These were the county option liquor question; the constitutional amendments to increase the salary of the attorney general, and a general revenue amendment to the

The revenue amendment as presented this time, while containing some of the provisions of the amendment of two years ago, leaves the question of limitation of tax levy at just where it has been ever since the adoption of the constitution. It adds to the power of the state the right to tax inheritances; tax incomes, and tax franchises and Beenses. It places in the list of property exempt from taxation, parsonages and the residences of heads of denominational educational institutions.

JUDGES NAMED BEFORE APRIL

Appointments to Supreme Beach in South Dakota Will Come Soon. PIERRE, S. D., March 15 .- (Special.)-The next term of the state supreme court will be held in April, and by the time of the opening of the term Governor Vessey will have selected the two new judges to complete the court with a membership of five, as provided by the last legislature. While nothing has been announced in that line, there appears to be a general belief that the appointees will be Judge E. G. Smith of the First circuit, and Judge J. H. Mc-Coy of the Fifth circuit, the former from Yankton and the latter from Aberdeen. The principal question is who will be selected to companies. > Mitchell Land Office Moved. MITCHELL, S. D., March 15 .- (Special.)-When the United States land office closed Saturday evening at 4 o'clock, it ceased to exist in this city, after a period of over twenty-eight years. Register Burns loaded up all the fixtures and furniture of the office and shipped it to Gregory, where it will be opened for business Monday morning. The land office was opened for business in Mitchell on October 4, 1880, and the late Major Washburn and Colonel Campbell were the register and receiver. respectively. The office was originally located at Springfield, and it was divided its records going to Watertown and an office established at Vermilion, From there it was sent over to Sloux Falls and thence to Mitchell. For the last four years there has been little business for the office, except for the period when the Rosebud lands were added to the district, SIOUX FALLS, S. D., March 15 .- (Spe cial.)-The annual municipal elections will be held Tuesday in a large number of the smaller towns of South Dakota. Local officers will be elected and in a great majority of the towns the question of license or no license will be voted upon. In one or two towns. Willow Lakes among them, the petitions which were filed asking that the license question be submitted to the voters, did not contain the required number of legal signatures and were rejected. In the case of Willow Lakes this means that that town will be "dry" during the coming year. All the elections will be without political significance, as they will be determined purely upon local questions, party lines not having been drawn in any of the towns. The larger towns of the state, such as Sloux Falls, will not hold their annual municipal elections until April 20.

Invalid for Forty Years. SIOUX FALLS, S. D., March 15 - (Spedal.)-The recent death of Miss Fannie W. Alderman, a resident of Charles Mix county since the early days, is worthy of nore than passing mention. At the time of her death she was 61 years of age, and had been an invalid for a period of forty years. Her life was comparatively inactive, but she read much and wrote many verses, which were faultiess in rhyme and rhythm. The distinguishing feature of all her poetry was its cheerfulness, notwithstanding that since being a young woman she had been practically helpless and had every reason to complain of her condition.

Girls Debate at Huron.

MITCHELL, S. D., March 15,-(Special.)-Puesday evening in this city the annual iebate between the girls' debating teams of Dakota Wesleyan university and Huror college will take place and the affair promises to be a sort of a field day in athletics and debate. Huron will come to Mitchell in a special train, bringing a large body of students and the college band. In the afternoon the men's basket ball teams of both institutions will play a match game, and in the evening the girls' debating teams will hold forth,
