

Big Break in Prices

Dresher's prices broke badly last week—$35.00 first class tailored clothes declining to $22.50. This is the lowest record for years and it's a great chance to jump in and buy low.

Bulls, elks, eagles and other "live things" are charging Dresher's stock of classy clothes. There are still plenty of glitchee patterns for your choice, new, rich designs in browns and greens, in all kinds of stripes, lines, checks and plaids, every one of them uncommon.

The break hasn't touched Dresher's workmanship. Actual $35 style, fit and wear, even at these ridiculous prices. Full iron-bound guarantee.

ON NEEDS OF AGRICULTURE

Various Organized Bodies Are Holding Annual Sessions.

OIL INSPECTOR ALLEN'S REPORT

Recommends Some Changes in Practice Among Them Lowering Test for Gasoline to Be Sold in the State.

From a Staff Correspondent. LINCOLN, Jan. 19.—(Special.)—The annual meetings of organized agriculture of Nebraska got fairly under way this morning at the State farm, and progressive farm men from over the state began to arrive in large numbers to be present at the session of their respective organizations.

The state veterinarians were joined today by the Poland-China breeders, the Nebraska State Red Poll Breeders' Association, the Nebraska State Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' organization, the Nebraska Duroc-Jersey Breeders' association and the Nebraska State Horticultural society. The medical men and the association of agricultural students were the vanguard which opened sessions yesterday, the former completing their program in the afternoon.

The feature of the session tonight was the dedication of the handsome $70,000 home economics building at the State farm. It was dedicated by Prof. Ellen H. Richards of the Institute of Technology of Boston, Mass.

During the evening the structure was thrown open to the inspection of visitors and a reception committee was on hand to make everybody feel at home in the first building devoted to women on the grounds of the state experiment station and Agricultural college. Several hundred students, a big part of them being the daughters of Nebraska farmers, are taking courses in domestic science under instructions in the home economics department of the state institution.

The State Board of Agriculture met this afternoon and listened to the reports of its officers. Senator Mellor delivered his annual report, reviewing the year and suggesting what is desired for the ensuing year. The total expenditures under the board's direction were $78,501.78, and the total receipts were $1,518.77, leaving a balance of $1,110.90.

Oil Inspector Allen Reports. A. B. Allen, the retiring state oil inspector, completed his biennial report this morning and filed it with Governor Shalenger. Mr. Allen, among other recommendations, includes a change in the law governing the test of gasoline. At the present time the gravity test is 68 degrees, and Mr. Allen would change that to 61 degrees. This recommendation, he says, if acted upon, will permit Nebraskans to buy Kansas gasoline, which is now below the 68 degree test.

The total number of barrels of kerosene and gasoline inspected by this department during the year 1908 was 263,782, as compared with 262,405 in 1907. Of the 1908 inspection, 141,731 barrels were kerosene and 122,051 were gasoline. The total receipts were $171.18 less than the receipts of the previous year, principally owing to the fact that the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad company and the Union Pacific Railroad company have refused to pay the inspection fees on the oil inspected for them, save that the latter company has paid the fees on one car per month.

During the last year two prosecutions were instituted by this department in the county against local agents of the Iowa Tank Line company of Sioux City, Ia. for selling untested oil. The party pleaded guilty in district court and was fined $50 and costs, which was paid to the proper authorities. With this exception there has been ample respect shown for the provisions of the inspection laws by all engaged in the selling of illuminating oils, the only kind of oils with which this department has to do. Mr. Allen recommends that the law be amended so as to provide for a fee of 50 cents per barrel for inspections in quantities from one to five barrels, 25 cents per barrel for quantities from six to twenty barrels, 15 cents per barrel in quantities from twenty-one to 100 barrels, and 10 cents per barrel in all quantities over 100 barrels. He also recommends that our gravity test for gasoline be reduced from 68 degrees to 61 degrees.

Secretary Hayward's Movements. William Hayward, secretary of the republican national committee, was in Lincoln today attending supreme court. Mr. Hayward, who will act as chairman of the national committee for the next four years, expects to meet National Chairman Hitchcock in Chicago some time this week. January 30 he expects to attend the Gridiron dinner in Washington.

Florence Rate Case Argued. Charles S. Eiquiter and C. C. Wright argued before the State Railway commission this afternoon the case of the Delta Lumber Company and others against the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha Railroad company. This company is charged with having increased the rates on building material from Omaha to Chicago. The shippers are asking that the rates be reduced to conform with the old rates and that the railroad company make reparation to the shippers for shipments made during the time the rates were excessive. Mr. Eiquiter appeared for the shippers and Mr. Wright for the railroad company.

Little Girl Saves Playmate. The heroic efforts of 10-year-old Annie Bonner saved her playmate, Edith Lasher, from drowning in Salt creek last Sunday afternoon.

The Lasher child, who is only 8 years of age, had tumbled through a hole in the ice near which the two girls were playing and had risen to the surface the second time when her companion caught her dress, dragged her out and resuscitated her.

Then the two children ran nearly two miles to their home and told the startling story to their parents. The Lasher girl is none the worse for her experience, though her mother was nearly prostrated when she heard the tale. The father, E. Lasher, is an employe in the boiler shop at Havelock.

The two were with a number of other little folk along the creek at the time of the accident. All were present at the moment Edith Lasher slid into the hole, but most of them were, as they expressed it, "scared stiff," and rendered physically unfit to give any assistance—that is, all save little Annie Bonner, who crept to the jagged edge of the ice hole and after several efforts managed to catch the drowning child's skirt and drag her out.

The weather was not very cold, but the ice was thoroughly soaked and the other very damp. After reviving Edith they both were able to keep fairly warm until they reached home, where they were quickly given hot baths and put to bed.

Attorney C. O. Whodon has filed a suit against the Citizens' Railway company for $20,000, which sum he alleges is due him for professional services rendered the company during the last three years, particularly in the cases wherein the defendant company sought to oust the Lincoln Traction company and Lincoln Street Railway company from the use of the Lincoln streets, eventually succeeding, in 1907, after carrying the case through the supreme court, in securing a decision refusing the Traction company the right to build on any street within the city, save those which it already had a franchise from the city council. This, the plaintiff asserts, gave the Citizens' company the opportunity to enter into successful competition with the rival company, and that the value gained by the new corporation in the decision was worth $20,000. His claim for services rendered, as his attorney through all these proceedings is $10,000, no part of which he says he has been paid.

State School Work. State Superintendent Bishop in reorganizing the work of his office has had in mind the most economical use of the funds at his command and at the same time the greatest possible efficiency. He has combined the inspection and examining boards with the office force in such a way that the chairman of these boards is an outside educator. Superintendent E. J. Bodwell of Beatrice has been appointed chairman of these boards. Today he has further combined the force by arranging for a large share of the inspection of normal training in high schools to be done by his deputy and others employed in his office, placing all this work under a general director of normal training.

Prof. E. L. Rouse, head of professional training at Peru, has accepted this directorship under the state superintendent. Neither Superintendent Bodwell nor Prof. Rouse are taken from their present positions. Their traveling expenses are paid when on duty for the state departments. Prof. Rouse's appointment gives complete satisfaction. He has been a state authority on questions of normal training for some time. His advice will have weight with the high schools offering normal training and his direction will be based on sound pedagogical principles.

FRIENDLY SUIT OVER UNIVERSITY Interpretation of the Mill Levy Law is Desired.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—A friendly suit has been filed in the supreme court in the name of the regent of the state university against State Treasurer Brian. The object of the suit is to decide whether the state treasurer has a right to cash warrants against the "proceeds" of the 1 mill levy after the biennium is closed or whether the proceeds of the 1 mill levy means the amount of money the levy should produce in the biennium, based on the valuation as made by the state board. Treasurer Brian was in doubt about the matter and requested that the suit be filed.

ROBBERS BLOW HADAR BANK

Secure Two Thousand Dollars by Use of Heavy Charge of Dynamite.

WALL OF BUILDING IS TORN OUT

Crime Was Not Discovered Until Officials Opened the Bank for Business This Morning—On Trail of Suspect.

HADAR, Neb., Jan. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—The Farmers' State bank of Hadar was dynamited and robbed last night and close to $2,000 in money obtained. The robbery was not discovered until this morning when the bank officials opened the bank. The east wall of the bank had been blown out by the explosion and the vault in which the money was kept was badly torn up. Bank officials this morning said $1,900 had been taken as far as they could determine. The vault had effected an entrance into the rear room of the bank and with a crowbar had dug into the side of the vault. A charge of dynamite was then put in and the wall of the vault practically destroyed. The tools with which the work was done had been stolen from the tool house of the railroad.

A team of horses was stolen from the Standard Oil station in Norfolk and later found by the sheriff at Hadar. It was supposed the yegmen drove from Norfolk to Hadar with this team. Sheriff Dwyer has no clue of any sort and there is little hope of capturing the men.

The robbery of the bank, lives at Pierce. He brought a bag of money to Hadar this morning and the bank resumed business. The bank carried burglary insurance to the extent of $2,000. No one was heard of the explosion, but Julius Kuehl heard a team and wagon near the bank about 1 o'clock. It is believed to be the wagon driven by the robbers.

Silk Hat Suspect in Omaha. A man suspected of having committed the bank robbery is said now to be in Omaha. A telephone message was received at 11 o'clock at the office of Sheriff Bralley, saying that the man, who presumably left early Tuesday morning and would arrive in Omaha by train at 10:30. It was, of course, too late to intercept him at the station, but the police department was promptly notified of the man's whereabouts. The man in question is, or at least, was wearing a frock coat and silk "topper." This description may have the unfortunate result that some stray elderly actor could a job may be eluded by the police.

MAY NOT HOLD ANTI-JAP BILLS Governor Will Not Request Senate Be Killed Until Receipt of President's Letter.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 19.—Governor Gillett will not send a message to the legislature requesting that the anti-Japanese bills now pending in committee be killed, unless after the receipt of President Roosevelt's letter on Thursday, he deems such action necessary.

While the governor declines to express an opinion on the merits of the Drew bill prohibiting aliens from holding land, it is said, on good authority, that he will veto the measure if it comes to him for signature.

One of Johnson's bills, prohibiting aliens being directors of corporations, has been favorably reported and made a special order of business for tomorrow. The other, providing for the segregation of all Japanese as to act of the legislative bodies of municipalities, and preventing Japanese from attending the public schools for white children, are now before the assembly committee on municipal corporations.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Senator Plint, commenting upon the report published in Sacramento that President Roosevelt had taken a hand in the effort to stop anti-Japanese legislation before the California legislature, stated today that the president's position as outlined in the Sacramento dispatches is absolutely correct. He said the president is determined this legislation shall not be enacted until after the Californians have had pointed out to them the injustice of their attitude toward the
