BAD ROADS MAKE LOW RECEIPTS

Movement of Corn is Good, However, Prices Are Better Than Ever and Local Demand is Improved.

The wheat situation is presently unchanged, and while the con-There was a lull in the general activity in all, markets today. The wheat situation is apparently unchanged, and while the conditions of country roads are restricting heavy receipts, the cash situation was sever stronger.

The movement of corn is good, and with better weather, receipts should pick up. Prices are the best they have ever been and the local demand is very good. Wheat was dull and inactive, with cables weaker and traders helding off after the bulge in July option yesterday. Juiside interest developed later and values advanced near the close, with a spirit of heavy trading.

May wheat opened at $1.66% and closed wheat opened at $1.06% and closed Corn opened dull and worked a shade tower during the early part of the session. Light receipts and orandy, firm cash demand, taking all sample offerings, forced the market, with values steady at the close. May corn opened at 80% c and closed at 60% c.

Orimary wheat receipts were 35,000 bush-Etimary wheat receipts were 25,000 bushels, and shipments were 25,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 331,000 bushels and shipments of 345,000 bushels.

Corn receipts were 757,000 bushels and shipments were 256,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 251,000 bushels and shipments of 341,000 bushels and shipments of 341,000 bushels of corn, 1,000 bushels of corn, 1,000 bushels of cats, and wheat and flour equal to 257,000 bushels.

Liverpaol closed 4,504,d lower on wheat and unchanged on corn.

the May option was inclined to drag be-cause of considerable selling pressure by promittent cash interests, who, it was elafteed, had large auantities of the cash grain coming here from Omahai. Addi-tional crop damage reports were received, telling of fajury to the fall-sown crop in Missouri and Kansais by Hessian fly and winter silling. The market was also bullishly affected by an estimate on the shipments from Argentina for the week, bu., compared with the precious week. This factor, however, was partially offset by a decime in the price of wheat at Liverpool. During the day the July delivery anged between $1.01 and $1.04.00.04. and losed at $1.04.06.04. May closed at $1.04.06.04. The corn market was weak at the start, but a strong tone soon developed, which was maintained. At the close prices were be to $6.00.04. In the close prices were be to $6.00.04. LONDON. Feb. 25.—Money was in strong demand on the market today and discounts were quiet. The Stock exchange concluded the settlement satisfactorily, but new business was not brisk. The tone strengthened in the afternoon on a more favorable local bank statement and better continental news. Consols hardened to M and foreigners and kaffirs recovered their early weakness, but closed dull. American securities were considerably quieter than yesterday, with moderate fluctuations. Dealings were of fair extent at below parity at the cutset, the selling and buying being evenly divided. Then a period of dulness occurred pending the receipt of the Wall street opening, when the market reacted sharply on New York selling and the closing was easy at the lowest point of the day. STOCKERS AND FEEDERS. HOGS—The hog market opened unevenly higher this morning, early sales ranging anywhere from strong to lee higher than yesterday, the amount of the advance depending upon the quality and just how the buyers happened to look at them. Thus, while some hogs sold fully life higher, others very nearly as good brought little more than yesterday. Good hogs sold up as high as $4.50, the best price paid on this market since February II. After the first round and after the more urgent orders were filled, the market sased off under the influence of less favorable advices from other selling points and buyers, as a rule, withdrew from the market for a time so that the trade came almost to a stand-still.

Democrat and Not Jacksonian -Lobeck Steps Out of

They're off! At last the Jacks have summoned sufficient nerve to pick up the gauntlet thrown down by the chesty Jima, and it's Colonel Ed and Colonel James for the mat now.

Ed P. Berryman, president of the Board of Park commissioners and coloud on the governor's staff, filed Thursday morning as a candidate for the democratic nomination for mayor of Omaho, against Mayor Dahlman, who filed three weeks ago for renomination on the same ticket.

The new candidate is accretary of the Jacksonian club of Nebraska, but he announces that he will not make a campaign as a Jack, but as a plain, every-day democrat, asking for support from Jacks and Jims alike. He will have a platform, including such high sounding words an "greater Omaha, more beautiful Omaha and a more prosperous Omaha," but this platform is not as yet ready for publica-special to say about my candidacy," said the colonel, "except that I intend to make a clean, straight and forceful campaign. I have missed but few sessions of the council during the last three years and believe that the present council should be at any rate, I have given the board liberally
