FAMILY CURED OF SKIN TROUBLES

Two Little Girls had Eczema Very Badly—In One Case Child's Hair Came Out and Left Bare Patches—Father's Head Sore from Childhood—In All Three Cases

CUTICURA MET WITH ITS USUAL SUCCESS

"I have two little girls who have been troubled very badly with eczema. On the first day I had to use Cuticura on one of them. My husband came home one day with a box of Cuticura Ointment and a cake of Cuticura Soap. I began using them and also the Cuticura Pills and by the time the second lot was used their skin was soft and smooth as it had not been before for the winter. We keep the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment constantly by us and when any little roughness or irritation appears on their skin I quickly dispel it with the Cuticura Remedies. My husband has used them with most satisfactory results for a sore head which has troubled him from childhood. Mrs. Charles Baker, Albion, Me., Sept. 21, 1908."

Cuticura Ointment is one of the most successful remedies for torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, of infants, children and adults, ever compounded. In proof of which a single application with it, preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed by mild doses of Cuticura Pills, is often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing forms of itching, burning and scaly humors, eczema, irritations and inflammations, permit rest and sleep and point to a speedy cure when all else fails.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Thursday's Run of Hogs Breaks the Record for the Year.

BREEN DEFENDS HEALTH RULES

Council, in Committee of the Whole, Decides to Pay Hydrant Rental Bill, Less Taxes Owing to the City.

The record of the year was broken yesterday in receipt of hogs. The consignments amounted to 15,000 head. In addition to the 264 cars shipped in the farmers of Douglas and Sarpy counties within driving distance brought their animals in to wagons. All the forenoon team after team was lined up in front of the Exchange building where the wagon scales and the pens for local trade are located. The prices showed a sharp decline in all grades, due to the heavy run at the latter end of the week. The sales went rather slowly. The receipts at Chicago and other points were also heavy and indicate a rush on the part of the farmers to get their surplus hogs marketed before the spring work begins.

The receipts were larger than at any time for more than a year. A year ago in January 287 cars, or over 25,000 head were received in one day, but this was due to the conditions of panic prevailing. A large run is expected this morning. The decrease in the receipts of hogs for the year is being cut down rapidly. The figures have been changed over 20,000 head since the first of the month. At that time the decrease was given as 146,000, while with yesterday's receipts included the figure was 125,000. A top price of $4.65 was reached.

Receipts of cattle and sheep and the prices for the same were fair in all respects.

Breen Defends Ordinance.

Assistant City Attorney J. J. Breen is a little disappointed in the attitude of the city council toward the city sanitary ordinance. He said: "The council has been at me for a long time to draft an ordinance covering the subject of sanitation and providing the proper procedure in maintaining a clean city. I consulted the Omaha ordinance and that of other cities and drew up one to meet present conditions and also the future. Now, the council is objecting on the ground, I believe, that the ordinance contains too many sections. The Omaha ordinance has many more than 100 sections. The Chicago and New York ordinances have over 300 sections each. The expense of printing will not be too great, considering the importance of the ordinance. It was suggested that some stringent sanitary rules should be passed governing the conditions brought about by the presence of the Greeks in the city. I found that the best rules to adopt were those in use in the tenement district of the metropolitan cities. The restrictions would not only break up the colonization and the huddling of the Greeks, but cover all sorts of hotel and lodging house construction. I would like to see the ordinance taken seriously by the council."

The ordinance in question, was introduced at the last session of the council. It contained ninety-two sections.

No Complaints on Assessment.

The city council, sitting as a board of equalization for the adjustment of special assessments, found no complaints to adjust. The special taxes to be adjusted were for the grounds of Sixteenth street from I to H, the paving of West Q street from Thirty-third to Forty-fourth, and the assessment for several sidewalks which the city has put in. The council was in session two days. The special ordinance to levy these assessments in accordance with the report of the Board of Equalization will be introduced at the next meeting.

While in session the council resolved itself into a committee of the whole to consider the report of the city attorney recommending that the semi-annual water rentals be paid. The committee of the whole agreed to pay the bill, first deducting the amount of the taxes owing to the city by the company. This leaves a trifle more than $300 coming to the Omaha Water company. The original bill was over $7,000.

It is reported that a representative of New York capital is coming to South Omaha to look into the advisability of erecting a water system for the city in competition with the Omaha Water company.

Building Permits.

Several dwellings have been authorized by the building inspector since March 1. No structures of great pretensions are in sight at present. The largest undertaking is that of the Holmes-Adkins garage. The ground was broken for that addition to the Holmes-Adkins block yesterday. The garage will be the first permanent improvement of its kind in South Omaha. The walls of the Miller restaurant addition at Twenty-fourth and O streets are progressing as fast as the weather will permit.

Among the dwelling houses are the following: Walter Weikal, Thirty-third and S streets, $1,000; George Schrader, 814 North Twenty-second, $1,000; L. Sandberg, Nineteenth and E, $1,000; James Huss, Thirty-second and S, $1,000; James Curran, Forty-first and S, $1,200; Mrs. M. E. Fitzgerald, 2212 C, $2,000; Joseph Sak, 938 North Thirty-fourth, $300.

Freshmen Defeat Seniors.

The South Omaha high school freshmen defeated the seniors yesterday afternoon in a lively game of basketball at the Young Men's Christian association gymnasium. The score stood 22 to 21. Collins, Volz, Philip, Fraser, Bailey, and Brady as substitutes, represented the freshmen; Welmer, Campbell, Augustine, Harris and Armstrong represented the seniors. Collins was the star player for the freshmen and Armstrong seemed the leader of the seniors. A large delegation of spectators rooted for their favorites.

Magie Is Gossip.

Simms, 401 North Seventeenth street, is quarantined for sunburn. Jetter's Gold Top Beer delivered to any part of the city. Telephone No. 8. Crusader encampment No. 27 will hold a card party Friday evening at Odd Fellow hall.

Music

A number of East Indian lyrics, musically interpreted was evidently enjoyed by a large audience at the St. Mary's Avenue Congregational church last evening, the songs being interpreted by the church quartet. "The Garden of Kanna," is a song cycle for four solo voices the verses selected from Hindustani love lyrics and set to music by Henry B. Vincent, the work reminding one somewhat of the more familiar "Persian Garden," not only in a musical way, but because of the wealth of imagery in the verses themselves. The church quartet includes Frank J. Roster, tenor and director; Mrs. Harry Jennison, soprano; Mrs. Minnah Weber, contralto and William W. Grigor, basso. Members of the church know that the quartet is composed of four naturally gifted and well-trained voices, and this fact received further demonstration last evening. Also the four voices blend well together, a result depending on accident rather than design, as a rule, although in marvellously rare instances singers may be selected to a place in a quartet after this has been given due consideration.

Correct Apparel for Men and Boys

It's natural for men to want good clothes—in fact it should be every man's aim to wear the very best clothes he can afford.

But, of course, it makes a great difference where you buy. We invite you to compare our clothing with any similar priced garments anywhere.

We've proven time and again that this store shows every correct style and color, in garments that are built from the finest materials manufactured; yet we offer them for less money than anyone else.

You're welcome to try on, and closely examine, any Suit, Overcoat or Top Coat in our immense variety of patterns—all of them new and distinctive—and judge for yourself the marked superiority of "Nebraska" garments.

That Growing Boy

won't go through his clothes half so soon if you'll let us fit him in a Spring Suit or Top Coat. He'll look better, feel better and behave better because he'll be proud of the perfect fit, comfort and style of his clothes.

They'll suit you better, too, for in addition to their fine wearing quality the first cost will be surprisingly small. Saturday will be a good time to come in and look them over.

GRAND CANYON AND ITS BEAUTY

Nat. M. Brigham Presents Some Beautiful Views of One of World's Wonders.

With over one hundred of the finest views of the Grand Canyon ever shown in Omaha and an eloquent description of the marvelous natural feature in the southwest portion of our country, Nat. M. Brigham delivered the last lecture of his series at the First Congregational church Thursday night.

He carried his hearers in fancy through a long period, witnessing the early Spanish explorers hurrying along the rim of the canyon in their fruitless quest for gold, the hardy men of later times who made this wonderful region the scene of their adventures, then Major Powell conducting the geological survey for the government, and last Stanton, the engineer threading his way down the Colorado river through the canyon in quest of an outlet to the gulf for commercial purposes.

Major D. E. McCarthy, chief quartermaster Department of the Missouri, left Thursday evening for Fort Robinson, Neb., to look after some building matters in progress there.

See Want Ads are business boosters.

Wouldn't a bunch of pretty flowers on the dinner table be a pleasing surprise for him when he comes home? Try it.

Turn to the want ad page, and there, under the head of "Florists" you will find a lot of interesting information as to what the florists have. When you go down town shopping, stop in and buy a few. A few will do nicely—you don't need to spend all your money today.

Probably you will like the idea and want some left for the next time.
