

BRIEF CITY NEWS

Table with 7 columns: Date (1909 MARCH 1909), Day (SUN MON TUE WED THU FRI SAT), and numbers 1 through 28.

THE BEE OFFICE

The Counting Room and Business Office of The Bee is temporarily located on Seventeenth street...

Mr. Root Print. An Grain Dealer—Edholm, Jeweler. Smoke House for Smokes, 316 S. 15th...

Loans for Homebuyers on reasonable terms, repaid monthly. Nebraska Savings and Loan Association, 1402 Farnam street...

Question of Burglary. A warrant was issued out of Justice Docket court Saturday morning for the arrest of Viola Guy, colored...

Good Price for Land—One hundred and sixty-two dollars and fifty cents per acre is the price paid by Fred L. Kirton...

New Editor for Exhibit—P. P. Fodrea has just been made editor of the Omaha Trade Exhibit...

Unity Club Lectures—The last of the Unity club lectures will be delivered at Unity church Monday evening by Miss Janet Wallace of the Omaha High school...

Fined for Overworking Horses—For hiring a horse at a livery stable, supposedly for a few hours and then working it all day until it was rendered unable to do anything more...

San Souci Club—The San Souci club was entertained Friday evening at the home of Miss Jessie Corey...

Mr. Butts Is Out of Money—By being jostled and crowded by a man on a Farnam street car about 8 o'clock Friday evening, William Butts, 3122 Corby street, claims to have been robbed of $100 in bills...

ARCHITECTURE AT LIBRARY

Books to Be Had There Explaining All Phases of House Building.

HOME IN RELATION TO OUTDOORS

Surrounding Features Count for Much, and All is Explained in Omaha Library Books on the Subject.

While it does not seem to be generally known, the Omaha public library can, at a moment's notice, furnish the most valuable kind of information...

Books on model houses, on simple homes, on modern suburban homes, on tropical town houses, on log cabins and bungalows, on cottages and mansions...

No "Meat-Axe" Architecture. Here are intelligent warnings against meat-axe architecture, correctives for brutal abuse of building opportunities...

Estimates of cost, based on the most favorable conditions or otherwise, are readily available in the Omaha reference room...

Original Ideas to Be Had. Even the man with most original ideas as to what he wants in a new home can find in the Omaha library books...

Finest and most original ideas as to what he wants in a new home can find in the Omaha library books full of suggestions that will appeal to him as eminently practical and sensible...

Heat, Light and Ventilation. Fireplaces that will be joy bringers while they endure are treated of in word and picture, also mantels, and how to get the best light and ventilation...

This is art in the building of a home, and this art intimately relates to size and shape of exterior decoration by means of a well as to a cheery, convenient and comfortable interior...

A ROMANCE AMONG PAINTINGS. Rival Collectors Join Heats and Their Fine Works of Art.

Few people who have visited the exhibit of paintings at Brandeis store during the last week are aware of a pretty romance surrounding them...

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound...

THE "BLACKSMITH," "THE NATIVITY," AND THE "CRUCIFIXION," SOME OF WHICH HAVE BEEN SHOWN IN OMAHA AND HAVE BEEN HIGHLY PRAISED BY ART LOVERS...

Mr. Fontaine is now in Omaha, superintending the exhibit of his two pictures, "The Teller" and "The Two Messengers."

The two paintings at Brandeis have been highly commended. "The Teller," by H. de Maereus, is valued at $5000. It is a marvelous study of light and shade...

PROGRESSING FAVORABLY SOCIAL SETTLEMENT WORK

Reports Made to Annual Meeting of the Association Are Encouraging.

The annual meeting of the Social Settlement association of Omaha was held last night in the assembly room of the Young Men's Christian association...

There was a large attendance and much interest was shown in the reports of the various departments of the work, showing what has been accomplished during the last year.

Six directors were chosen to take the place of the same number who retired by expiration of term of office. Mrs. Frank Crawford, Mrs. J. H. Dumont, Mrs. Howard Kennedy and Mrs. W. M. Alderson were re-elected...

The principal address of the evening was delivered by Prof. Lucille Smith, formerly interested in settlement work in San Francisco, but who is now a member of the faculty of the University of Nebraska.

Regular meetings of the literary societies were held Friday afternoon. The program was short, but on the whole entertaining. The Frances Willard society gave this program:

Recitation by Rhoda Lincoln; original poem by Ethel P. Plimpton; recitation by Josie Beckett; "A Memorable Night," Agnes Dunn, and an original poem by Ida Brodley.

After the meeting these officers were elected for the remainder of the year: President, Marjorie Beckett; vice president, Lily Caley; secretary-treasurer, Margaret Shaw; editor-in-chief, Arthur DeGard; sergeant-at-arms, Ruby Isaacson.

A colonial program was given by the members of the Priscilla Alden society. A story by Mary Reynolds was an introduction of the topic, which was carried out in the following numbers:

A poem by Bertha Anderson; an essay by Beulah Frazer; story by Alice Woodworth; "Historical Facts," Inez Woodhurst; reading by Helen McGregor; "The Chronicle," by Margaret Bevers.

An interesting topic, "A Tour of Interest in Our Country," was carried out in the following numbers by the members of the Priscilla Alden society:

Piano solo, Beulah Wittmer; "Life in a Mining Camp," Anna Mullin; "Chinatown," Ora Russell; solo, Mary Beach; recitation by a Lumber Clerk; "The Mormons," "The Mormons," Margaret Murphy; "Among the Mountains," Beulah Woodhurst; "The Fair," Claire McKeown.

A joint meeting of the Webster Debating society and the Hawthorne society was a success from every standpoint. Joe Woolery played a violin solo. A debate between H. Salisbury and L. Salisbury was the boys' share of the entertainment.

The girls, as the Hawthorne stock company, played a one-act sketch, "The Dumb Waiter." A minstrel show was given by the members of the Browning society...

AD CLUB MEETS MONDAY NIGHT. A Special Meeting is Called to Hear Ad Manager of Farnell Company.

The executive committee of the Ad club have called a special meeting at the Commercial club rooms Monday at 12 o'clock.

SCHOOL AND COLLEGE WORK

Progressive Activities in Various Institutions.

EDUCATIONAL GROWTH APPARENT

Doom of the "Little Red School House" Sounded in New England—Educational Notes and Personal.

A trip is being planned by the students of the forestry department of the University of Nebraska for the purpose of studying the methods and field planting in the sand hill regions and to see at first hand the results of the forestry experiments in these semi-arid regions...

Word has been received from Prof. Clements of the University of Minnesota and formerly of Nebraska, who has been invited to deliver an address to the committee and will also deliver an address.

The annual meeting of the Social Settlement association of Omaha was held last night in the assembly room of the Young Men's Christian association.

The graduate club of the University of Nebraska met at 8 o'clock at the temple. At 5 a supper was served, after which the evening program was given.

Dr. Condra presided and addresses were delivered by Governor Shallenberger and Dr. L. A. Sherman. Dr. Sherman's subject was, "The Legion Unit in Graduate Work."

The meeting of the Cornhusker board is decided by a unanimous vote to dedicate the 1909 book to Dr. George E. Condra, professor of geography and geology.

A variety of educational and social entertainments. Frank Harrison, editor of the Nebraska Capital, was a visitor Monday and at the chapel services he delivered a most interesting address...

Thursday evening the Proebel Kindergarten Band carried out a well-planned surprise on their instructor, Miss Anna E. Caldwell, in honor of her birthday.

The Young Men's Christian association held its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon and the delegates who were sent to Hastings to attend the state convention made report.

Prof. and Mrs. M. R. Snodgrass entertained the faculty Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at a "Kaffee Klatch."

The joint committee of the Y. W. and Y. M. met Friday and decided to hold a saturnalia some time before the close of the semester.

News from Peru. PERU, Neb., March 7.—(Special.)—Real estate continues active in Peru and this week one of the largest deals ever made here was consummated.

Current topics, Herbert Field. Debate, "Resolved, That tariff for protection is better than a revenue." Affirmative, W. Ernest and J. Gould; negative, V. Rector and F. Rippen.

The program closed with a recitation by Wilma Beebe. POLEY'S Honey and Tar curcous coughs quickly, strengthens the lungs and expels colds.

AD CLUB MEETS MONDAY NIGHT. A Special Meeting is Called to Hear Ad Manager of Farnell Company.

The executive committee of the Ad club have called a special meeting at the Commercial club rooms Monday at 12 o'clock.

A Dangerous Wound is rendered antiseptic by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the healing wonder for sores, burns, piles, eczema and salt rheum.

WISCONSIN UNIVERSITY.

Developments in the Department of Journalism.

Provision has just been made for four years' training in practical journalism next year, which will include daily experience in the student newspaper making connection with the Daily Cardinal.

A course in the elements of newspaper writing is to be required of the freshmen in the courses preparatory to journalism, and they are to act as sub-reporters on the Daily Cardinal...

The Juniors in the course in newspaper writing will fill the positions of university editor, assistant university editor, managing editor, and assistant managing editor.

The Alumni association of the university has decided to offer a graduate fellowship in Journalism, valued at $400, to any graduate of the university who has taken a course in journalism...

The new course in editorial writing to be given by Prof. W. G. Bleyer in charge of the division of Journalism and chairman of the courses preparatory to journalism.

A student in a New England high school, who was a member of the Phi Kappa Psi chapter at the school, has been ordered by a judge to leave school and to work to support his mother and wife and their baby.

MISS MACRAE QUITS BROWNELL. Miss Marston of Yonkers, New York, is Selected as Her Successor.

MISS EDITH D. MARSDON of Yonkers, N. Y., has been selected by the board of trustees of Brownell Hall to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of Miss Euphony...

STUDY OAKS FROM LITTLE ACORN GROWING. Advertising in The Bee will do wonders for your business.

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES. The Direct Route. A straight line is the shortest distance between two points. Why not teach your fingers THE DIRECT ROUTE?

The Smith-Premier Typewriter Co. Stenographers are furnished to business men without charge to school typewriter or employer. Write for particulars.

Kearney Military Academy. A boy's progress depends upon his own effort and the interest he takes in his own study.

WHAT A SCHOOL. Information concerning the advantages, rates, extent of curriculum and other data about the best schools and colleges can be obtained from the School and College Information Bureau of the Omaha Bee.

GRAND ISLAND COLLEGE. Regular college preparatory courses, Music, Art and Commercial courses offered.

NEBRASKA MILITARY ACADEMY. A Military Boarding School for boys, now located for the winter at Fourteenth and U streets.

THE WOLCOTT SCHOOL. Fourteenth Avenue and Horton St. Des Moines, Iowa. A private school in the west, highest standard of scholarship.

NEBRASKA MILITARY ACADEMY. A Military Boarding School for boys, now located for the winter at Fourteenth and U streets.

THE WOLCOTT SCHOOL. Fourteenth Avenue and Horton St. Des Moines, Iowa. A private school in the west, highest standard of scholarship.

Twenty Thousand Dollars in Fund Now for Teachers

Financial Showing for Annuity Made at Meeting of the Association, Which Elects.

Over $20,000 is now in the treasury of the Teachers' Annuity and Aid Association, as shown by the report of Mrs. Ella W. Nichols, financial secretary.

The annual report of 1908 showed the assets of the association to be $17,904.79, while those of the year are $20,000 and the constitution no disbursements for aid will be made until the sum of $25,000 in the treasury.

There are ninety-nine members of the association, three members being lost during the year through death and resignation.

Miss Clara Mason, Miss Pearl MacCumber, Miss Mary McMahon and Mrs. Agnes Harrison. The latter was elected as director-at-large.

The following officers were elected: President, Miss Martha L. Powell; first vice president, Mrs. Nora H. Lemmon; second vice president, Mrs. Mary B. Nelson.

HELP BELLEVUE ATHLETICS. Program to Raise Funds is Aided by Literary Societies Which Postpone Meetings.

All Bellevue college literary societies postponed weekly programs in order that the program given for the benefit of athletics might have the attendance of all.

A large audience responded to the occasion. A number of Omaha people, friends of students or of the college, came down, as also a large delegation from the village.

MISS MACRAE QUITS BROWNELL. Miss Marston of Yonkers, New York, is Selected as Her Successor.

MISS EDITH D. MARSDON of Yonkers, N. Y., has been selected by the board of trustees of Brownell Hall to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of Miss Euphony...

STUDY OAKS FROM LITTLE ACORN GROWING. Advertising in The Bee will do wonders for your business.

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES. The Direct Route. A straight line is the shortest distance between two points. Why not teach your fingers THE DIRECT ROUTE?

The Smith-Premier Typewriter Co. Stenographers are furnished to business men without charge to school typewriter or employer. Write for particulars.

Kearney Military Academy. A boy's progress depends upon his own effort and the interest he takes in his own study.

WHAT A SCHOOL. Information concerning the advantages, rates, extent of curriculum and other data about the best schools and colleges can be obtained from the School and College Information Bureau of the Omaha Bee.

GRAND ISLAND COLLEGE. Regular college preparatory courses, Music, Art and Commercial courses offered.

NEBRASKA MILITARY ACADEMY. A Military Boarding School for boys, now located for the winter at Fourteenth and U streets.

THE WOLCOTT SCHOOL. Fourteenth Avenue and Horton St. Des Moines, Iowa. A private school in the west, highest standard of scholarship.