Crowds Cheer Big Jeff Crowds New York Depot When Jeffries Arrives

CROWDS CHEER BIG JEFF

Two Thousand People Meet Former Champ at New York.

MAY NOT RE-ENTER RING AT ALL Has Been Training Lightly, but Four Years' Rest May Make It Impossible to Get Back Into Fighting Form.

NEW YORK, March 3-James J. Jeffries, retired heavyweight champion of the world, was accorded a remarkable demonstration on his arrival here today.

A crowd of nearly 2,000 people gathered at the Grand Central station and wildly cheered the pugilist as he showed his way to a carriage. Jeffries was accompanied by his wife and sparring partner, Sam Berger.

Finding his passage blocked by the crowd, which kept up a continuous cheering, Jeffries was compelled to accept the assistance of the station masters, who escorted him to the baggage room, where it was hoped that he might elude the throng through a side door. The crowd, however, was not to be denied and fled to Vanderbilt avenue, where it quickly surrounded the west side of the station and blocked the passageway to the baggage room.

Meanwhile, a part of the crowd succeeded in obtaining a passageway to the baggage room, where it stood on trunks and gave a further noisy welcome to the pugilist. The door was finally opened and Jeffries succeeded in getting to a carriage with his party and was hurried away, while the crowd cheered wildly.

Another crowd gathered around the office building where Jeffries went on his arrival here and the police were called to clear the thoroughfare.

"I have been training lightly for several weeks and have reduced my weight to 165 lbs. Each day I find that I can box faster than the day before and I am delighted to find that my wind is in good shape. I feel that, but I can't say definitely whether I will again enter the ring or not. I have been out of training four years, and that may make it impossible for me to attain strict championship form again."

Another crowd gathered around the office building where Jeffries went on his arrival here and the police were called to clear the thoroughfare.

READY TO PLAY BALL IN 'FRISCO

Home Team and White Sox Will Open Season Friday.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3-The first game of the Chicago American league base ball squad took place in getting at work on the local diamond today.

The local men stepped up well in practice and practice game today, and the afternoon and from that time until after 5 o'clock all hands were busy with training, base running and general limbering up.

Two recruits joined the team today. They are Harry Smith, a Southpaw twirler, who made a great showing with the San Francisco league team last year, and Fletcher Cravath, formerly of the Los Angeles squad, but more recently connected with the Boston Americans, playing in the outfield.

The San Francisco team, which will meet the visitors in the first game of the season, Friday, began work today. The local men stepped up well in practice and practice game today, and the afternoon and from that time until after 5 o'clock all hands were busy with training, base running and general limbering up.

The services of M. E. Moe, the trainer who has been with the team since 1925, and many other fighters, was engaged by the Chicago Americans. He will aid in getting the men into shape.
