LAND VALUE OVER DOUBLE

Was Offered for $45 in 1898. NEW HOME FOR MRS. MARY REED

L. Reed Buys Corner at Thirty-Sixth and Dewey for His Mother, Who Will Build

Ten years ago George E. Stifel of Wheelng, W. Va., offered to sell, and all but did sell, a 160-acre farm near Elkhorn for $45 an acre. Friday John Kunnemann bought it of Stifel for $16,000, or at $100 an acre. The $45 price was unusually high for 1898, for land was not selling advantageously then, the period of crop failures being not far in the past.

Thus what is nearly a 60 per cent increase in value is registered through the sale for strictly farm property, the location of the farm making it unlikely that it will ever be available for other than agricultural purposes.

The farm adjoins on the south the 15,006acre farm of Colonel Pratt and is one of the six farms, each 160 acres, which the father of George Stifel owned in Dodge county and which he gave at his death, one each to his six sons. The Byron Reed company, which nearly sold the property ten years ago, acted for Stifel in the transaction of Friday.

A. L. Reed made another deal Friday, buying the southeast corner of Thirtysixth and Dewey avenue for his mother Mrs. Mary M. Reed. The property was street, where he had been night clerk and sold by C. S. Montgomery for the Milton Alcoholism is thought to have Trust company, which is his family investcaused death. Young Man Cuts Throat with Razor and is Found Dead by Landlady.

With his throat out with a ragor and his body otherwise mutilated, Roscoe C. Welty, a young machinist, was found dead in his room Friday morning. The wounds were apparently self-inflicted and melancholia and despondency are believed to be responsible for the tragedy. Welty was 26 years old and unmarried. He lived at 903 North Eighteenth street, at a rooming house conducted by Mrs. Anna street. Hotchkiss. The body was discovered by the landlady Friday morning when she went to the room to find out why young
