Representative Miller Makes a Tart Rejoinder to Circular Sent Out By the State Board of Health-Omaha Firm in Des Moines.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Feb. 11 .- (Special.) - The owa supreme court delivered a remarkable ecision today, reversing two previous declaions on the same subject and holding that the law as passed by the twenty eighth general assembly forbidding soliciting of liquor sales on behalf of outside ompanies is good. Previously the court had held that this law was in conflict with the interstate clause of the federal constitution and therefore declared the law null and void. Now the United States supreme court has decided in a South Dakota case that laws similar to the lows law do not violate the federal constitution. Hence the Iowa court reverses itself. It also holds that despite the previous declarations as to the nullity of the law it is now in full force and effect.

Married Misery

People often rely on nature unaided to correct evil but it doesn't. One aim of corrective medicine should be to do away with married unhappiness. At & the bottom of a deal of misery is found lack of cheerful yielding. Mean selfishness is as surely due to ill-health as famine is to failure. Ungovernable temper-a third fault-is largely the outcome of stomach disorder. All these causes disappear when stomach and liver are keyed to a finely balanced tone. The first sign of on-coming Biliousness, Indigestion or Headache, should suggest old Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. No other known medicine contains so complete a curing-power for disordered stomach and torpid liver-'Twill avert many a conflict between man and woman.

AN AGE OF PROGRESSION

The successful specialists of today are not the ones who try to cover the whole field of medicine and surgery and know just a little about every all-ment, but the ones who are thoroughly experienced and conversant with a certain clas of diseases and the compilications that ensue. The physician or specialist who tries to explore and conquer the whole field of medicine and surgery does not become expert or proficient in any particular branch. You cannot place the same confidence in the ability of a doctor who scatters his faculties as one who concentrates all his forces on a paticular specialist who are living in an age of specialism; an age when success can best be obtained by the concentration of every thought upon the unswerving pursuit of a single object. We are precisely such specialists. We have confined our practice exclusively to diseases of men and mastered them. Years of close study, thousands of dollars spent in researches and scientific investigation, reinforced by an immense practice, enables us to prescribe a system of treatment that is a thorough, prompt and safe cure. All that expert skill, vast experience and scientific attainments can accomplish are now being done for those who apply to us for the help they need. If you are suffering from any of the diseases peculiar to men, call and consult us in time. The least expense is always incurred through the early employment of genuine professional skill.
