MODEL BUILDINGS TO BE ERECTED

Sanitary Apartments to Be Rented to Patients at Moderate Prices by Presbyterian Hospital.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.-Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, sr., has given more than $1,000,-000, it was announced today, for the erection of four model tenements for persons suffering with tuberculosis. The buildings are to be operated in connection with Dr. Henry L. Shively's tuberculosis clinic of the Presbyterian hospital and are to be known as the Shively sanitary tenements. A moderate rental will be charged the tenants.

The group of four tenements is to be erected on a large plot close to the East river. The four buildings, provided with ample light shafts, large courts and attractive roof, parlors and gardens, will be six stories in height and will contain about 375 apertments of from two to five room

Dr. Shively said: "There will be the large central courts thirty feet square at the center of each building, providing ample light and air at the back of each apartment and the roofs will be utilized and will be made as attractive as possible to encourage outdoor life on the part of tenants."

Facts About the Kimball Challenge

Omaha, February 25, 1909.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:-

The purposes of my challenge were clear demonstration of comparative merit and then the utmost publicity of results through the medium of Press Advertisement. One dealer claims to have covered my deposit, but in his communication specifically repudiates both the spirit and the letter of the challenge and in the reliability endurance test, which is the only one in which he seems to be interested, insists on a formidable array of freak conditions absolutely at varis ance with the purposes of the challenge, which were, in this particular event, to demonstrate the superiority of the CAD-ILLAC under the everyday, sane conditions that interest the everyday, sane purchaser, and then to secure to the public the widest possible distribution of the facts which the test shall have determined.

There are really serious minded dealers in this territory who have cars, which it seems to me, should be much more to be feared than those of the dealer mentioned above, and it is with the hope that some of them may yet be induced to accept my challenge in good faith, that I hereby extend the time of acceptance to 10 P. M., Friday, Feb. 26th, 1909.

R. R. KIMBALL. Yours truly,

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Conditions Settle Down to Normal So Far as Appearances Go.

DAMAGE BY RIOTS EXAGGERATED

Chief Briggs Receives Anonymous Letter Criticizing His Actions During Riot and Makes Reply to the Same.

Another night of perfect quiet in South Omaha indicates the return of normal conditions. It is believed that the anger of the populace against the Greeks has been satisfied. During the entire day Wednes day Greeks in small parties came to South Omaha and after securing an officer at the city jail visited their old quarters. No one stayed there. As soon as they could load up their property in vans and moving wagons they returned to Omaha. Fifteen or twenty loads of furniture, bedding and ers have not attempted to repair the ruined buildings. The Greeks can not sleep in them. The people whose houses are entire dare not rent rooms or buildings to the Greeks, so it is imperative that the Greeks return to Omaha. It is now believed imclaims under them will amount to about probable, even with the repair of the former lodgings, that the Greeks will return to them after having once settled in Omaha.

In the first burly-burly of excitement, when estimates of the property loss were based on the statements of the owners of the damaged buildings and furniture, it was thought from $20,000 to $25,000 would be the amount. It is likely that this is considerably too high. At least Mayor Koutsky, J. J. Breen, George W. Roberts and G. H. Boesche, acting on the suggestion that a niture. They prepared lists of every win dow broken and every piece of damaged only $1,622.50. This estimate does not include losses to the business houses by way of income or the loss to the managers of lodging houses. It does not include loss of wages to laborers. This loss can not be estimated until the names of all claimants witnesses in Detective Mousley's are in. Several claims for damages were

All of the four men mentioned, who inovering the exact damags, agreed on the total loss in each case before leaving the spot. This action was taken with a view ing of a plea of guilty by the defendant to of meeting possible extravagant claims by owners of the damaged property. The owners of the property will not agree to the appraisement by the city officials, but many of the private claims alone exceed the total loss estimated by the city. The claims for personal injury will be much higher, being based on estimates of different character. It is likely that the city will compel the aggrieved parties to bring suit rather than come to a settlement. since it is declared that the state has no law covering damage to property during a Statement from Chief Briggs Chief John Briggs has felt himself ag grieved through the receipt of an anony mous letter, which was mailed to him from Omaha yesterday. The letter reads: Omaha yesterday. The letter reads:

Leg Badly Broken by an Automobile

ously Hurt at Twenty-Second and Farnam Streets.

C. A. Hamilton was knocked down by a electric automobile at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Twenty-second and Farnam stracts, suffering a fracture of the leg and being rendered unconscious.

The car which ran into Hamilton is the property of E. V. Lewis of Crane & Co., but was being driven by youth employed, it is said, by the Electric Garage company of 1929 Farnam. By one of those coincidences which seem amazingly strame. Mr. Lewis was on the street car with Hamilton. He saw Hamilton drop off the car, which falled to stop at the first signal to the motorman, and then saw the notor car strike the unfortunate man, who was thrown a dozen feet by the blow.

Lewis was the first man at my side said Hamilton last night. "and has been to see me again this evening."

It is declared that the youth running the electric had it going at a high rate of speed and sounded no slarm. When Lewis picked up Hamilton, who was unconscious, the former did not know as yet that it was Hamilton was taken to his room at 1906 Farnam in the neighborhood of the accident.
