FAILURE IN SUPREME TEST

Greatest Danger in Life is This, Says Dr. Conley. "A school or college cannot give to a son what a parent should give, and a boy in privity runs to go to destruction unless he has the tuition of a father and a mother. A big, good man is worth more in a community than a library or a gift of $500,000 donated by some philanthropist."

USES FIG TREE AS AN EXAMPLE

Distressing Thing About Failure is that it Begets Failure, Touch of One Life Vital to Another. Taking for his text the parable of the fig tree which for three years brought forth no fruit and which the owner of the vineyard ordered cut down because it cumbered the ground, Rev. J. W. Conley, D. D., preached a sermon on "Failure," at the First Baptist church Sunday morning.

Simmons of this city, grand master workman, Ancient Order United Workmen, Jurisdiction of South Dakota, has started on a tour of inspection to lodges in the western part of the state. After spending an evening at Pierre and another at Central City, he will visit the lodge at Terry on the evening of January 11, after which he will go to Galena, Whitewood, Sturgis, Deadwood and return to visit the lodge at Fort Pierre January 16, and on January 18 the lodge at Pierre and on January 19 at Huron. All these lodges are making special arrangements for a grand jubilee on the occasion of the grand master's visits, and each will be addressed by him and other prominent Ancient Order United Workmen.

Discrimination Suit Up

PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Attorney General Clark is busy getting ready to meet the appeal case brought from McPherson county by the Central Lumber company, which was found guilty under the anti-discrimination law and a fine imposed. The company appeals to the supreme court for the purpose of testing the constitutionality of the anti-discrimination act of the 1907 session. If the lower court is sustained the decision will act to force the company out of business in this state.

Rock Springs People Liberal

ROCK SPRINGS, Wyo., Jan. 10.—(Special.)—The people of Rock Springs, who made the most liberal donation secured from any Wyoming town for the relief of San Francisco earthquake sufferers, have raised $28,642 for the relief of the Italian earthquake sufferers, and donations are still coming in. The liberality of Rock Springs is more remarkable in view of the fact that nine-tenths of the inhabitants of the town are coal miners. A majority of the contributors to the present relief fund are Italian and other foreigners, including liberals from the Japanese. The largest donations are those of Mrs. Kittie Hicks, $100, and the First National bank, $100.

Miss Mackey found one that suited her and gave her personal check for the amount of the bill.

Elgutter Reads a Paper

Charles S. Elgutter read a paper on the subject of "A Citizen of the United States." He showed that the constitution while it provided for the government for the citizens of the United States, it did not define the qualifications of a citizen, nor did it make any provision therefor. He held that the question of citizenship was a matter wholly within the province of the several states, and elaborated upon the peculiar distinction between territorial and state citizenship.

Salisbury, superintendent of the pastor's department; Jesse L. Perry, Rev. G. M. Jones and W. A. Cleghorn. The treasurer's report showed the finances to be in good condition, and other reports from over the county showed Sunday school work to be in a very satisfactory condition.

Merchants Fight Insurance Rate

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Jan. 10.—(Special.)—The initial steps have been taken by the city council for a lower fire insurance rate in this city. It has been learned from rate experts that, since the passage of the law enabling cities having volunteer fire departments to pass an occupation tax ordinance levying a tax attached fire insurance companies, rates have been raised to cover this additional cost, and there is a well-grounded suspicion that they more than cover the sums which the companies pay back to the city. Better fire reaching facilities, recommended by insurance men, are also being installed, and efforts will be made to secure a lower rate on this ground.
