Are Dull.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 21, 1908.

Incomarket opened steady today with very moderate trading. The feeling at the close yesterday was bullish, but that did not affect today's opening and all grain had rather a weak tone after the opening. There was little change in wheat and the traders were inactive. The receipts in the northwest still run extremely light, but there is nothing new to be said about the situation. It will take some time to develop action prices. Wheat opened at $1.075,01.075, and closed at $1.075.

Corn and oats are in sympathy with wheat, both opened with little change and he trading was very slack.

Receipts in corn are slightly ever estimates and the shipping demand very poor. The price stays, about the same. Corn incomed at $17.0741 and closed, $62.

Cat receipts still run very moderate, not shough to supply the demand, there is little change in the values although they are figured than yesterday. Oats opened, where then yesterday. Oats opened, where the process the contract of the change of the values although they are figured the preserved.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS Peatures of the Trading and Closing

Prices on Board of Trade. CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—A stamped by shorts caused a sharp raily in wheat prices here today, but the market failed to hold the advance, the olose showing net losses for the day of 1.634c to 3.635c. Corn and oats closed firm and previsions steady.

Except for an occasional display of firmbers, due to covering by shorts, sentiment in the wheat pit was inclined to be beariel. On one of these inputts the demand from shorts was sufficiently urgent to force the price of the May delivery up nearly it from the low boint of the day, but the more distant deliveries made comparatively slight gains. The heavy tone of the market was due mainly 10 cresisient hammering by leading bears, who based their action on a belief that a sump was in order following a four days' advance, A decline at fliverpool, including the advance here yesterday mayired considerable selling early in the session. Receipts in the northwest were axia small, but the discrepancy between techny's arrivals and those of a year axo was not great. The market was barely sheady; with May at 197%, and July at 37%c.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Striking Feature of the Day's Market is Its Dullness.

Quotations of the Day on Various VALUES MOVE BUT SLIGHTLY

Close is Firm Because of Reports of Oversubscription of Russian Loan in Paris Bonds Are Irregular.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—The movement of prices of stocks today offered little of interest, the striking feature of the market being its duliness. Prices are moved but slightly either up or down. No obstacle to speculative activity is found in the money market, which continues to relax without any effect from the various important reductions which are being met. Banks are beginning to repay to the government deposits called for the coming Saturday, but this is more than offset by the high excess of government expenditures over receipts, which makes a daily return of funds to the channels of the money market. The movement of foreign exchanges today was away from the gold export point, and the question was raised whether the option of the Russian loan subscriptions in Paris tomorrow was to be destined to put an end to the outgo of gold from here. Both the Bank of England and the Bank of France made strong returns today, the former gaining over $1.00.000 and the latter over $15. quence dealers were slow in getting out into the yards and first bids were generally 100015c lower than yesterday for the bulk of the beef steers. Packers picked up a few lightweight and cheap cattle at prices not a great deal different from yesterday, but anything having weight was slow sale at the full decline. The market is fully 75c lower than ten days ago and the most of the decline has fallen on the more desirable beeves.

Heceipts of cows and helfers were comparatively liberal and although there was a good demand for this grade of cattle the trade was slow in opening and what trading was done during the early hours was on the basis of a 100015c decline as compared with yesterday. Good heavy cows seemed to get the most of the decline, but all grades are 250025c lower than at the close of last week. of last week, Business in stockers and feeders was rea-

HOGS—Another liberal run of hogs this morning enabled buyers to continue the reduction in prices and a further rather sharp decline was noted again this morning. The receipts so far this week have been liberal, not only here, but at other markets, so that a general decline of values is noticed at all points. With 228 cars, about 15,500 head, here this morning, prices were set back about 10c as compared with yesterday's market, with the bulk of the hogs selling at and around $5,006.6, as against $5,006.6 be yesterday.

Street Car Accidents HAPPEN

Because People:

1.-Persist in getting on or off moving cars;

2.—Get off, facing towards the rear of the car;

3.—Run after a car and attempt to board it while it is going at a high rate of speed;

 Cross behind one car and step in front of another car coming from the opposite direction;

5.—Turn their vehicles sharply in front of a car;

6.-Use no caution when driving across street car tracks;

And Because Children:

7.—Are allowed to make the streets their playground;

8.—Or steal rides on the cars.

SHEEP-Twenty-three cars of sheep arrived this morning, about 6,000 head. The condition of the trade, while quiet, was just about steady, so that sales today showed little change in prices as compared with yesterday's decline. The receipts for the week have been rather excessive so far as the requirements of the trade were concerned and as a rule prices declined rather sharply on all grades of fat sheep and lambs, so that in the main values are anywhere from 25c to 50c lower than at the high time last week. The market this morning, as noted above, ruled comparatively steady at the recent decline and the moderate number here sold in fair season.
