

SWITZLER HITS THE YELLOWS

Lawyer Talks to Ad Club About Indecent Journalism.

NEWSPAPER SOURCE OF IDEAS

As Such a Great Calling is Easily Desired by Pondering to the Appetite for News of a Low Tone.

Newspaper makers who publish news "to print" and give as an excuse that they are the "upper makers for the people," giving their patrons "the kind of news they want," namely, on severe criticism from Warren Switzler, who addressed the Omaha Ad club at its bi-weekly meeting in Rome's vineyard Tuesday.

"I was greatly pleased with a motto I saw recently at the head of a great New York daily which was intended to describe the contents of this paper and read: 'All the news fit to print,' said Mr. Switzler.
Those few words, if followed in spirit by the great newspapers of the country would work wonders of reform. I know that it is easier to suggest a fault than it is to suggest a remedy; and I also know that when you find fault with a newspaper for the character of its printed matter, its great capitalized answer is that it publishes the kind of news the people want. The editors or managers who hold to such views do not seem to realize that they, in a large measure, preside over the sources of our ideas, and that their attitude is a great influence on the minds of our citizens and our destinies as individuals and as a state.

Can Poison or Paralyze.
How shallow and insincere it is therefore, for this great teacher which reaches the sacred circle of the family morning and evening, and poisons or paralyzes its readers, to excuse its fair face being be-smeared with the low-bred crimes and misfortunes of the people, because forthwith the state which it creates demands such food.
The editor who thus justifies putting in his paper that which tends to cultivate and satisfy the debased appetite realizes the great wrong to which his talents have been directed, or the great trusts which have been committed to his care.

Rabbi Louis Bernstein of St. Joseph spoke briefly on city loyalty, and predicted that the day was not far distant when the people who make their homes in the cities on the Missouri river will realize how independent they are of Chicago and eastern cities, and going to them for goods, and admitting at any time that the cities east are better than those west, and teach their children loyalty to the cities in which they are reared.

It was announced that the next meeting will be held in the evening on April 5, and besides a breakfast dinner Robert Manley has arranged for a vaudeville show which will be widely advertised.

REFUSE TO STAND FOR CUT

Delegates to Iron Workers' Con-

Lower Wages.

BRANDING, Pa., March 16.—The delegates to the eastern district of the Amalgamated Iron, Steel and Tin Workers association today wound up their business, after declining to accept the reduction in wages of $1.00 iron workers recently an-

Watching A Stomach
Digest Food

Was the Means Whereby Science Made Possible the Cure of Dyspepsia.

The Abbe Spillanti was the first scientist to study systematically the chemical process of the gastric juice, but it was by the careful and convincing experiments of Beumont that the foundation of our exact knowledge of its composition and action was laid.

Beumont was an army surgeon, located at an obscure military post in Michigan, while it was yet a territory, and was called upon to treat a gunshot wound of the stomach in a Canadian voyageur—Alexis St. Martin. When the wound healed, a permanent opening was left by means of which food could be placed in the stomach and gastric juice taken from it.

Beumont made scientific experiments with his crude means and wrote a book, which today is recognized among the classics of physiology.

Beumont blazed the way for other scientists, so that today medicine knows what the stomach does with food and what food does to the stomach.

Science also knows what the gastric juice is and how to make them best for the system.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, thanks to the poor army surgeon and Alexis St. Martin, give man a means of digesting food, responding to the gastric juice, soothing the nerve and correcting dyspeptic conditions of the stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are natural food and vegetable essences reduced in concentrated form and by tremendous power compressed into a tablet. These wonderful little digestors are known all over America and Canada. Full meals have been digested by them in glass tubes and they are sold by every druggist.

Physicians to the number of 4000 use them. They are meritorious and powerful.

Is Shallenberger
to Use Strength Against Jim?

Mayor and His Cabinet Cherish a New Source of Anxiety in Mayoralty Fight.

Will Governor Shallenberger inject himself into the local primary campaign in the benefit of Ed P. Berryman, the Jackson candidate for mayor? This is the question Mayor Dahliman and the chiefs of his camp would like to have answered, for they are losing considerable sleep in the fear that the governor will exert his influence to nominate a Jack mayor and thereby put to sleep forever the prospects of the would-be Tammany organization of Omaha.

Governor Shallenberger is a Jacksonian.
He has belonged to this political club for years and was last year vice president of it. Colonel Berryman has likewise belonged to the club for years. While the governor was vice president of the organization the colonel was the club's secretary and the two became quite intimate. This is one ground the Jims have for being nervous, but there is also another ground on which they base their fears of gubernatorial intervention.

Mayor Dahliman, who gave his name to the Jims, tried for the democratic nomination for governor last summer, and did his best to down Governor Shallenberger. He called the governor a "trimmer, a four flusher and tool of the corporations." The Jims yelled "murrah" and endorsed Dahli-man. The Jims took the other end and endorsed Shallenberger before the primaries and when he was nominated they immediately became his chosen people.

"Yes we have every reason to believe that the governor will let it be known that he favors the candidacy of Colonel Ber-ryman as against Mayor Dahliman," said one of the Jack leaders, and the Jims fear lest the executive declares against the Tammany leader.

Alleged Farmers to Be Split Out
by Jail Sentences

Judge Crawford Hands Out Discriminating Punishment to Neal and Brewer.

From farmers to jail prisoners is the change that has been the lot of J. C. Neal of Omaha and J. T. Brewer of Minneapolis since they met in this city last week and devised means of raising money. They are the young men who were arrested for selling practically empty cases of eggs to grocers and charging "full price." Police Judge Crawford found them guilty on three complaints Tuesday and gave them aggregated sentences of twenty-five and twenty days in jail. Neal received the longer sentence, the terms being made of uneven length in order that both men might not get out of jail together.

Another complaint against the men was filed Tuesday, Mrs. H. E. Holmes of 408 North Twenty-fourth street being the latest victim of the bogus farmers to complain.
The other grocers who were "done" by them were John Wisler, 467 Leavenworth street, and Mrs. P. Cavanagh and Mrs.
McCoy of Eighteenth and Charles streets.

Rose Gets Back
a Stolen Watch

Hotel Clerk Had Mental Picture of Deft-Fingered Person and Located Him.

Frank Rose, clerk at the Rome hotel, is wearing a smile that won't come off. It is all because "the watch came back." The fellow that had it came with it and pleaded that nothing further be said. It happened this way: Last Wednesday while Mr. Rose was going into the Orpheum he felt someone in the crowd tugging at his watch fob and he got a good look at the fellow, but did not discover that the watch was one until he had taken his seat in the theater.
After the show he located the pickpocket and hunted the time within which the timekeeper should be forthcoming. Of course the deft-fingered man denied the allegation and defied the allegator, but Frank, being sure of his premises, indicated to a detective his suspicions, and Monday evening the suspected person restored the ticker with its fob and promised to be good if Mr.
Rose would let the matter drop. He also promised that he would never fish another watch nor undertake to do any man's pockets.

Lincoln to Boost
for Corn Show

Secretary Whitten So Advises the Managers and Seeks a Little Reciprocity.

W. S. Whitten, secretary of the Commercial club of Lincoln, has assured the National Corn exposition that the business men of Lincoln propose to get into the harness and boost for the show in be held at Omaha in December, and incidentally will want a little boosting done by Omahans when the Nebraska State Corn show is held in Lincoln the third week in January.

The state show is to be planned along lines which will put it in the front rank among state shows and its success will mean much to the National Corn exposition, say the managers.

The first registration day will be held on April 24 and booths for that purpose will be open in all precincts of all wards.

MARJORIE KING TO TESTIFY Daughter of Mrs. Banner to Go on Stand at Mother's Trial.

STORY IS LIKE EVELYN THAW'S Allusion to Famous Case Brought in by Proposal to Limit Girl's Testimony and Leave It Uncontradicted.

Marjorie King, the 17-year-old daughter of Mrs. Banner, will be put on the stand by the defense, that her story of her wrongdoings may help save her mother from conviction of the murder of Fred Banner.
She will be allowed, however, to tell only what she told her mother and the truth of her statements may not be impeached.
The similarity of the situation to that of the Thaw case is marked, so marked that that trial has already been referred to several times in argument of counsel.

"As deliberate and cold blooded a murder as ever was perpetrated in Douglas county, this will be shown to be," declared County Attorney English in his opening statement Tuesday morning. "The state proposes to show that Mrs. Banner coolly approached her brother-in-law the evening of July 20, 1908, when he sat on a bench by the Fern-land cigar store and walking straight up to him, shot him in the brain with a revolver purchased for the purpose in the afternoon. He fell practically dead at her feet. She looked at the body, surveyed it from head to foot and then coolly and collectedly turned and walked across the street."

The state also hopes to show that in anticipation of the murder Mrs. Banner had made arrangements in his opening statement Tuesday morning. "The state proposes to
her brother-in-law the evening of July 20, 1908, when he sat on a bench by the Fern-
volver purchased for the purpose in the afternoon. He fell practically dead at her
street."

Mother of Dead Man Weeps.
Convulsive sobs from the dead man's mother, Mrs. Josephine Banner, came when the county attorney narrated the circumstances of the shooting. Her son, Frank Banner, husband of the defendant, sat by her and tried to calm her. Mrs. Frank Banner and her husband have been separated since before the death of Fred Banner and feeling between the two has been accentuated by the tragedy. Mrs. Banner, the defendant, again had the company of her daughter.

At present, Henry Murphy outlined the case of the defense. He declared that his side will show that Mrs. Banner inherited a highly nervous temperament from her parents; that her health was affected by her divorce from her first husband, Frederick King, father of Marjorie King. That the circumstances of her daughter's betrayal and the operation performed upon her were hidden from her until they came all at once and as a dreadful shock.

Mr. Murphy began to go into the relations of the girl and Fred Banner, their meetings, etc., but was stopped by objection from the other side, which raised the point that the defense had been only to tell what was said by the girl or other people to Mrs. Banner. The state began its case with the testimony of J. J. Mulcahey, a young man who was a companion of Banner the night of the shooting. On cross-examination he declared that there was anything unusual in Mrs. Banner's appearance.

Ziegler Mixed In
With Big Guns

Nebraska Floor Manager at Inaugural Ball Had Inside Glimpse at Several Functions.

"A wrong impression seems to have gone out about the inauguration. It is not paid for by the national government, but the city of Washington foots the bill, just the same as our Ak-Sar-Ben," said Ziegler, who attended the Taft inaugural as an aide to the floor committee, having been named to represent Nebraska by Senators Burkett and Brewer.

While in Washington Mr. Ziegler attended several big functions prior to the inaugural, one of which was a dinner given by Tom Walsh to Mr. Taft, Speaker Cannon, Admiral Sperry and several members of the cabinet. Another was given next day by Lars Anderson, at which many of the same gentlemen were present. Mr. Taft, in an outfit to California to procure before the students of Leland Stanford university, Mr. Ziegler invited the ambassador to stop at Omaha on his return, but as he will use the southern route he had to decline. He promised, however, to visit Omaha at some later date.

Unregistered Voters
Must See Butler

City Clerk Will Issue Certificates This Week to Men Making Proper Showing.

Voters not registered who have moved into another voting precinct since the last election must this week secure a transfer or a certificate showing that they are qualified voters to be able to vote in the primaries on March 30. These transfers or certificates can be secured at the office of the city clerk, and there only. To accommodate all comers, the clerk will keep his office open until 9 o'clock Saturday evening.

The first registration day will be held after the primaries and voters will not be allowed to swear in their votes at the primary election as at regular elections.
Qualified voters, but not registered, can vote in the primaries only by calling at the clerk's office during the week with two freeholders who will swear to their qualifications. The clerk will then give a certificate allowing the person to vote in the primaries.

The first registration day will be held
on April 24 and booths for that purpose
will be open in all precincts of all wards.

Teachers Coming to the Number of Fifteen Hundred

President Graham Reports that the East Central Association is Very Much Alive.

Fifteen hundred teachers will attend the annual meeting of the East Central Nebraska Teachers' association in Omaha April 1, 2 and 3. N. M. Graham, superintendent of the South Omaha schools, is president of the association and he has expected Superintendent Davidson that he will be the largest in the history of the organization. The convention was held in South Omaha last year.

The general meetings of the association will be held in the First Methodist church and the sectional meetings will be held in the First Congregational church, the public library, the assembly room in the Rome hotel, the Lyric theater and the auditorium of the Board of Education on the fifth floor of the city hall.

Among others the following prominent educators have been secured to address the state's pedagogues: J. Ross Hill, president of the Missouri State university, Chancellor Avery of the Nebraska State university, W. L. Byers, president of the Indiana State university, and M. V. O'Brien of the Wisconsin State university.

No Bills of Lading
on Old Forms
After April 30

Trunk Lines Have Notified Shippers that Present Practice Must Be Stopped.

Trunk lines have notified shippers that after April 30, agents of railway companies will refuse to sign bills of lading made out on the old form.

At present shippers make them out on the old forms, which many prefer because they are of several sizes and agents stamp out them "subject to the provisions of the uniform bill of lading."

This practice is to be discontinued and agents will require that shippers use the uniform bills recommended by the Interstate Commerce commission and since endorsed and accepted by shippers in the east and west, but still protested by the southern roads.

Not Many Frats
in Omaha Schools

Law Just Passed and Signed by the Governor is Not of Great Interest Here.

Omaha schools will be but slightly affected by the recent passage and approval of the legislative bill prohibiting fraternities in public schools of Nebraska. While fraternities have not before been prohibited in Omaha, stringent governing rules adopted some time ago by the Board of Education has restricted the membership of the societies and in other ways kept them from securing a hold on the local schools and exerting any harm.

Two societies, the Kappa Gamma and the Phi Lambda, affiliated with the National High School Greek Letter fraternity, were organized in Omaha several years ago, but the board took prompt action and by resolution restricted the membership of each to twenty-five. This limit has never been reached. In addition to this limitation, the board by resolution prohibited a member of either fraternity from participating in any contest and holding any honors, and no member has been allowed to play on the football team, to become president of a class, to become an officer in the battalion or to enter any debate.
There are no sororities in the local school.

Members of one of the fraternities have given notice of surrendering their charter and local school officers expect that the Greek letter societies of the Omaha High school will in a short time be dead letters.

GOOD, HONEST, SQUARE-DEAL

Medicines like those of Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, warrant their makers in printing their every ingredient, which they do, upon their outside wrappers, verifying the correctness of the same under oath.
This open publicity places these medicines in a class all by themselves. Furthermore, it warrants physicians in prescribing them largely as they do in their worst cases.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

Is a most potent alterative or blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorator and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach and bowels, curing a large per cent. of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach (as catarrhal dyspepsia), liver, (as mucous diarrhoea), or other organs.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is advised for the cure of one class of diseases only—those peculiar weaknesses, derangements and irregularities peculiar to women. It is a powerful yet gently acting invigorating tonic and nerve.

For weak, worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.

A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formulae of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authors, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools of practice as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient entering into these medicines.

Forgives Theft,
Restores Wallace
to His Employ

T. F. Stroud Exercises Rare Charity to Bookkeeper and Secures His Release from Court.

Instead of residing at the penitentiary J.
H. Wallace is back at his old job as bookkeeper of the T. F. Stroud company. Under arrest for breaking in the office of the Stroud company, Wallace faced a fairly good chance of being convicted.

"I would do society no good to send him down," declared Stroud Tuesday morning.
"He's a good man, a good man—only he got into bad company." So Stroud went to the county attorney and Judge Sears and urged them to let Wallace off, saying he would take him back in his employ. The judge and attorney were willing and Wallace was released on his own recognizance.

He left the court house in company of his employer, who had exercised a clemency that is rare.

Wallace secured several hundred dollars' worth of checks when he fell from grace and cashed one or two, it is said, at a saloon. Stroud heard of the theft in time to stop payment on the checks and the saloon man alone is out. However, Wallace's friends managed to spend most of the money there that night so that the saloon keeper is really not minus much cash, only a quantity of beer, a few cocktails, one gin ricky, two Mamie Taylor, a silver flask and a bromo seltzer.

for that.

Mrs. Hulda Anderson has just finished reciting a piteous tale in Judge Estelle's court. She is suing her husband, Axel W.
Anderson, for divorce and he is contesting the case. Her indictment of Anderson is severe and includes a declaration that he struck her with his clenched fist two days before she was confined.

Mrs. Anderson, who is represented by Attorney Alvin F. Johnson, will call in support of the story her sister, a clergyman who saw the wound on the nose and the physician who attended her in childbirth.

Bowes and Batten represent the defendant, who has a tale of cruelty of his own to offer. His answer to the petition for divorce also recites that he was in bad mental and physical health for some months following his marriage and that plaintiff would never make allowance for this.

Gale B. Lawver alleges in a petition for divorce that his wife, Maud W. Lawver, refused to cook his meals or keep house at all. Lena Stewart is suing James W. Stowart and Ella Covick is plaintiff against Vasile Corvik. Andrew Kaiser has been granted a decree against Edna R. Kaiser.

Palmer Sticks
as Candidate for Mayor

Sends Message Thanking Friends and Outlining Platform as Answer to Appeals to Withdraw.

Pontanelle friends of Candidate Breen have been burning out the batteries of the telegraph companies, sending messages to Captain Palmer in Florida, beseeching that he withdraw from the race as a candidate for mayor. But Captain Palmer intends to stick for the big show, as witness this telegram received by S. A.
Searle, who is directing the captain's campaign during his absence from the city.

DAYTON, Pa., March 16, 1909.—S. A.
Searle, Omaha, Neb.: Extend my thanks to the many hundred who signed my petition and assure them that if I am nominated at the primary I will be elected mayor, pledging a square deal to everybody interested in the upbuilding of Omaha, devoting all my time and energy to a business administration, lessening taxes per capita, something to show for every dollar spent. HENRY E. PALMER.

In the meantime the Breen plan of campaign is developing. It is now proposed that a committee to handle his campaign be made up of twelve members of the Fontanelle club, twelve members of the Central club and twelve to be selected by Mr. Breen. These will be in full charge of the Breen campaign.

Foley's Kidney Remedy will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble that is not beyond the reach of medicine. Cures backache and irregularities that if neglected might result in Bright's disease or diabetes. For sale by all druggists.

Is advised for the cure of one class of diseases only—those peculiar weaknesses, derangements and irregularities peculiar to women. It is a powerful yet gently acting invigorating tonic and nerve.
For weak, worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription"
will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and
bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.
A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formulae of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authors, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools of practice as guides in prescribing, say of each
ingredient entering into these medicines.
Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native, American, medicinal, forest plants. They are both sold by dealers in medicine. You can't afford to accept as a substitute for one of these medicines of known composition, any secret nostrum. Don't do it.
