The Strictly Correct Creations
SPRING MILLINERY FOR 1909

Brandeis' Hats are the standard of style throughout the west. The models from which our new millinery is fashioned come from the first designers of Paris and New York.

We mention specially our showing of the small flower hats and little mushroom shapes fitting close down over the head. You cannot be too careful about selecting your hat this season—one little touch of style may decide whether your hat is correct or common.

Brandeis' styles are always exact. Every Brandeis hat is graceful in design and strictly according to Fashion's decree in every feature.
