Reward Takes Orders for $43,000 Worth in Twenty Days Through West.

L. Howard, president of the Howard stove company of Ralston, has returned from a western trip of twenty days' duration, during which he sold $43,000 worth of stoves to be manufactured at Ralston. "The trip was the most successful I ever made in such a short time," said Mr. Howard.

"The people of the west seemed to like the idea of buying stoves made in Omaha, and I received some remarkable orders. From one firm I got an order for 1,200 stoves, from another an order for 1,000, and from a third an order for 800 stoves. "Our plant is rapidly nearing completion and by February 1 we will have quite a few men at work making stoves and by March 1 we expect to have 100 men at work, and if the orders keep rolling in we will have to increase our capacity."

SATIN PETTICOATS

The season's newest craze, and, of course, Bennett's are the first to feature them. Satin petticoats are the natural result of the Satin wave of popularity that is sweeping the country.

The present day vogue in dress demands a softer and more clinging undergarment and the new Mesaline satin petticoats we show fill the want to a nicety.

These are all silk Mesaline of the softest texture, free from the bulkiness and swish of the taffeta garments. They set snugly, imparting a subtle slenderness to the figure, just as the late fashions demand.

There are two styles now on display; one has a corded flounce, the other has a corded effect with a ruching at bottom; both lines have underlay of self material in colors, tan, brown, cadet, navy, peacock, also black and white—on sale at . . . $5.95

Suits, Formerly $85 and $100, Reduced to Close . . . $45

Not many of them, so you must be prompt. Suits we carried from last spring. Materials are silk Rajahs, taffetas, panamas, serges and worsteds. In fact identical to the materials shown for coming spring; choice colorings, too. Wonderful bargains, these. $25.00, $35.00 and $45.00 values at $10.00.
