EDWIN HANEY IS AT REST
Veteran Railroad Man Buried at Prospect Hill Cemetery.
MASON'S DIRECT THE CEREMONIES
Rev. Newton Mann, at Unity Church, conducts the Religious Observances and Grand Army Takes Part.
All that was mortal of Edwin Haney was laid to rest in Prospect Hill cemetery Friday afternoon with impressive ceremonies. The funeral services were under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity, of which Mr. Haney was a veteran member. The body was removed from the late home of Mr. Haney during the forenoon to Masonic temple where it lay in state, as is the custom of the Masonic order, pending the ritual services. The temple hall was crowded with members of the order and of the Grand Army of the Republic and friends.

The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. Special floral pieces were sent by Mr. Haney's former associates at Union station and from other railroad departments with which he had been for so many years associated. All of the orders with which he was connected contributed floral tributes, several of which were quite elaborate. Smaller testimonials were sent by individual friends.
The services at Masonic temple were conducted by Rev. Newton Mann, pastor of the Unitarian church. A special quartet furnished the music for the occasion.
The active pallbearers were members of Covert lodge, A. F. A. M. They were W. A. Piel, L. G. Baright, Russell Trout, Joseph Archibald, S. E. Wall and Frank C. Gardiner. The honorary pallbearers were William Wallace, Thomas A. Creigh, R. C. Peters, M. D. Cameron, E. A. Benson, W. L. Kelly, F. E. Kennard, J. H. Boyce and C. C. Rosewater.
At the conclusion of the ceremonies at Masonic temple the funeral cortege formed and proceeded to Prospect Hill cemetery, where interment was made. A delegation of Knight Templars constituted the escort. The ceremonies at the grave were in conformity with the Templar ritual.

YOUNG WOMAN DIES ON TRAIN
Mrs. Sarah Edwards Found Dead in Berth by Husband.
POST MORTEM AND INQUEST DUE
Cause of Death is Uncertain and Therefore Coroner Will Hold Examination to Determine the Facts.
Mrs. Sarah Edwards, the young wife of R. C. Edwards of Denver, who is a clerk in the Union Pacific agent's office at that city, died suddenly on Union Pacific train No. 12 about 6 o'clock Friday morning near Fremont, while en route to Omaha.
Edward L. Dodder, the Omaha undertaker in charge of the case, says Mrs. Edwards probably died of organic heart trouble. She was coming to Omaha with her husband to visit his mother, Mrs. G. L. Edwards of 423 Erskine street. It is said that her Denver physician gave her a dose of morphine at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon before she left there, as she was not in good physical condition to make the trip.
Mrs. Edwards was 22 years of age and had been married only a few years. The couple had no children. The parents and other relatives of Mrs. Edwards live in Denver, where the body will be taken for burial.
As there is an element of doubt as to the cause of death, Coroner Heafey will hold an inquest. The coroner's physician held a postmortem examination at the body at the Dodder undertaking rooms at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and the inquest the man the man themben the quest probably will take place at the Dodder place at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

According to the statement of R. C. Edwards, the husband, he discovered his wife was dead about 6 o'clock Friday morning when he left his upper berth in the Pullman and intended to wake her. She occupied the lower berth and had retired the night before apparently feeling as well as she had during the day. She was weak and the travel was distressing to her, according to Mr. Edwards, but he says he had noticed no alarming symptoms Thursday afternoon or night.

Victims of Drink Seek City Jail
Two Men in Throes of Intoxication Apply For and Receive Places in Prison.
All men who land in jail do not have to be arrested by a policeman. Strange as it may seem, sometimes a man calmly walks into jail and asks to be locked up.
Such an unusual happening occurred Thursday night at the city jail. Becoming so enraptured by the grip of John Barleycorn, he could not climb unaided to the lofty heights of the water wagon, F. A. Gates hit upon a scheme whereby he hoped to fool his imaginary enemies and hid himself in the direction of Desk Sergeant Marshall's place of business.
"Lock me up for a while, will you, please," Gates said to the sergeant, who thereupon responded that he would be greatly pleased to accommodate the visitor.
"Keep me in here till I get real good and sober," begged Gates, "and then I'll be a man again."
Later in the evening another weary wayfarer, also had pressed by the powers that be in the cup that cheers, dropped in at the steel-barred hotel and said he wanted a place to rest and a chance to collect his faculties. R. J. Franklin was his name, and he was given a quiet cell for the night.
To keep up the good work, Judge Crawford sentenced the men to five and ten days, respectively, in jail, at their own request. They said that when they were released they were going to leave "booze" alone.

CARRAHER MAY BE A SUICIDE
Officers Investigating Death of the Wealthy Farmer About Give Up Murder Theory.
DES MOINES, Ia., March 5.—Officers who have been investigating the mystery connected with the death of T. J. Carraher, a wealthy farmer of New Virginia, twenty miles south of here in Warren county, who was found Thursday with a bullet hole in his neck in a ditch near his place, are of the opinion that he committed suicide. His two sons, aged 7 and 13 years, found a note in which the father stated that they would never see him again. The fact that the boys destroyed the note and the peculiar character of the wounds led to a belief on the part of neighbors that some one had murdered Carraher. The inquest will be held on Monday.
