MOVE TO AMEND PAROLE LAW

Bryan Clubs Propose to Have a Big Dollar Banquet on Birthday of Fearless Leader, February the Nineteenth.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Feb. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—The Young Men's Republican club of Lincoln has this evening given a banquet at the Lindell hotel at which covers were laid for 250. The speakers were Congressman Washington Gardner of Michigan, Deputy Attorney General Grant Martin and A. M. Hays of the State university.

Relief for Sick Convict.

Finding it impossible to let a tuberculosis patient out of the penitentiary without granting him absolute freedom, Governor Shallenberger will request the legislature to amend the law so that the convict may be paroled on a contingency, no matter whether he has served the minimum time or not. As the law now stands, the governor would have to turn the man free for all time in order to allow him present liberty, and this is farther than the governor care to go.

The case is that of Antonio Christanson, an Omaha wife murderer, serving a life sentence. He has been in the penitentiary since 1902. For several years past physicians employed to attend the convicts have been saying that he is afflicted with tuberculosis. This disease has now reached an advanced stage, where it is not only necessary for Christanson himself to be taken away to make his recuperation possible, but so long as he remains the health of other inmates is endangered.

The present law provides that no parole shall be granted in any case until the minimum sentence for the crime has been served. Christanson has not been in long enough to meet this requirement. The law allows the governor to commute a sentence in such an emergency as this one, but to do so would be equivalent to granting a pardon.

C. Christanson, a brother of the convict, was here from Omaha during the week and said he would take the latter home and care for him until he is able to get on his feet. It is possible that, once outside of prison, the tuberculosis health might be restored. Governor Shallenberger has instructed his private secretary, W. J. Furse, to draw up a bill for introduction in the legislature authorizing the governor to issue pardons in such circumstances.

Cement Users' Convention.

The second day's session of the Nebraska Cement Users' association, which is being held at the Lindell hotel, was attended by members and delegates from nearly every section of the state. More than 30 delegates have registered up to date, and many more are expected to arrive in time for the meeting Friday night. The exhibit held in the Auditorium opposite the hotel is proving an interesting feature of the meeting and is quite an educational affair.

The 10th anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln was celebrated here today in the public schools. Special programs were had, which were well attended in the forenoon, and this afternoon a special service was held in the Methodist church under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic, assisted by the pupils of the high school and the ministers of the various churches. The banks closed for the day.

Indiana Pastor to Greenwood.

LA PORTE, Ind., Feb. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—The Rev. Allen Murray, pastor of the Taylorville, Ind., Christian church has received a call to the pastorate of the Christian church at Greenwood, Neb. He will go there in a few days to preach a trial sermon and investigate conditions.

Freight Cars in Ditch.

BEATRICE, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—There was a wreck on the Union Pacific near Barnston last evening. Five freight cars left the track, blocking traffic between here and Manhattan, Kan., until today.

Observance of Bryan's Birthday.

In honor of W. J. Bryan's forty-ninth birthday, February 19, the Lincoln Bryan club will give a banquet in the Lincoln Auditorium, to which will be invited all the Bryan organizations of the state. The president of the Lincoln Bryan club, Frederick Shallenberger, will be toastmaster and speech will be made by Mr. Bryan. Governor Shallenberger and a member of the club abroad who has not been chosen as speaker. Elect Shively of Indiana and ex-Governor Folk of Missouri have been suggested for this position. Representatives of the Bryan Volunteers and the Students' Bryan club of Lincoln will be on the program. H. A. Meier of Lincoln is chairman of the committee on arrangements. The plan is to make the event a dollar dinner.

Nebraska News Notes.

ALMA.—Sheriff Carroll brought Lloyd McDaniel from the Red Cloud jail today to stand trial for entering the Swartz & Egerton store two weeks ago.

BEATRICE.—The public sale held on the homestead of Peter Jansen in Jefferson county yesterday was attended by nearly 2,000 farmers, and the sum of $6,000 was realized.

SEWARD.—At a meeting of the members of the Seward Congregational church last night it was voted to purchase a pipe organ. The church has an English speaking congregation in the city.

BEATRICE.—Henry Bergmeier and Miss Annie Henke, both of Clinton, were married here last evening. The ceremony was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Redlin of Clinton. They will make their home on a farm four miles east of Wilber.

TECUMSEH.—Ben Studd, a well known farmer who lived four miles southwest of Sterling, died Thursday afternoon. He was 80 years old.

BEATRICE.—The case of Dr. J. B. Fulton against the Nebraska Telephone company was tried in the district court yesterday and decided in favor of the defendant. Mr. Fulton brought suit against the company to recover damages in the sum of $100, due to the alleged carelessness of the company in not repairing a wire which caused the death of his horse. He answered a call over the long-distance telephone from a merchant at Des Moines, Neb., who agreed him to send him his bloodhounds to put on the trail of burglars. The plaintiff was told by the operator that the dog came from Superior, Neb., and relying upon her word the dogs were sent there.

MCCOOK.—The McCook Commercial club, collaborating with Superintendent of Schools C. W. Taylor, has commenced making plans and completing preparations for the spring meeting of the Southwest Nebraska Teachers' association in McCook, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of the first week in April. Five hundred teachers of this section of Nebraska are expected to be present during this three-days' meet and McCook proposes to make the meeting a notable one in the history of the association.

SEWARD.—John Zimmerman was re-elected president of the Commercial club on Monday evening. W. Q. Dickinson is vice president. H. E. Wright secretary-treasurer and G. J. Harrison, A. J. Callender and J. M. Dickinson compose the board of directors.

BEATRICE.—Elmer J. Stambaugh of Virginia, this county, and Miss Grace Marsh were married yesterday at the bride's home at Lincoln. The young couple will spend their honeymoon in Colorado, after which they will make their home in Virginia.

PLATTSMOUTH.—Mrs. Robert Gibson, aged 32 years, died in her home in this city Thursday after a short illness. Her husband, a Burlington engineer, and a child died in the same household. Her body will be taken to Lincoln Saturday for interment.

CENTRAL CITY.—The new Central City steam laundry will soon be open for business and the town, which has been without a laundry since the closing of the Model laundry, will be benefited. The new laundry was located a few months ago, will again have one.

BEATRICE.—Mrs. J. A. Gage, who is soon to locate in Fairbury with her family, was given a farewell reception last evening by the members of the Omaha chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star at the lodge No. 113. As a token of esteem the hostess was presented with a beautiful handkerchief.

SEWARD.—The Congregational churches of York, David City and other towns will hold a missionary conference with the Congregational church in Seward next Monday and Tuesday, February 15 and 16. Missionaries from foreign lands and others of prominence will speak.

PLATTSMOUTH.—County Attorney Will C. Ramsey will file in Justice Archer's court this Saturday a complaint charging John C. Clarence, aged 23 years, with murder in the first degree by having shot John P. Thacker three times with his revolver on January 13.

BEATRICE.—Miss Mary Bull of this city was married to Robert Scheller at Waterloo, Okla., February 8, Mr. and Mrs. Scheller arrived in the city last evening. They were accompanied by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bull, who will reside in Wisconsin.

HUNTERLEY.—Miss Mabel Fern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunterley, was married in marriage to Fred Arthur Holmes, a prominent contractor and builder of this city, at the residence of the bride's friends and relatives, Rev. Mr. Burnett, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, here.

MCCOOK.—The McCook Co-operative Building and Savings association at its annual meeting here last week took strong ground against the Gates revenue saving law proposed, especially as the law affects building associations. A committee was appointed to urge legislators to action against this measure.

BEATRICE.—A move is on foot here by a number of our citizens to have a public park established on the late Daniel Freeman farm west of the city, which is the first homestead in the United States. The matter will be taken up by the leading citizens of Beatrice, with a view of having congress make an appropriation for the purchase of the land for such purpose.

ALLIANCE.—Mrs. Margaret Hill, wife of William Hill, a retired rancher, who has been a Nebraska resident for forty-two years, died this morning of pneumonia after a long illness. She was 66 years of age. She was born in Kilkenny, Ireland, and came to this country at a time when pioneers made a daily risk of life, together with their attendant and inevitable hardships. Out of a family of twelve children seven are living.

PLATTSMOUTH.—The hotel in Union was entirely consumed by fire about 3 o'clock Friday morning. The fire was discovered in time for the guests to escape, many of them carrying their clothing in their arms to the streets. A portion of the contents of the lower floors were removed into the street. The hotel was valued at about $2,500 and was insured for $1,000. It was owned by Edward McLeave of Nebraska City and was leased to Dan Farnham and his wife, who were conducting it.

PLATTSMOUTH.—The Plattsmouth city council is considering the benefit to be derived by building its own water and electric light plant. Councilman Neuman stated that, judging from the past, that during the next twenty years the city would have paid for water and light the sum of $12,194, an amount sufficient to build two electric plants, Miss M. E. Holman of the high school congress make an appropriation for the purchase of the land for such purpose.

PUSHES QUARREL TOO FAR

Big Mike Eaffley Stabbed and Killed at Bloomfield by Herman Sorey.

DEAD MAN WAS QUARRELSOME

Sorey, Who Was Much Smaller, Had Warned Mike to Let Him Alone or He Would Use His Knife and Was as Good as His Word.

BLOOMFIELD, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—The first homicide in the history of Bloomfield took place in the Maxwell billiard hall and restaurant yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Mike Eaffley, generally known as "Big Mike," a laborer, was stabbed in the heart by Herman Sorey, a young man, who came here from Missouri Valley, Ia.

Eaffley had been quarreling all the morning and seemed to take special delight in slapping and cursing young Sorey, who happens to be in the restaurant. Sorey did not care to quarrel and made several attempts to get out of the place, but was prevented by the big, burly Mike. Sorey finally pulled his knife and warned Eaffley, who was about twice the size of Sorey, to let him alone or he would defend himself with his knife. The restaurantkeeper appeared on the scene and parted the two men and for a few minutes everything seemed quiet, but "Big Mike" was not satisfied and returned to Sorey and again began to abuse him, slapping him right and left and forcing him to the wall.

Sorey saw Sorey draw his knife, but before Mr. Maxwell, the proprietor of the place, could again get to them "Big Mike" exclaimed:

"My God, I am stabbed; send for a doctor."

He sank to the floor and expired in a few minutes. Sorey was immediately placed under arrest. A coroner's jury was summoned and the verdict rendered was that the deceased came to his death by a knife wound inflicted by Herman Sorey. The defendant had his preliminary hearing before Judge Barger this morning, who, after examining a number of eye-witnesses, bound Sorey over to the district court, fixing his bond at $2,000, which Sorey had no trouble in furnishing. Both are young men without families.

Varner Sells Sterling Sun.

TECUMSEH, Neb., Feb. 12.—(Special.)—L. A. MRS. BURR SEEKS DIVORCE

Business Woman Says Her Husband Brandished Knife and Vowed He'd Carve Her.

According to Mrs. Melinda Burr, her husband, Archer H. Burr, of the Burr incubator company, has threatened her life and even brandished a carving knife, while he vowed to cut her heart out. Mrs. Burr is plaintiff in a suit for divorce filed yesterday afternoon. The plaintiff alleges that Burr has behaved with extreme cruelty to her children, his stepchildren, and has again and again ordered her to leave their home. Mrs. Burr further recites that the business of the Burr company has been largely built up through her own labors as a business woman and that half the company is rightfully hers. She prays for suit costs, temporary and permanent alimony. She is represented by Jersifer & Hollow.
