Complete Record of Officer Smith's Murderer Shows a Long Career of Ontlawry by Jack Curtain.

C. E. Long, alias White, an ex-convict and safe blower and an acquaintance of Jack Curtain, the murderer of Officer Smith, has been accested by the police as a suspicious character along with May Carter, the woman with whom Long has been asso clating.

Detectives Davis and Pattullo arrested Long shortly after in o'clock Monday morning on the street and then went to his rooms at 605 North Seventeenth street and took the woman into custody. Long had about safe burglary and attempted murder at $95 in monty in his pockets when arrested North Platte. and two large revolvers were found in his room and seized by the police. That Jack Curtain, whose real name is Hugh Jackson, is a bold and famous outlaw and desperado, is fully corroborated by the Pinkerton National Detective agency. Chief Donahue of the local police department received a letter from the Chicago office of the agency Monday morning. It gives a lengthy account of Curtain's career since the year 1896, so far as it is known to the police of the country, and stated that before that time Curtain had been a "bad actor" for many years. In tabulated form, following is Curtain's record, according to Pinkerton detectives: 1892, served time in Wyoming for stage robbery. Before that had served in Jefferson City, Mo. 1836, exact date not known; released from olorado state prison, Canon City, Colo.;

DANGERS OF CHILDHOOD

THE WORST OF THESE IS THE NEGLECTED COLD.

Health Commissioner Reynolds of Chicago Issues a Bulletin to the Public.

[From the Chicago Tribune.] "Health Commissioner Reynolds of Chi-cago, in his latest bulletins of the depart-ment, says that the worst danger to which the children of Chicago are now exposed is the neglected cold. If your baby has a cold don't say 'it will wear off, and let it go at that. If your children have the snumes, or sore throats or watery eyes, don't hesitate to take them from school for a day or two so that you may break up the colds they have.

Every parent can add to the healthy conditions of the city and to his or her own peace of mind by guarding against any and every kind of a cold.

Generally the child doesn't know it caught cold. It may be impossible to prevent it from exposing its sensitive body to those dangers which older persons shun. But the chances of contracting colds can be easily diminished by a little care and foresight. If the children get colds don's waste any

Don't trifle with a cold." This warning, coming from so preminent an official and one whose position enables him to know the real danger, should be beeded by all. The lives of many children are sacrificed each year by neglecting the colds which they take, others contract chronic catarrh from which they never fully recover. It would be unwise for the health commissioner of a city to recommend any remedy or treatment for a disease, but should he do so Chamberlain's Cough Remedy would certainly head the list as the most efficacious for colds, croup and whooping cough in children, and the one remedy that can always be depended upon to effect a speedy cure and that is pleasant and safe to take. Then Mrs. Hinricksen Files Affi-

Mrs. Bertha C. Hinrichsen kidnaped her laughter Christmas day and yesterday pelogized profusely to the court for so oing. The apology is in the form of an affidavit filed in the office of the cierk

Frank P. Hinrichsen, for divorce, and has been awarded temporary alimony, while ie has the custody of the little girl. Mrs. Hinrichsen's affidavit recites that when she visited the child Christmas day she was so startled at hearing the girl curse and swear that of her own impulse and without consulting anyone she forthwith ook her and fled from the house. The child is still with her. Mrs. Hinrichsen declares that she recognizes that she grievusly erred against the order of the court nd will produce the child when the case nes to trial. The affidavit alleges that he girl was being taught tales against She prays for increased temporary imony and says that slanders circulated against her have injured her reputation nd caused her to lose her roomers. CHICAGO, Jan. 18—Judge Dupuy's de-cree dismissing the bill of Margaret Ann Babcock to obtain an eighth interest in 2,00,000 acres of land which the state of Texas granted a syndicate in return for the erection of the capitol of that state was sustained in a decision rendered by the court of appeals today.

OLD AT TWENTY Beturn of Youth with Proper Food.

Many persons who eat plenty never seem to be properly nourished. That's because the food is not digested and absorbed. Much that is eaten is never taken up by the system as real food, and so the tissues simply starve and the individual may, as in a recent case, look and feel old in what should be the bloom of life, youth. "At twenty I was prematurely old. All he health and vigor and brightness of youth had been, as it seemed, stolen from me. I went to work in the morning with slow steps and a dull head. "My work through the day was unsatisfactory for my breakfast lay in my stomach like a hard lump. I was peevish and the gas in my stomach was very annoying. After supper I usually went to bed to toss half the night from sheer nervousness. "This was all from indigestion-wrong eating "Finally I tried Grape-Nuts and I cannot describe the full benefits received from the food. It gave me back my health. It has completely restored good digestion and relieved me of my ailments. I steadily improved and am now strong and in per fect health." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creck, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."
