

Are All Advertisers Medicines Takers?

As well ask "Are all doctors quacks?" or "Are all lawyers shysters?" We all know there are ignorant quacks; does that prevent anyone calling in his good, old family physician in case of need and trusting him? There are shysters, but there are also honorable lawyers to whom we confidently trust our lives and fortunes.

There are fake medicines advertised; but they are not fakes because they are advertised. A good thing is worth advertising; we all want to know about it. The more a bad thing is advertised, the worse for it in the end.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is no fake; yet it is advertised; it advertises itself; and those who have used it are its best advertisers, and that free of cost.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved its merit by more than thirty years general use. This simple, old-fashioned remedy, made from roots and herbs, has become the standard medicine for ailments peculiar to women,—its fame is world-wide.

Read this plain, honest statement of what the medicine did for one woman; her own words; if you doubt, write and ask her.

Chester, Ark.—"I used to think I had no use for patent medicines and would not read the advertisements. I think now if I had I would have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and saved myself years of suffering. I had suffered from female troubles for twenty years, and when Change of Life came I grew worse. I got nervous, could not sleep nights and could hardly get around—I suffered agonies.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and it helped me so much that I continued its use, and I am so well that I feel like a different person. My advice to all suffering women is to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Ella Wood.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no plausible stranger—it has stood the test of years.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for her advice—it is free and always helpful.

DEVERESEE STILL ON FORCE

"I've Never Been Off," Says Wounded Detective at Hospital.

JACK CURTAIN HAS PNEUMONIA

Outlaw, Between Groans of Pain, Calls Long Fool and Persists in Saying, "I Don't Remember Shooting Anyone."

"Going back on the force?" exclaimed Detective Devereese at a hospital Tuesday morning, when asked if he intended to return to his former work, after recovering from the effects of his wound. "Why, I've not been off the force, so I guess I'll be back at the police station as soon as I can. I hadn't even thought of quitting. Flirting with undertakers isn't in my line, though, so I expect to get out of here as soon as possible."

"That was the first time in my life as a detective that I've been up against a rapid fire proposition, and it wasn't any fun, either," said Devereese, referring to his tragic encounter with the desperado, Curtin. "His first bullet hit me, but it went so fast that it didn't hurt, so I just gave him a few in exchange. I feared for the looker, though, for he was in danger of getting shot and didn't have a gun."

Glancing at the half dozen bunches of fresh flowers that stood in vases and pitchers in the window sills, Detective Devereese said his friends had been exceedingly kind, even people at Ashland and Fremont sending flowers and their best wishes.

"I'm feeling fine today," said the detective with a smile, "say 'hello' to the boys for me."

Devereese is patiently hearing his affliction at the General Hospital, where the outlaw who shot him and killed Officer L. A. Smith, is lying, but not in so good a physical condition. He is still not out of danger of death from Devereese's bullet.

Outlaw Has Pneumonia
The condition of Hugh Jackson, the desperado, is not so hopeful. He has been in the hospital during the last twenty-four hours and is in serious condition from it, the whole right lung being affected. His wounds are not bothering him much and are no worse than yesterday. His condition is again made critical by the new ailment, which may go hard with him on account of the life he has led.

"Detective Devereese is sure to recover unless something quite unexpected comes up. He is in fine shape," this statement was given out by Dr. A. P. Condon, the attending physician.

Hugh Jackson, alias Jack Curtin, the outlaw, seemed keenly disappointed Tuesday morning when told that May Carter, the woman arrested Monday with C. E. Long as a suspicious character, was the person who sent him the flowers and fruit Saturday night.

"I thought they were from a woman in the south," he said, between groans of pain. When asked whom the southern woman was, he changed the subject and refused to talk about her. Jackson said the woman arrested Monday with C. E. Long as a suspicious character, was the person who sent him the flowers and fruit Saturday night.

"She might have known that the cops would get her if she had anything to do with me or the other fellows," he said. "Nobody with any sense would force me as a friend," he said with a forced smile.

Says He Doesn't Know Him
"I don't know the man the police arrested Monday," Jackson said, "and he's a fool for knowing me. Tell him he's crazy."

A visitor to Jackson's room Tuesday morning was asked by Jackson if he had been with the desperado in a restaurant the night before he was arrested. Jackson said he and several other men had been around town drinking, but that he was alone later in the night.

"I don't remember doing any shooting," he said.
"I can't say it is the man," said William Morley of Avoca, Neb., as he turned away from the bedside of Jack Curtin. Morley came here Tuesday looking to identify Curtin as the man who shot an officer at Weeping Water some time ago, but was unable to do so.

PASSLESS, BUT NOT HARD UP
Councilmen Spike Proposition to Get Seven Rides on Cars for Two Bits.

Seven rides for a quarter do not look good to the city council and by a vote of eight to two they yesterday tabled the Bridges-Zimmer ordinance to compel the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company to sell six tickets for 25 cents. The authors of the bill cast the only votes for it, those voting against the proposition being Brucker, Davis, Endres, Funkhouser, Hanson, Jackson, Johnson and Stedon. Councilman Elzasser made the motion to table, but when the vote was taken several hours later he had left the chamber. McGovern did not vote.

Nearly three hours was consumed in discussing the proposed ordinance. Councilman Zimmerman taking up two hours of that time in giving a history of the local street car company.

Councilmen Elzasser and Funkhouser were the spokesmen on the other side and one of the arguments put forward by them for the company was that the company had lived up to its promise to the council and extended its lines.

The council decided to lease Izard street between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets to the C. B. Havens company for $200 a year, and to lease to the Uplike Lumber company 150 feet of Capitol avenue from the Belt line east and an equal distance of the alleys between Capitol avenue and Dodge street and Capitol avenue and Davenport.

F. J. Kennard, who Monday bought the lots at Fifteenth and Davenport streets, will build a new home for the wholesale glass and paint house of which he is the head, removing the building now occupying the lots and which he owns.

The new building will be of concrete and steel and will cost about $40,000. It will be absolutely fire proof and one of the most substantial three-story buildings in the district. The ground space occupied will be 6x122 feet.

As the lots were secured at a cost of $11,000, the entire investment represents $51,000.

BUNGALOW CITY IS GROWING
Five More Dwellings Are to Be Erected in Clifton Hill District.

Five more bungalows are to be added to "Bungalow City" in Clifton Hill district, by the E. V. Sholes company, which owns the site. Permits for this number were taken out Tuesday, and when built will make a city of ten bungalows. Four of these will be located at Forty-fourth and Decatur streets and one at Forty-fourth and Parker streets. One of the bungalows will cost $2,000 and will be built at Forty-third and Park streets.

HARRIMAN REACHING SOUTH

Union Pacific Negotiating Agreement with Kansas City Southern.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Negotiations looking to a traffic agreement between the Kansas City Southern Railway company and the Union Pacific Railroad company are under way and the papers will be signed in a few days, according to a report current here today and purporting to come from reliable sources. The closing of such an arrangement would connect the Kansas City Southern with a connecting link between Kansas City and Galveston for the Harriman roads, as it was a few years ago, when it formed a part of the Harriman system. The Kansas City Southern extends from Kansas City to Fort Arthur, Tex., 819 miles.

STREET RAILWAY TO EXPAND

Promises Big Improvements This Year if Revenues Are Not Tampered With.

In appreciation of the action of the council Monday afternoon in taking an ordinance to compel the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company to sell seven tickets for 25 cents the company officials have decided to make improvements and extensions during 1909, provided, however, that the revenues of the company are not impaired by adverse action on the part of any controlling body. This was decided upon at a meeting of the directors held Tuesday forenoon.

Several large additions to its car factory and power house, build a car house at Tenth and Pierce streets, place large double truck four-motor cars on Farnam street, build the extensions to Elmwood park and to Orchard Hill and construct other extensions of its lines in Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs, not as yet determined upon.

Following up the filing with the city council last fall of a petition containing the signatures of 3,000 persons and asking for the extension of the street car line on Leavenworth street to Elmwood park a delegation from the West Leavenworth Improvement club appeared before the directors and asked that the attention be given to the extension of the line to that point. The delegates were told that their wish would be granted if the revenues of the company are not impaired during the year by adverse municipal legislation.

HERE'S A STUDY IN HAIR LIFE

Renewal of Growth Is a Matter of From Two to Four Years.

WHEN TROUBLE HITS FOLLICLES
Telling Omaha People How to Arrest Baldness and Restore Gray Faded Hair to the Natural Color of Youth.

The life of a head of hair is from two to four years. The process of shedding and renewal goes on continually. When trouble hits the hair follicles—the laboratory in which the growth of hair is continued—there is a let-up. Baldness follows. In Dr. Nott's Q-ban Hair Restorer, a remedy has been discovered which not only arrests premature baldness, but transforms gray hair to the glossy tints and color of youth. This lotion gets right at the bottom of the follicle, into the little papilla upon which the hair bulb is molded. Its work is really magical.

The Hestig-Bills Drug Co., of Memphis, which is putting out Dr. Nott's remedies, know the efficiency of their Hair Restorer. They place so much faith in it that they are back of the druggist's guarantee to return every cent of the cost if three bottles do not restore the gray hair of any one to a darker desirable color.

For dandruff and itching scalp, it will prove invaluable. Not only does it promote the growth of hair, but it gives it a fine silken, glossy appearance. The use of Dr. Nott's Q-ban Hair Tonic, after the Restorer, has, done its work, is recommended by all who wish to promote a healthy, active condition of the scalp and growth of the hair. You can get these preparations here in Omaha from The Myers-Dillon Drug Co., and one bottle is free. Ask about this plan.
