PLANS FOR PACKING MERGER

Terms of Proposed Deal Revealed by Suit Tried in New York.

STEEL OFFICIALS AGAIN CONFERENCE

Price Situation is Discussed at Length and Formal Statement is Promised by Judge Gary Today.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—The agreement under which the four largest packing houses of the country were to have been consolidated was made public today in the course of the trial of the suit of Frederick Joseph against Ferdinand Sulzberger of the firm of Schwarzschild & Sulzberger, for recovery of $200,000 of stock which the plaintiff charges Mr. Sulzberger with converting to his own use.

Mr. Joseph testified that the agreement provided for merging into one corporation of the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger company, the Armour Packing company, the Swift and Company and the Nelson Morris Packing company. Provision was also made for absorbing the Cudahy Packing company.

Under the terms of the agreement the stock of the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger company was to be exchanged for $190 in cash or preferred stock and $20 in common stock of the new corporation. In the course of the acquisition of Schwarzschild & Sulzberger stock preparatory to its being turned into the pool, 275 shares are alleged to have been purchased for the account of Mr. Joseph at an average price of $72.81 a share. These shares, Mr. Joseph declared, were turned over to Mr. Sulzberger, who represented the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger company in the merger negotiations.

Owing to the action of the government and the panic of 1907 and 1908, the proposed consolidation fell through, however, and Mr. Joseph requested that the stock contributed by him to the pool be returned to him. This Mr. Sulzberger has refused to do, the plaintiff alleges, and it is in order to compel him to do so that the present action is brought. Since its purchase the stock has gained in value and is now worth, it is alleged, the amount sued for by Mr. Joseph.

Steel Kings Again Confer.

The steel situation was the absorbing topic in financial and business circles today. This interest had been aroused by reports that the trade in steel had been disappointing, that independent manufacturers were cutting prices and getting what business there was and by the fact that the chief officers of the United States Steel corporation and the heads of that corporation's subsidiary companies held another conference today at which conditions and the situation were thoroughly discussed. This meeting, at which E. H. Gary, chairman, and W. E. Corey, president of the United States Steel corporation, were in attendance, was held at the Railroad club. At the conclusion of the prolonged discussion Judge Gary announced he would not have anything to say today in relation to the conference, but he would tomorrow "make a general statement that will fully and frankly set forth the general conditions of the trade."

Whether or not the Steel corporation will

CHURCH STILL THE ANCHOR

Bishop Olmstead Points Out Where it Fails to Reach Its Possibilities.

LEAD THE PEOPLE, NOT FOLLOW

Nebraska Church Club Holds Its Annual Meeting at the Commercial Club Rooms—Officers Elected.

"We can make America good and great with the Bible and the prayer book," said the Rt. Rev. Charles S. Olmstead, bishop of Colorado, at last night's Epiphany meeting of the Nebraska Church club at the Commercial club rooms. A dinner and the annual business meeting and election of officers preceded the bishop's address, which was heard with interest by the Episcopal churchmen present.

"The church should again take its place at the head of the people and, instead of following them, should be their leader," continued Bishop Olmstead, whose theme was "Churchmen and the Times."

"You will get Christ interpreted to the world by making the church the head of it. The church has a conservative message for mankind, for the old things of life haven't worn out yet. All these new beliefs and doctrines are merely fads and notions in religion, they are not new, after all, and they are merely would-be remedies to our conditions that are without value and effect."

Considering present-day conditions, both within and outside the church, the bishop spoke of the decay of family life, the increase in the number of divorces and the many other ills and evils that infest our times in religion, business and society. He blamed them to the falling away from the church and its influence and said there was much in our surroundings to humiliate us and make us afraid of the judgment of our forefathers.

Hope for America.

Referring to his church, the Episcopal Bishop Olmstead stated: "My hope for America is in this branch of the church. I think if the people could be fully moulded with our church customs and beliefs, they would become gentlemen in the truest sense of the word."

"I think we are the best people in the world. Let us go still further and get full of the church ourselves and then spread it to others."

The officers and directors, executive committee for the coming year of the club's existence, were chosen as follows, the old officers and committee being re-elected and two men added to the latter:

Richard S. Hall, president; Gordon W. Wattle, vice president; Richard E. Leonard, secretary; Victor B. Caldwell, treasurer; executive committee, H. W. Yates, J. C. French, Joseph Backer, Millard F. Funkhouser, Charles L. Hopper, Charles George, Charles Z. Gould, Theodore L. Ringwald, J. E. G. Fisher, Restricker, C. H. Rudge, Lincoln; W. S. King, South Omaha.

DEATH RECORD.

Mrs. Ruth Ann Flinn, 71 years old, died after a long illness at her home, 324 Fowler avenue, Thursday morning. The funeral is to be held at the home Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, after which the body will be taken to Blair for interment.

Hildre Marie Westland, 14 years and 6 months of age, died of Bright's disease Friday morning at the home of her father, Elias Westland, 3412 Jackson street. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Swedish Mission church, Twenty-third and Davenport streets. Burial will be in Forest Lawn cemetery.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Students at State University Agricultural College Visit Yards.

GUESTS OF THE MANAGEMENT

After Inspecting Yards and Packing Houses Banquet is Served in Exchange and Number of Addresses Delivered.

The students of the University School of Agriculture, judging from the attention they attracted, formed the most important item of the receipts at the stock yards Thursday. They arrived at 9 a. m. From the early inspection of the yards, the visit to the packing houses, the lunch at the Exchange dining hall, the most interesting exhibition, the banquet and the entertainment following, everything combined for the comfort, instruction or amusement of the visitors.

The management of the annual visit to Omaha was perfect, both from the university end of the line and from the efforts of Manager Everett Buckingham and his corps of assistants. Not a hitch nor delay was recorded from the day's beginning to the end.

Swift and Company laid out a special exhibit for the instruction of the students. It consisted of an array of packing house products of all descriptions. Special attention was given to exhibits of carcasses, showing up the fine points of profit to be sought for by the packers. After viewing the exhibit the young men were taken through the packing house, where all the processes were in operation. The coolers were visited and the vast cellars where the excess of pork is cured and stored. Only the broad general impression of the industry could be hoped for in one day, but many of the boys, in their own minds, have made studies of the meat packing industry. The processes were largely familiar, in theory at least, before the visit.

During the afternoon the Cudahy Packing company and the Armour Packing company put on a novelty by way of a meat cutting exhibition. Armour & Co., by John O'Hearn, gave a very instructive lecture in the exchange building, illustrated by the actual carcass, which was divided as the superintendent talked, showing exactly what the boys desired to learn of the good points in a carcass. A similar exhibit was given by Mr. Brahm of the Cudahy Packing company at the cattle sales pavilion.

WOMAN'S TRIALS.

HER BITTER DISAPPOINTMENT.

The bitter trial in a woman's life is to be childless. Who can tell how hard the struggle may have been ere she learnt to resign herself to her lonely lot? The absence of this link to bind marital life together, the absence of this one pledge of mutual affection is a common disappointment. In many cases of barrenness or childlessness the obstacle to child-bearing is easily removed by the cure of weakness on the part of the woman. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been the means of restoring health and fruitfulness to many a barren woman, to the great joy of the household. In other, but rare cases, the obstruction to the bearing of children has been found to be of a surgical character, but easily removable by operative treatment at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., over which Dr. Pierce of the "Favorite Prescription" fame presides. In all cases where children are desired and are absent, an effort should be made to find out the real cause, since it is generally so easily removed by proper treatment.
