Breath Odors Removed by Charcoal

Onions, Tobacco, Decaying Food, Alcohol, Stomach Gases and Impurities Foul the Breath, Charcoal Purifies it.

A Trial Package of Stuart's Charcoal Losenges Sent Free By Mail.

The stomach and digestive canal of man fills with gases from fermenting and defood, Such gases impregnate the breath, filter through the system, spread disease and in large quantities extend the stomach so that it shuts off heart action and death sometimes results.

Pure, simple willow charcoal absorbe gas at once and stops impure food fermentation. It sweetens the stomach, kills the effect of all odors such as liquor, co, onlons, etc., or at least prevents them from causing impurities to arise.

The willow is renowned for its curative properties and ancient legendary lore is filled with its use, by barbarians and civilized men. As early as $00 B. C. the ancient Chaldeans were sagely curing disease by charcoal and every monastery of the drunkard by using powdered willow

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are pure willow charcoal, compressed with honey into a delicious lozenge. They contain nothing mixture, which looks like the tincture of but sweet willow charcoal and honey. One may eat a box of them and feel only benefit from so doing. Two or three after a meal will be a sufficient guard against bad breath and the same amount eaten just before bed time will insure a pure breath upon arising the next morning. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges tone up the blood, the liver and the stomach. They are great laxatives also, but eating large ers of them does not increase their effect in a painful manner upon the City's Water Bill. The Omaha Water company has filed the semi-annual water bill with the city clerk. This bill amounts to $7,457.90. The bill includes the eight hydrants located on Hoctor boulevard. This order of the former council Mayor Frank Koutsky vetoed after entering the office. It is likely that the city council will object to this item. The company will then have to sue to recover for the eight hydrants. It was stated by the mayor in his veto message that these hydrants were not immediately necessary to the city, as there were not residences near enough to use them. Twenty-five new hydrants have ben put in since the last bill was paid. The city pays rent on 261 city forty annuity hydrants in lieu of a March 23 is the big day for the Bap-tists of the three cities. The three lead-ing men of the denomination, who are making a tour of the cities from the At-lantic to the Pacific, holding inspirational lantic to the Pacific, holding inspirational meetings in the interests of missions, will be here, Drs. L. A. Barnes, Eubank, and P. S. Henson, Dr. Henson is the popular preacher and lecturer who lately resigned the pulpit of Tremont Temple, Boston. Afternoon and evening meetings will be held on that date in Calvary Baptist church.

SEVENTH WARD WOULD STEAL GLORY OF THIRD THIS YEAR

Four of Seven Candidates for Mayor Live in Number Seven, Three in Same Presinct.

Since politics has been the Third ward of Omaha has by common consect beer termed "bloody." This year this may be changed in Omaha and the Seventh become sanguinary, for the Seventh will be the scene of many a battle royal; It is destined to be in the vortex of the pre-primary campaign and the Second precinct of this ward will be the exact center of the political whirlpool. This because four of the seven candidates for mayor, to date, live in the Seventh, and three of the four live in the Second precinct of that ward. These four Seventh ward candidates for mayor are Mayor Dahlman and Colone licans. The first three live in the Second precinct of that ward, and to make affairs more complicated Mayor Dahlman and Mr. Breen live in the same block and their clothes lines are attached to the same street, Colonel Berryman at 1317 South Twenty-eighth street, Mr. Breen at 1719 Park avenue and Captain Palmer at 1608
