The Last Day of Our Greatest January Clearing Sale

Tomorrow is the last day of our Greatest and Most Successful January Clearing Sale and with it ends your opportunity to take advantage of the low prices which have been prevailing on many of our staple lines. In order to make this last day a memorable one we instructed our department managers to clean out all odds and ends and to cut prices liberally. So we offer you this interesting and saving news for Saturday.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT--SATURDAY

The Last Day--One Dollar will do the Work of Two in Colored and Black Dress Goods

Saturday will close one of the greatest January Sales of Dress Goods in the history of this store. Many thousands of yards of the present season's choicest fabrics, including weaves and colors that have been among the season's greatest favorites, have been sold at about cost price to manufacture. We have not invited you to counters filled with shopworn or back number in dress goods that in reality have little if any commercial value. We have maintained at all times our standard of qualities. As best evidence of the great success of this sale is not alone in the enormous sales but the thousands of satisfied customers who have taken advantage of these special prices.

Saturday to Be Made One of the Great Days.

Women who like exclusive styles in strictly man-tailored skirts to your special measure should be here Saturday. We will take your measure for a skirt and get it to you on time. Ask your friends about our skirts to order? Better come early.

Sale of Feather Boas and Chiffon Ruffs, Saturday, Commencing at 9 A. M.

A chance that don't occur often; these fine fluffy neck pieces at January clearing sale prices. The feather boas are all made from the best quality of ostrich, full and fluffy, in black, white, sky, brown and navy. The chiffon ruffs come in navy, brown, black and novelty effects.

one portion of the state against another. Douglas county pays one-eleventh of the taxes of the state and it is not invidious to the rest of the commonwealth, but it demands fair treatment.
Donohoe asked that the house consider the bill, after which Wittie of Cedar made a sarcastic speech at the way the real issue was being befogged. The question was on the bill not on Douglas county.
Wittie of Adams said there was no excuse for making an exception of this bill, after which King told just how Douglas county had controlled the organization of the senate by controlling all the big committees on organization. Then Ransom explained that the Judiciary committee was divided 5 to 4 on King's bill and the house should accept the report.
Howell said it was not on the platform to take away from the cities their right to control the saloons and on the vote King's motion failed, it is to be.
The vote to postpone the bill by adopting the committee report then carried.
The following voted aye:
Ranning, Barton, Heese, Bodinson, Buck, Fuhrman, Diera, Donohoe, Fuller, Hatfield, Henry, Howell, Ketchum, Klein, Laverty, Miller, Cills, Hanson, Tanner, Tibbets, Vopp.
Nay—Brown, Cain, Cox, Gammill, King, Malers, Myers, Handall, Warren, Wittie.
Bryan Asked a Question.
It is now up to Mr. Bryan. The presidential candidate "must choose this day whom he will serve." Thus speaks the committee selected by the allied temperance forces of the state, to inquire where Mr. Bryan stands on the liquor question.
The address prepared by this committee was not issued until after Mr. Bryan had left the state, but the committee in its message announced that it would from

NEW BILLS IN THE HOUSE

Thomas of Douglas Offers Measures Dealing with Politics.
(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Jan. 29.—(Special.)—The following bills were introduced in the house today:
H. R. 25 by Thomas of Douglas—Provides the city clerk shall furnish lists to determine the political affiliations of voters.
H. R. 217 by Thomas of Douglas—Prohibiting the pooling of bridge contractors.
H. R. 218 by Harrison of Douglas—A bill to prohibit the use of gasoline motor cars as passenger, mail, express or baggage coaches when tanks attached to the coach and are of more than ten-gallon capacity.
H. R. 219 by Dolezal of Saunders—Provides that bridge pay half the cost of bridges over 1,000 feet in length.
H. R. 220 by Thomas of Douglas—Provides for registration of voters in cities of more than 5,000 population.
H. R. 221 by Seward of Seward—Repeals the act providing for four-year high school course for pupils in districts maintaining less than four-year course.
H. R. 222 by Kraus of Douglas—Amending the pure food and drug act.
H. R. 223 by Stocker of Douglas—Providing open season for new work and repair at the veterinary South Bend.
H. R. 224 by Griffin of Burt—Prohibiting the dumping of refuse, brush, trees, etc., in any drainage system.
H. R. 225 by Committee on Agriculture—Appropriating $125,000 for new buildings on state fair grounds and $25,000 for grandstand.
H. R. 226 by Noyes of Cass—A joint resolution submitting to the state a constitutional amendment prohibiting liquor traffic at the general election of 1910.
H. R. 227 by Baker of York—Providing for an annual town meeting the first Tuesday in March of each year.

CHANGED RULE ON PETITIONS

If Writers Desire Hearing They Will Address No Individual.
(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—Persons who are spending their days getting up petitions for or against certain measures now pending in the legislature will accomplish their purpose better if they address these petitions to the legislature itself rather than to the individual member they desire to influence.
The house has denied the right of any petition addressed to an individual member to be read as a part of the proceedings. This question came up when a large number of petitions were filed with the chief clerk in favor of women suffrage. The petitions were addressed to individual members. Kuhl of Cedar county concluded the house had no time to listen to communications addressed to individuals and moved that these be returned to the individual members. The house agreed with Kuhl and it was so ordered.

CRAWFORD AFTER NEW SCHOOL

Representative Chase Thinks Normal Institution is Badly Needed.
(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Jan. 29.—(Special.)—Representative Chase who introduced a bill in the house this morning providing for the establishment of a normal school at Crawford is satisfied his measure will pass provided the members realize the needs of such a school in northwest Nebraska.
Mr. Chase represents Sheridan, Dawes, Box Butte and Sioux counties and a school at Crawford, he figures, will draw at
