BRIEF CITY NEWS

Have Root Print It. Douglas Printing Co. Both 'phones. Smoke Fouse for Smokes, 316 S. 15th. Darlow Advertising Agency, 230-4 Bec. Budolph F. Swobods, Public Accountant. Binehart, photographer, 18th & Farnam. Reyn, photog., removed to 16 & Howard. Gloves Cleaned, Thos. Kilpatrick's glove

Equitable Life-Policies, sight drafts at maturity. H. D. Neely, manager, Omaha, After a fire you want your money. Keep your insurance papers and money in the American Safe Deposit vaults in The Bee building; $1 rents a box.

Bailway Superintendents' Meeting-The monthly meeting of the railway superintendents of roads radiating from Omaha was held at the Paxton hotel at noon Wednesday. The meeting was for a general conference and exchange of views. Railway Mail Promotion-William J. division, to take the place of D. C. Husdon, recently promoted postoffice inspec-tor. Mr. Cook was formerly in the railway mail service, but resigned to engage Ure Carries Case to the Court-W. G. former county commissioner, has served an appeal to the district court against the payment by the board of $357 to the Western Bridge company for work done near Seymour lake. Ure protested against the appropriation when on the board, but was outvoted.

Oh, the Mick Wao Threw the Brick, saloon, 1302 Douglas street, Tuesday night, cost John Kelley $3.50 in police court Wednesday. He was fined $1 and costs for for sale all at one time. Next Saturday operating staff of the Independent Tele- the great window display ownership, passing from the stock corporation to the Automatic Electric company. tion of making radical changes in the man-dier General Charles Morton, United States army, recently in command of the Department of the Missouri, received word from the headquarters of the army Wednesday morning to remain in Omaha until further in reference to three command propositions. neither of which is yet definitely determined. These are the command of the brigade post of Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming; the command of the Department of the Columbia and the command of a de-delegates to the convention of the National Schmoeller & Mueller's hall. This organiza- Mrs. M. F. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Bever-Tariff commission, to be held in Indianapolis on February 16, 17 and 18, have been ing on account of the value of the papers man, Mrs. Harding, Mrs. Morrisey, Mrs. appointed by Mayor Dahlman with the hope that at least one of the appointees will attend the meeting. The delegates appointed are Dan B. Butler, Dr. George L. of choosing from the membership of the in- Benowitz, Mr. and Mrs. Dailey, Mrs. Jam-Miller, Ed P. Smith, Colonel Charles E. Fanning, George Rogers, Ed P. Brain, H. Behrens, D. J. O'Brien, H. E. Newbranch, George P. Cronk, John A. Rine and Charles H. Withnell.

Implement Dealers Meet-The board of Vehicle Dealers' association, embracing tional bank and by Clement Chase, editor sive high five, at which prizes were won the territory of western Iowa and Ne- of the Western Banker. Mr. Bucholz read by Mr. Schmitz, Mr. Hoist and Mr. Hembraska, met Wednesday afternoon at the an interesting contribution on "Bank pen. A luncheon was served, at the conclu Paxton hotel to complete the organization Paper," covering a wide range very suc- sion of which, it being the birthday of of the board and to confer relative to the cincily and throwing out several ideas that Mr. Phelps, president of the club, he was situation of the trade for the ensuing year. will give his young hearers something of presented with a pair of gold cuff but-Those present at the meeting were Wil- value to remember. Mr. Chase spoke of llam Krotter of Stuart, Neb., president; early banking methods, illustrating his talk J. H. Helwig of Kearney, vice president; Frank H. Durham of Normal, secretary pro tem, and A. Hansen of Upland, Stephen Schultz of Hastings, P. M. Ringer of South Omaha, C. Van Zyl of Iowa and C. H. Wagner of Omaha, members of the board of directors. These officers were severally elected during the annual meeting held at the National Corn exposition last December. W. H. Wagner of Omaha was made treasurer of the association at Wednesday's meeting and F. H. Dunham Skinned from Head to Heel was Ben Pool, Threet, Ala., when dragged over a gravel roadway, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. 25c. For sale by Beaton Drug Co.

Baby's Clothes Drier. Take an old umbrella (one with a hook handle preferred), tear away the covering.

SHOWS

OUR

FINE

GIFT

FORK

This Beautiful Teaspoon

silver plated, in this artistic and exclusive rose parrers, like the latest solid silver; finished in French gray, the newest fashionable style, suitable for every occasion, and to the best society; and made and warranted by Wm. Rogers & Son? It is of full size without a suggestion of advertising on it.

if you will send only ten cents to pay for expenses, and the

IEBIG Company's Extract of Beef

The genuine has the signature in blue across the bel, and we want you to know by actual trial that is the most delicious, wholesome and far-going sel extract; it teaspoonful makes a cup of the nest beef tea and it is just as economical for cooking.

finest bref tea and it is just as economical for cooking.
You can get as many spoons this way as you want, or if you will send 20 cents and a Liebig top we will send the fork, full size, same pattern and finish.
Address.
CORNEILLE DAVID & CO., Dept. S.
120 Hudson St., New York.
The pictures give only a suggestion of the beauty of the articles.

It Is Yours

GREAT NEWS FROM NEW YORK

J. L. Brandeis & Sons Buy the S. Steinfeldt Co. Wholesale Dry Goods Stock.

The Great Stock of S. Steinfeldt Co., 600-602 Broadway, New York-Some of it Slightly Damaged by Water from Bursting Sprinkler Pipe.

The biggest single purchase ever made in New York by a western firm was consummated early this week when the firm of J. L. Brandels & Sons bought the entire manufacturing and wholesale dry goods stock from S. Steinfeldt company, 600-602 Broad-Cook of Fairfield has been reinstated as a way. This immense stock invoiced $350,000, railway mail clerk on the Omaha & Ogden but was secured by Brandels for $96,000, be- of the amusing games of the evening Saturday.

A portion of the Steinfeldt stock was slightly damaged by water, by reason of the bursting of a sprinkler pipe on the seventh floor of the Steinfeldt building. The goods on the main floors were practically untouched, but some of the mercludes all the goods from Steinfeldt's shirt purchase.

the offense, the amount of the costs mak- we will place on sale all the Steinfeldt ing the total expense of his little celebra- waists, muslin underwear, furs, embroideries and laces. As the other goods of Phone Plant Keeps Old Staff .-- For the the great stock arrive they will be placed present there will be no changes in the on special sale from day to day. Watch

All eyes will be on this wonderful sale when it starts next Saturday. Brandels secured the stock at less than one-third invoice Later some filter clianges probably will be value and will sell it at less than one-third regular prices prevailing all over America. In western merchandising there never was such an immense purchase and the sale General Morton Awaiting Orders Briga will eclipse any similar event ever held. NEXT SATURDAY, JAN. 23 AT BRAN-

J. L. BRANDEIS & SONS. Boston Store.

orders. General Morton is being considered MEETING OF BANK EMPLOYES Two Interesting Discussions and Several Musical Numbers on young men employed in the banks Delegates to Tariff Commission—Twelve their monthly meeting last night at nogle and family from Council Bluffs, Mr. the south. tion is growing in interest with every meetread and discussions entered into. There is also an added importance to the movement since the project has been discussed stitute in different parts of the country ieson, Mr. John Jamieson, Mr. Paul Smith bright young men who are to serve as and Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

bank examiners in case the scheme of local examinations by clearing houses should go through. ers of the Mid-west Implement and W. H. Bucholz, cashler of the Omaha Na- part of the evening was spent at progreswith a valuable collection of old "wild cat" money, coins and other curios.

President Hughes presided and a vote o thanks was tendered the speakers of the evening. Some excellent musical selections were rendered by Edward J. Pash on the Ham Holst, Mr. G. P. Phelps and Master mandolin, accompanied on the plane by Harry Phelps, mascot of the club. Charles L. Cocke, jr., of the Nebraska Na-open and clean them, remove the livers. Murphy. wipe the squabs with a clean, wet clothwashing spoils the flavor. Dust over with a saltspoon of salt and half a spoonful of pepper. Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter and dip the squabs in the melted butter; melt two large tablespoonfuls of the butter in a chafing dish. When hot place the Rosewater, Miss Minnie Hiller, Miss Brodequabs in it, cook them ten minutes on erick of St. Louis, Miss Myrtle Moses, Mr. each side. Have the livers well chopped bind the ribs with strips of white muslin. and mixed with the yolks of two eggs, hard Mr. Jay Witmark, Mr. Sidney Swartz, Mr. Put a hook in the kitchen celling over the boiled. After twenty minutes of cooking stove, hang umbrella on hook and hang up add them to the butter in the chafing dish with one dozen stoned olives.

Squabs with Olives.

GIVE

YOU

THIS

TEA-

SPOON

$350,000 DRY GOODS FOR $96,000

Mrs. Frederick A. Nash was hostess Wednesday at an informal and small lun-

At Florence.

at Omaha Club.

Miss Louise Kennedy of Fort Omahs

Entertains Miss Alma Higgins of St. Louis-More Affairs

for Miss Hayden.

Mrs. John Augustus Kuhn was hostess which was one of the largest affairs of the day. The guests were seated at five tables, each having for a centerpiece a basket filled with yellow jonguils and stevia, tied

Orpheum Party.

Those present were: Miss Higgins, Miss

Eastman, Miss Alice Switzler, Miss Belle

For Miss Hayden.

James S. Kennedy and Miss Kennedy.

Louis Clarke.

joyable evening party at their home in waist line are numerous and often ex-Florence in honor of their guest, Mrs. tremely pretty. Shades of rose and berry Fred Patterson of Sioux City, formerly of are especially liked for these models, and Omaha. The guests present included a indeed throughout the new materials one number of clever entertainers and one finds these colorings and the lighter pinks tween 25 and 30 cents on the dollar. The consisted of giving the guests printed sale will begin at Brandels Stores next questions which required amusing imitations as answers. An impromptu program was given by Mrs. George Shields who gave Irish dialect recitations; Mrs. Hunt also gave recitations, Judge Shields gave some Irish songs and Miss Estelle Brown, several inusical selections. Judge of embroidery, passementeric and fringe B. S. Baker, Judge Lee Estelle and Mrs. whenever they see bargains in that line chandise in the basement and sub-basement Patterson gave several witty stories. Those are fairly certain to congratulate themwere water soaked. This immense stock in- present were: Mrs. Patterson, Judge and selves on the late winter styles, for such Mrs. Benjamin Baker, Judge and Mrs., trimmings are in great demand. A gown waist factory, and Steinfeldt's muslin un- Lee Estelle, Judge and Mrs. George Shields, recently finished by a fashionable dressderwear factory. Thousands and thousands Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Boucher, Mr. and Mrs. maker shows how remnants of handsome Me'il—Being drunk and throwing a brick of dollars worth of new, spring goods all Robert Olmstead, Miss Florence Olmstead, fringe, a tucker of scalloped lace and a through a window of the Stars and Stripes scalleped lace and a saloon, 1802 Douglas street. Tuesday night, solven the stars and Stripes packed and ready for shipment are in this Mr. and Mrs. William Kierstead, Mr. and small plece of embroidered net may be Mrs. B. J. Scannell, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. used stunningly on a length of supple cloth This stock is much too large to be offered Weller, Mrs. Henry Brown and Miss The frock is made with an apron tunic Estelle Brown.

Matinee Luncheon. out-of-town guests and their hostess.

Luncheon will be served at Hanson's in the front, but none of it is required to will entertain at a matinee luncheon which is matched by the sleeves, and bepheum matinee. The guesta will include into a long, narrow train. Mrs. Mendelsohn of Chicago, Miss Ehrman of St. Joseph, Mrs. Eugene Levy of New WANT BRYAN TO O. K. MERGER braska City, Miss Seligsohn of Denver, Mrs. Rosenberg of Denver, Mrs. Rothschild of Real Estate Exchange Proposes Con Pittsburg, Mrs. Thorman of Cleveland, Mrs. H. Heller Mrs. Harry May, Mrs. J. Kline, Miss Lena Rehfeld, Miss Spiesberger, Mrs. Max Miller, Mrs. C. Goodman and Mrs. N. Mantle. Wedding Anniversary. and Mrs. Klebba, Miss Klebba, Mr. and idge, Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman, Miss Hoff-Holton, Mrs. Webber, Miss Katle Quinn, Miss Mary Quinn, Miss Ethel Sullivan, Mrs. Benowitz, Miss Marie Benowitz, Mr. John

Stag Party. Mr. G. E. Phelps gave a stag party Tuesday evening for the Clix club at his home, The meeting last night was addressed by 1013 North Twenty-ninth street. The early tons, with the letters "Clix" engraved on them. The evening was concluded with music and singing, in which all the members took part. Those present were Mr. Harry Sigwart, Mr. Frank Schmitz, Mr. Frank Kinkenon, Mr. Paul Geske, Mr. Carl Munson, Mr. Guy V. Davis, Mr. William J. Baines, Mr. Henry Hempen, jr., Mr. Wil-

Mrs. J. J. Mahoney entertained informally at luncheon Wednesday at her home for Miss Clara Blanche Murphy, who will be M. one of the January brides. The guests included a few intimate friends of Miss Luncheon Party. Mr. Nathan Burkan of New York City entertained several of the members of the Wi T. Nott of Elwood, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Witmark-Cahn wedding party at luncheon Hartington are at the Murray. Tuesday at Hanson's cafe. Covers were placed for Miss Hazel Cahn, Miss Blanche and Mrs. Joseph Klein of New York City, Philip Rose and Mr. Burkan, all of New York City, and Mr. Louis Hiller.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosenward entertained at L. M. Thomas of Lincoln, state com-uncheon at Hanson's cafe for all of the mander of the Knights of the Maccabees Mr. and Mrs. Rosenward entertained at ther out of town guests, all of whom left Puesday evening for their homes except Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cahn of Chicago, who will remain for a short time.

Club Meetings.

Mrs. Jerome Magee was the hostess Wednesday of the meeting of the Mid-week Bridge club. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Edwin T. Swobe, Mrs. Baylies of Chicago being the guest of honor. Miss Sophie Shirley entertained the memhers of the New Kensington club Wednesday afternoon at her home. The afternoon was spent with needlework.

Prospective Pleasures.

Captain and Mrs. W. C. Bennett will give a dinner Wednesday evening at their army quarters at Fort Crook for General and Mrs. W. H. Carter. Those present will be General and Mrs. W. H. Carter, General and Mrs. Hayes, Colonel and Mrs.

NOTES ON OMAHA SOCIETY of Miss Cruikshank, guest of Miss Frances Miss Nettie Bushman will entertain at bridge Saturday afternoon for Miss Clara Mrs. John A. Kuhn Gives Luncheon Blanche Murphy. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Coad gave a small

Orpheum party, followed, by a cafe supper Wednesday evening, in honor of Miss MATINEE LUNCHEONS POPULAR Mary Hayden and Mr. Adolph Storz. Mrs. Frank Kennedy will entertain at three tables of bridge Saturday afternoon at her home in honor of Mrs. Clarence Fichmond Day, who is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Smith. The next dancing party given by the members of the Dietz Athletic association will take place Wednesday evening, January 27, at their club rooms at Thirtieth Wednesday at luncheon at the Omaha club, and Spaiding streets.

> Come and Go Gossip. Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Baylles and daughter Charline will arrive Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Edwin T. Swobe.

with a yellow tulle bow. Gold monogram Miss Hazel Frick of Los Angeles, Cal. place cards marked the places of the fifty arrived Monday to spend the winter with guests present. There was an assisting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. hostess at each table. These included Mrs. Cherrington, 514 North Twenty-third street. Richard Carrier, Mrs George Windsor Miss Marie Hagermaster, who has been Megeath, Mrs. John W. Griffith and Mrs. risiting at different points in Nebraska, is low the guest of Miss Frances Freelin, 3506 North Twenty-nit.th street, and will re-Miss Louise Kennedy of Fort Omaha turn to her home in Villisca, Is., Wednesntertained at an Orpheum party, Wedesday afternoon in honor of Miss Alma

Higgins of St. Louis, Mo., who is the popular guest of Miss Genevieve John-WHITE LINEN AND SOUTACHE ston of Fort Crook. Following the matinee Linen Freeks of Semi-Princess Type the party had luncheon at Hanson's oafe. Are to Be Worn Johnston, Miss Mary Galbraith, Miss Enid Valentine, Miss Amy Gilmore, Miss May It was hard enough even in the supple clinging, woolen stuffs. But the linen suc Colt, Mrs. McMillan of Fort Crook, Mrs. has more curves than the wool model and on a figure that can stand the model one of these frocks may be chic if not actually beautiful. The white linen model of the sketch has an odd suggestion of the jumper in the tucked net underbody or guimpe to theon party for Miss Mary Hayden, who which the linen sleeves are attached and will be one of the brides of the month. A which shows between the shoulders of the cut glass bowl filled with white hyncinths robe and the sleeves as well as in the and stevia made a dainty centerplece and guimpe. This frock is braided in white place cards with orange blossoms designs soutache and soutache braiding is used on appropriate to the occasion marked the a good proportion of the new linen models, places of Miss Mary Hayden, Miss Ophelia though it has enjoyed such a long season Hayden, Miss Claire Helene Woodard, Miss of popularity that one questions whether Agnes Burkley, Miss Lucille Hayden and the summer will see it still in favor.

Linen frocks of the semi-princess type such as were worn last summer, but Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hunt gave an en- trifle looser and often with shortened

LOOK OUT FOR SHORT LENGTHS Embroidery Passementerie, Lace and Such Trimmings to Be

Far-sighted wemen who buy short lengths slung from the shoulders beneath a band Warning Against Too Much "Art" of embroidered net. Below the guimpe is Mrs. C. Livingston and Mrs. M. S. Miller indicated a rounded corsage of tucked cloth, cafe and later they will attend the Or- finish the back, as the drapery is extended

solidation, with Peerless Lender

Once more the Omaha Real Estate exchange is going to try to frame a bill which will be satisfactory to both Omaha Mr. and Mrs J. S. Smith celebrated and South Omaha for uniting the two cities their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary under one government; one so liberal that Tuesday evening at their home, 2769 Burt South Omaha will be treated more than street. The parlor and living room were fair, have representatives at once in the secorated in green and white and in the council, on the Board of Education and dining room red and yellow were used. Board of Fire and Police Commissioners of Omaha, comprising the local chapter of Supper was served late in the evening and and at the same time insure the continuathe American Institute of Banking, held those present were Mr. and Mrs. Spitz- tion of public improvements in the city to

> After listening to a report by H. M. Christie on "Conditions which caused two elections for uniting the cities to fail," the exchange authorized the appointment of a ommittee to draft such a bill. The committee will be headed by Mr. Christie and C. F. Harrison, while J. H. Robbins, president of the exchange, will be one of the

"Now is the time to butt into the legisla ure with a fair bill of this character," affirmed Mr. Harrison. "We have a leg islature down there now under the thumb of Mr. Bryan, and it is a hypocritical democrat who does not do the bidding of Bryan. If we get this matter before Bryan and some other good men down at Lincoln it is likely to go through.'

D. M. Patterson arose to remark that Mr Bryan never, never never took any part could not be counted on at all to do anything which would assist in bringing about the consolidation of Omaha and South

Active Salesmen-Bee Want Ads.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Wait Hopewell of Tekamah was in mention of the man was in world. Omaha friends.

C. G. Cone, F. M. Lewis of Lincoln, A. M. Dunn of Kearney and R. Shumway of Lyons are at the Henshaw.

Mayor Dahiman, Walter B. Jarden, Harry Jordan and several other Omaha citizen Lincoln Wednesday morning visit the legislators.

Al Patrick returned Wednesday from ranch in Wyoming. Mr. Patrick also has about 6,000 acres of irrigated hand west of Sheridan on which the water is now turned. Anton Hansen of Upland, O. H. Werts of Creighton, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hall of Long Pine, William Krotter of Stuart, Thomas Murray of Dunbar, J. N. McKay of Port-land, A. H. Lowe of Fremont and F. Lem-mons of Stanton are at the Paxton.

is in Omaha, and will install the newly elected officers of Omaha tent No. 75. Thursday evening. He will be assisted by A. I. Lee of Des Moines, Is., state com-mander of Iowa. C. Clark Willis of Broken Bow, W. A. Golden of Lincoln, Glenn H. Wilcox of Elgin, John Shannon of Carroll and L. Mc-Kean of North Bend are at the Hotel Loyal. Andy Schader of Cedar Rapids, J. D. Gege of Dunning, John Pomeroy of Shelton, W. D. Nugent of Algona, H. Q. Smith of Fairbury and J. W. Akin of Newport are at the Millard.

Railway Notes and Personals. P. H. Vall, traveling passenger agent of the Grand Trunk, with headquarters at Kansas City, was in Omaha Wednesday.

F. Dumont Smith, an atterney of Hutchinson, Kan., was in Omaha Wednesday in conference with E. L. Lomax, general passenger agent of the Union Pacific.

The movement of homescekers to the south and southwest and west has started in heavy and Tuesday all the trains for these sections were crowsed to the limit. General and Mrs. Hayes, Colonel and Mrs. Cornelius Gardener. Captain and Mrs. Hayes, Lieutenant and Mrs. W. Carter, Jr.; Captain and Mrs. W. Carter, Miss Eugenie Whitmore was hostess at an informal tea Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at her home in honor has the most refreshing mother-in-law a man could wish-at least if you can judge by what she writes in the February Woman's Home Companion. Her first advice to her marriageable daughter is a gem of shrewdness. "Choose a healthy one," says she. And she has other sane ideas-practical sedatives for this valentine season-which will interest every mother and daughter, to say nothing of prospective and practicing husbands. In fact,

This Special Valentine Number

is filled to the covers with features for all the family. From the "heart of hearts" cover design, by Howard Chandler Christy, to the flour advertisement on the last page, it is brimfull of charming pictures, strong helpful articles, and page after page of practical departments for women-all and more in the February

WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION

At All News-stands

Sounded at Banquet.

Advertising Manager of Big Company and Union Pacific Dignitary Are Speakers at Dinner Held Tuesday Night in Cafe.

it is hard work, which often runs up the zens and make them all boosters, they gas bills and makes sleepless nights," said would all be initiating and executing just Samuel C. Dobbs, advertising manager and that many schemes to sound the praises of GAME AND BIRD PRESERVATION sales manager of the Coco-Cola company Omaha. 'From the abundance of the heart of Atlanta, Ga., before the Ad Men's club, the mouth speaketh." which held a well appointed banquet in master.

seiling force to art is abhorrent. I do not to sell. Don't play the ape. Advises Study of Wares.

Study your goods, for you should know nore about them than anyone else, even the salesman. It is necessary, because the opy you send out either represents or misepresents to more people in a day than have just as much to show a visitor as some forty salesmen can reach. Use progression in advertising and don't use the same style so materially from these transients." for everything. Don't be like a physician, who used one medicine all his life because it cured the first patient he had."
"A Message from the South" was the second part of Mr. Dobbs' most interesting talk, and he told with pride of the wonwhatever in local affairs of any kind and derful strides forward the south has been making in the last few years, and of the way the resources of the south were being developed. He called the south the "land gave the police there a lively time for a God had blessed beyond the power of words is far above and beyond, and not to be the money of the north to develop these resources. The south is progressing in many lines, for the negroes of Georgia own $5,000 needay morning the Omaha police station feet, leaving the leg as tender and nice farms, valued at $80,000,000, and one former themselves. If the proper amount of civic

"Advertising is no mere mechanical art- pride could be stirred up among our citi-

Mr. Loomis deplored the fact that ther the banquet hall of Hanson's cafe, with was no school history of Nebraska and seventy members of the club around the recounted many of the historic points of festive board. Robert Manley was toast- interest in Omaha and Nebraska and recommended that a school history be published "Advertising is salesmanship on paper or that the children in school might learn in paint. An advertising which sacrifices of the city and state in which they live. "So far as beauty of surroundings go no engage in boosting art when I am trying to city exceeds Omaha," said Mr. Loomis. sell goods. Advertising is hard common who told of some of the beautiful views to sense-it is selling goods which counts. Do be had from the surrounding hills. Mr. of "Shields' Magazine." His agitation in not try to imitate some other advertiser Loomis advocated that some method be favor of the use of the camera instead of because he is successful in his line, for his devised of advertising Omaha, that more the gun by hunters and his efforts to prestyle may not suit the goods you are trying of the thousands of travelers who pass vent the extermination of America's game through this gateway over the great high- birds and animals, have made him well ways of commerce might be induced to known throughout the country and a fair stop. He said that Denver and Sait Lake sized audience attended the lecture, which City had been helped most materially by was beautifully illustrated. transients who became impressed with the

DOPE FIEND RAISES FUROR

Wild Man is Too Much for Gibson Police, Who Call on Omaha for Help. A man of Gibson, supposed to be insane, while Wednesday morning. He proved t to describe," and quotes Mark Twain as | be a drug fiend named Charley Johnso saying that "the true Georgia watermelon and was merely suffering from the effects of drugs, but for sometime it was though mentioned with the common things of this a real candidate for an insane asylum was on hand. A large fron bar and a hatchet were th notoriety for himself. At 3 o'clock Wedwas called on the telephone from Gibson to eat as the second joint.

slave now owns 1,240 acres, values at $100,- and notified that a crazy man had been 000 which he has acquired in the last thirty chased into a box car after alarming the little railroad settlement for several hours. Union Pacific Man Omaha Booster. The Omaha police were wanted to place "Omaha possesses all the fundamental re- the man in jall.

quirements of a great city," said N. H. In order to save time and needless work, Loomis, general solicitor of the Union Pa- a switch engine was coupled to the box touch of united effort to put it in the front ton. Here he was placed in the patrol rank. The people of Omaha do not them- wagon in charge of Conductor Dillen, after selves realize the greatness of this city of an hour's struggle with several officers, ours or the future which is in store for and was soon strapped in harness in a it or they would talk more about it among padded fell at the police station.

Until his real name was discovered "John Doe No. 1" was his official designa-

G. O. Shields Delivers an Interesting Lecture at the Y. M. C. A.

"Game hogs" and market hunters came in for considerable attention and criticiam lest night at the Young Men's Christian association building during a stereopticon lecture on "Birds and Game" by G. O. Shields, president of the League American Sportsmen, formerly editor of "Recreation" and now editor and owner

Over fifty rare views of wild game and city and then invested their money. "We western scenes were shown by Mr. Shields who told of the countless numbers of bufof these other cities which had benefited falo, elk, deer, antelope and feathered game found in the western country when he first visited Nebraska in 1869. The value of many birds from an economic standpoint was also dwelt upon, and he made an effort to win his hearers over to his campaign of game and bird preservation.

Snow slides and their destructive work were depicted vividly in the latter part of the series of pictures, Mr. Shields telling of the occasion of each, having taken the lews himself in Canada.

bill.

To Remove Tendons of Fowls. When dressing a turkey before removing the feet break the bone about an inch beow the joint and place the feet in a clamp or some place to hold them solid and take tools with which the man was carving out hold of the upper part of the leg and pull, and all the tendons will come out with the

