

ASK NEW TRIAL FOR GOODELL

Attorneys Make Formal Motion for Miss Kennett's Murderer. HE IS LEAST CONCERNED OF ALL

W. W. Habaugh and Charles Foster, counsel for Van Goodell, entered a motion Thursday for a new trial for their client, convicted Monday night of the murder of Edna Kennett and with punishment fixed at life imprisonment.

The new trial is asked for on various grounds: That the court erred in giving certain instructions and in refusing others; that the attorney should not have been allowed to tell the jury that there had been many complaints as to the laxity of criminal prosecution in the United States, and that he hoped there would be no reason for fault-finding with the action of the jury in this case.

The man who ruthlessly shot the girl is one of the least concerned persons in Omaha over his conviction. He is seemingly indifferent, to further steps in his case and the greatest evidence of any feeling he has displayed is shown in an answer to a question, "How do you feel?"

"I feel black and blue all over," said the murderer, laughing.

"How do you mean?" asked his questioner. "From the pounding English gave me," he answered.

There was no activity in criminal court Thursday, Judge Sears being in Lincoln. The case of Max Weeks went over until Tuesday. Two juvenile offenders were before Judge Estelle. Harry Hamlin, a defaulting messenger boy, and Andrew Beck, said to have robbed a woman, were both sent to Kearney. Saturday Judge Estelle will have other juvenile cases, including those of two little colored girls, Bell Irwin and Milla Daniels. A pretty valentine with a large pink cupid on it fascinated these children in the Brandeis store and likewise a 7-year bear appealed to the children so irresistibly that they tried to "shoot" them. Some bright and shiny marbles were the cause of the downfall of Fred Compton in another store, and he, too, will be brought before the juvenile court.

CORN HITS THE HIGHEST MARK Sells for Over Five Times the Prices that it Brought Fifteen Years Ago.

Corn sold on the Omaha cash market Thursday for more than five times the price quoted by men who bought it at their country elevators out over Nebraska fifteen years ago, this month.

Yellow corn brought 89 1/2 cents and white corn an high is 84 cents. This is not merely a quoted price, but many car loads were sold at 89 1/2 cents—sold to some of the very dealers who bought it and stored it in cribs along the right of way, unshelled and uncovered for 11 cents per bushel in January and February 1924.

While the cash price was high in Omaha, it has been temporarily higher, reaching close to 70 cents a year ago. The speculative price for May corn reached 66 cents Thursday. Corn has been very strong for several days and dealers say they would not be surprised if many car loads were sold on the Omaha market for more than 60 cents before the end of the week.

AUTO RUNS OVER SICK MAN Nebraska 2227 Gets Hospital Patient on Whiskers on Its Way.

Frank Robinson, a patient at the county hospital, was run over by an automobile at Twenty-fourth and Cumma streets Thursday morning and severely injured.

The number of the automobile was 2227, Nebraska, and City Clerk Butler has asked the secretary of state to send him the name of the owner of the machine.

Mr. Robinson said that he was crossing the street behind a truck when the automobile ran into him without any warning. The driver did not ring a bell or sound a horn, and the pedestrian did not see it in time to get out of the way.

Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache and the irregularities disappeared and I can now attend to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed."
