KEYSTONE COLONY

in this garden spot of the North Platte v of all are among those which are still on the market.

Sirst, there is the Paxton home place.

This is the hub of the entire tract. The buildings are a mile north of the station at Keystone (and remember this will be In a few years an important point on the main line of the Union Pacific). The land extends into the hills to the north. Price for the entire tract of 4,800 acres Price for the entire tract of 4,800 acres is only $55 per acre, ten years' time. Then there are two other choice tracts of the same shape and size, each three-quarter sections, with one end in the valley and one end in the hills. Good irrigated farming land on each tract and some good grazing land as well. Just the right combination for a mixed stock and grain farm.

There are also pienty of desirable forty and some good grazing the right combination for a mixed and grain farm.

There are also pienty of desirable forty and eighty-acre tracts of valley land.

In all there are twenty-three quarter sections still for sale in the colony. So it is a case of SKIDOO. They all must go, and they will.

FOR COLONIZATION.

6,509 acres of light and dark sandy soil, just the kind you would select for trucking, with an almost level surface, just sloping enough for good drainage, about two-thirds onen prairie, the balance beautiful groves, so located that almost every small tract will have some trees on it, all this and yet within three miles of three railroad towns and only five miles from a fourth, and all on main line of road! Just think of it, four towns and two main lines of road! Others tell you that some time in the dim future their tract will have a road and a townsite "about such a point."
