain that the starving refugees refuse the most nutritious food, and want only macaroni. The work of the gathering Messina consists principally in trenching between layers of quakelime. Out of respect for the prevailing religious feeling it was determined not to burn the dead.

MESSAGE WILL BE TABLED

house by Mr. Olmstead of Pennsylvania. His remarks stirred up the subject in all its phases and gave the so-called insurgents under the leadership of Mr. Gardner of Massachusetts an opportunity to air their opinions. Mr. Gardner of New York occupied the middle ground on the proposition.

Mr. Tatt's reported intention to break the solid south was incidentally brought into discussion in the course of a speech on the tariff by Mr. Shepherd of Texas, who himself ridiculed and burying them in trenches.

The only other speaker was Mr. Russell of Missouri, who made a strong plea for river and harbor improvement.

PROBE FOR POSTAL DEPARTMENT

House Starts Investigation of Expenditures for Service and Supplies.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—With a view of ascertaining how the $22,000,000 appropriated annually for the expenses of the postal service is expended, the house committee on postoffice expenditures has started its probe.

Chairman Wagner's committee is engaged in examining conditions in the office of the purchasing agent. It has been ascertained that a large quantity of supplies had been purchased by the office, independent of the annual contracts, designed to cover everything that the service needed. So far as the committee has gone the acting purchasing agent has been able to give a satisfactory answer to all inquiries.

DEATH RECORD.

Axel Carlson.

ST. PAUL, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—Axel Carlson died yesterday morning at his home in Dannebrog, after a long period of illness due to spinal tuberculosis, aged about 43 years. He came to this country from Sweden in 1882, and served as Union Pacific station agent at Dannebrog since the opening of the road in 1885 and down to 1902, when impaired health impelled him to quit the service. Mr. Carlson leaves a widow and three sons. He was a member of the Masonic and Knights Templar orders.

Horace D. Dwellley.

Horace D. Dwellley residing many years at Thirty-second and Burt streets and a resident in the Union House, died on New Year's day at Washington, D. C. Interment at Lewiston, Me. Mr. Dwellley will be remembered by many Omaha people. He is survived by three grand children living here, Mrs. R. T. White, Mrs. Maude Kelley and Mrs. J. T. Vest.

Peter Gilsted, 21 years old, died at the Central hospital Thursday.

The funeral will be under the auspices of the Danish Brotherhood, lodge No. 1, and will be held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Dodder chapel, Twenty-third and Cumings streets. Interment will be at Springwell cemetery, northwest of Benson.

FIRE RECORD.

Farmhouse Near Lexington.

LEXINGTON, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special Telegram.)—The dwelling house of Isaac Brown, a farmer living seven miles west of Lexington, burned to the ground this afternoon. A small amount of household goods was saved. The total loss was estimated at $1,500.

Grocery Store at Kearney.

KEARNEY, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special Telegram.)—Fire broke out at 4 o'clock this morning in a small frame building on South Central avenue occupied by E. J. Carpenter, grocer, and before the flames could be checked had consumed the whole structure. Insured partially; damages, $1,000.

HYMENEAL.

Bel-Dunlap.

TECUMSEH, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—Ralph Edward Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bell of Vesta, and Miss Delira Dunlap, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Dunlap, were married at the Dunlap home in this city yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Rev. Robert Liddell, D. D., pastor of the Presbyterian church, in the presence of a company of some fifty or more relatives and friends. A wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Bell departed for a trip to Kansas City and St. Louis, and upon their return will make their home on a farm near Vesta.

EXPERTS IN HAINES CASE

Dr. Manson Says Captain Was Suffering from Impulsive Insanity When He Shot Anis.

FLUSHING, N. Y., Jan. 7.—The trial of Thornton Jenkins Hains passed today to that stage frequent in homicide cases where testimony is developed from medical experts and alibis. Hains' counsel placed on the stand Dr. L. Samuel Manson, an alienist, who, after listening to a hypothetical question regarding Captain Hains' sanity, declared that on August 15, when Captain Hains shot William E. Anis, he was suffering from "impulsive insanity."

Thornton Hains' long cross-examination was concluded at the morning session and the defense began the presentation of expert evidence to prove the insanity of Captain Hains. The prison physician was not permitted to tell his opinion of Captain Hains' sanity, and it looked as if the defense would be unable to get the alienist's testimony before the jury. Dr. Manson stated he had not treated Captain Hains as his patient, but had simply observed him. It was then that the hypothetical question, which required one hour and fifteen minutes, was read to the alienist.

Dr. Manson stated that Captain Hains suffered from melancholia following the shooting, and his mental condition showed an improvement. Before an objection could be entered to an interrogation the alienist stated that Captain Hains was sane when he last saw him. The cross-examination of Dr. Manson was under way when the court adjourned until tomorrow.

We inventory next week—Friday and Saturday all boys' clothing going at a third off.

DAKOTA LEGISLATORS BUSY

First Day for Introducing Bills in the House Brings Out an Even Dozen.

PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 7.—(Special Telegram.)—Today was the first for introduction of bills and they came with a rush in the house, an even dozen coming along. Hale got No. 1 on his bill, providing for depositories for state and county funds. Ranum also filed a bill on the same subject. Others following were a pure drug bill, one providing for the establishment of a state inebriate asylum at Highmore, increasing the supreme court to five and two of special import to the press, as they require election officials to make prompt abstracts of the precinct votes to county auditors, and that auditors make prompt unofficial returns to the secretary of state. Ranum and McDonnell had their 2-cent rate bills ready and both were sent in.

The senate did no business except to appoint a long list of clerks, appointing J. M. Otterness senate stenographer, Thomas McKie journal clerk and on committees C. K. Snyder, F. E. Van Shick, Pearl Hunkins, Len Robertson, N. E. Phillips, Clarence Thompson, Hans Helgeson, M. J. Bryden, G. E. Mackey, G. D. Cook and M. A. Keene.

In the senate tomorrow Engleby will introduce a bill fixing a maximum rate of 20 cents for a ten word telegraph message between any two points in the state.

OMAHA MEN AWAIT THE SALE.

Brandels' Great Semi-Annual Offer of Choice of Any Suit or Overcoat in Stock for $12.50.

Omaha men were never before so thoroughly interested in a sale. The indications are that there will be a bigger attendance at this sale at Brandels' Saturday than ever before in Omaha's history. Last year at this time Brandels offered the choice of any suit in the house for $12.50, and the sale was a brilliant success. Last June the choice of the house was offered at $10, and it looked as if half the men in Omaha were on hand. Next Saturday we offer the choice of any overcoat or suit in the stock at $12.50, and a crowd of gigantic proportions will certainly take advantage of this chance.

Gloves, hosiery, caps, suspenders, underwear, mufflers, earmuffs, etc., at 50 per cent off Friday and Saturday. Benson & Thorne Co.

MYSTERY IN HACKED BODY

Identification of Torso Found Near Detroit as Minister Is Not Positive.

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 7.—With rumors and stories of all sorts floating about the countryside today, near Columbus township, where a dismembered body was found yesterday afternoon stuffed into the Methodist church stove, there is not one positive development toward solving the mystery which shrouds the crime.

Suspicion of the accuracy of the identification of the body as that of Rev. John H. Carmichael of Adair developed today. Many of the people of the neighborhood express doubt and the sheriff states that he is not positive that Rev. Mr. Carmichael was the victim of the horrible crime.

Another man is missing from the neighborhood, Gideon Browning, a carpenter, who lived near the minister. The officers have been searching for Browning since the crime was discovered.

There had never been any serious trouble between Browning and the minister, so far as is known. In fact, they are reported to have been quite friendly. Tuesday afternoon Browning left a Grand Trunk train at the nearby village of Hickey and inquired the way to the Methodist church in Columbus township. He said to two different men that he had an appointment there. C. O. Conat, a rural mail carrier, and Thomas Galvin walked part way to the church with Browning to make sure that he made no mistake in directions. They left him a mile from the little building. He has not been seen since.

BOARD VACANCIES NOT FILLED

Governor Sheldon Fails to Name Successors to Kennedy and Cowell.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 7.—(Special Telegram.)—Governor Sheldon did not appoint members of the Omaha Fire and Police board to fill the vacancies caused by the resignations of John L. Kennedy and Robert Cowell. It is believed the governor was convinced his term of office ended at midnight last night and that action taken today would be invalid. Messrs. Kennedy and Cowell resigned from the board some time ago, their resignations to take effect January 1.

Sheepmen Want Quarantine.

PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 7.—(Special Telegram.)—The sheep owners of the western part of the state are asking that Governor Vasey declare a quarantine against Wyoming on account of alleged disease among Wyoming sheep and the proclamation will probably be issued.

Cold Prevents Jail Break.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Jan. 7.—Forty-five prisoners in the city jail last night tunneled their way to freedom. Getting a breath of the icy air, all but three voluntarily returned. They declared they preferred prison to freedom in zero weather.

Biggest Sale In the West

The St. Louis Salvage and Wrecking Co. Will Put the Omaha Clothing Stock on Sale Saturday Morning.

Store Closed Until Goods Are Remarkably Prepared for the bargain event of the New Year.

There's an old saying that "A man of words and not of deeds is like a garden full of weeds." I am from Missouri and I propose to show you. This sale is going to be just as advertised. Not one bit of misrepresentation. We never do business that way. We have purchased stocks for 30 years and our Manager of the St. Louis Salvage & Wrecking Co., at 1215-1213 Farnam Street, I want to say that I never came across a neater and better stock than this merchandise which I am now putting on sale.

I will quote just a few prices. I am too busy marking down the stock to quote any more.

A Few Prices

150 Barker Brand Collars, 2c; $2.00 Stiff and Soft Hats, nobby shapes, 99c; $1.00 Pure Wool Underwear, 49c; 50c Boys' Sweaters, 19c; $1.50 Men's Sweater Coats, 49c; $15.00 and $17.50 Men's Suits, $8.98; $11.00 Men's Overcoats, all wool, $4.98; Strouses & Bros. Harem-Made Clothing, regular value $7.50 to $8.50, now $5.98, and so all along the line. Boys' Long Pants Suits, worth anywhere $7.50, now $2.98; Men's $2.00 Shoes, $1.19. I cannot take the time to quote more prices. All I can say is that there never was such a sale before. I will expect every man and woman in Omaha to do their duty. A word to the wise should be sufficient. Remember the place, The St. Louis Salvage & Wrecking Co., at 1215-1213 Farnam street. Look for the large Red Sign.
