NEW ELECTIVES NOT ON LIST

Police Board and Engineer Excluded from Primary Proclamation.

BUTLER COULD WAIT NO LONGER

Saturday Last Day on Which Voters Who Have Changed Residence Can Get Certificates at City Hall.

Saturday is the last day upon which voters who have changed their place of residence in the last five months can secure certificates of removal allowing them to vote in the primaries.

The election of members of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners and the election of a city engineer, as contemplated in the new Omaha charter, are not contained in the primary election proclamation signed by the mayor and city clerk and being posted by the latter. The proclamation announces the election of candidates for the offices of mayor, city clerk, city comptroller, city attorney, building inspector and councilmen from the twelve wards, but is silent on the proposed offices.

"The law compels the posting of the proclamations at least ten days before the holding of the primary and therefore Saturday is the last day," said City Clerk Butler. "I have put off the posting until the last minute, thinking that possibly the charter bill would pass, but I cannot wait any longer, and it will hurry me to get three of these up in each of the fifty-four precincts before Saturday night. If the charter bill passes I suppose candidates for these offices not yet created can file by petition and be voted on."

Mayor Dehlin has expected to issue a statement Friday, but has put this off until Saturday. He will reply to Colonel Berryman, whose recent statement he regards as a criticism of the present administration. The mayor held another meeting of his Dahlinian Volunteers in his office in the city hall Thursday night and the organization of his re-election of the defunct Bryan Volunteers will be completed Saturday night.

The South Side Non-Partisan club announces its regular meeting for Thursday evening of next week at Trostler's cigar store, Seventeenth and Vinton streets. Candidates of both parties will be invited to the meeting, which will be for residents of the southern part of the city.

Major Dehlin had expected to issue a statement Friday, but has put this off until Saturday. He will reply to Colonel Berryman, whose recent statement he regards as a criticism of the present administration. The mayor held another meeting of his Dahlinian Volunteers in his office in the city hall Thursday night and the organization of his re-election of the defunct Bryan Volunteers will be completed Saturday night.

D. O. Ives Has New Position in Boston

Former Burlington Official in Omaha Secretary of New England Transportation Board.

D. O. Ives, chairman of the official classification committee of the Trunk Lines association at New York, former general manager of the Wabash and before that general freight agent of the Burlington at Omaha, has accepted a position as secretary of the New England Board of Trade and Transportation with offices in Boston. He will resign his present position to take up his new work May 1.

FLORENCE IS PICKING MEN FOR ITS CITY ELECTION

W. E. Rogers and F. S. Tucker Will Head Democratic and Republican Tickets.

A. F. Close, city clerk of Florence, will make the race for election to that office for the ninth time as a result of the Florence democratic primaries held Thursday. W. E. Rogers, mayor, was also renominated. This was the entire ticket selected: Mayor—W. E. Rogers. Treasurer—C. A. Griggs. Police Judge—J. W. Wyatt. Councilman, South Ward—George Sorenson. North Ward—F. M. King. Central Committee—L. Wartler, Henry Anderson, Tine Shipley.

The socialists also put up a ticket, consisting of James Pox for mayor, J. A. Pinkenkeller for city clerk, Henry Moeller for treasurer, C. S. Duke for councilman from North ward, Henry Peterson for councilman from South ward and Andrew Pinkenkeller for police judge.

The republicans will hold their primaries at the city hall Saturday night, with these slugs:

Mayor, F. S. Tucker; treasurer, William H. Thomas; clerk, Charles M. Cottrell; police judge, J. K. Lowry; engineer, F. H. Reynolds; councilman, North ward, B. C. Fowler and J. H. Price; councilman for the South ward, Charles Allen and J. A. Holtzman; central committee, Louis Grebe, Frank Brown and W. H. Murray.

At the meeting of the council Monday evening these judges and clerks of election April 6 were named.

North ward, judges, L. M. Warler and John Simpson and Jacob Unler; clerks, John Bondesson, Neils Bondesson. South ward, judges, City, Scheller, David Andrews and Louis Grebe; clerks, J. A. Holtzman and Frank Potter.

The special meeting of the council called for last night did not materialize, the mayor and councilmen desiring more time to look over the ordinance granting a franchise to the West Shore Electric Railway company.

My Reply.

In last night's Bee I noticed an article where a group of women Tuesday afternoon had a discussion in regard to "Whose Bread Do You Eat and What Do You Know About It?" I sincerely hope this same little club of women will find it interesting enough to agitate a rigid inspection of the many bakeries. The housewives of this city should convince themselves and insist upon the purest and most sanitary conditions of the baking and handling of bread which is placed on their tables daily. My bread is for sale at the groceries in any neighborhood, from whom it may be procured. Every loaf bears my name and address. I extend a cordial invitation to the public to visit my place of business and bake shop at any time.

Woman's Work

Activities of the Organized Bodies Along the Lines of Undertaking of Concern to Women.

The exhibit of American pottery with the accompanying explanatory talk by Mrs. Anna R. Morey of Hastings, chairman of the Nebraska Federation's art committee, is assured for the "birthday" celebration of the Omaha Woman's club next month. Mrs. Morey was in Omaha this week and conferred with Mrs. Johnson regarding the program.

The opening of the school of domestic science Thursday, April 1, will be one of the most attractive features of opening week in the new Young Women's Christian association building. Miss Helen M. Pincomb of the domestic science department of the University of Illinois, will be the speaker of the evening and, besides her address, the program includes several other attractive features.

Mrs. H. D. Keeffe of Walthill, ex-president and this year chairman of the Nebraska Federation's program committee, has called a meeting of the committee, to be held in Lincoln Wednesday of next week. Mrs. Keeffe, who is one of the directors of the General Federation, will attend the biennial council at San Antonio, Tex. the last of this month.

The following official program for the biennial council, to be held at San Antonio, Tex., the last of this month, has just been issued:

The board of directors of the General Federation will be in session Monday and Tuesday, March 29 and 30, and the council will be opened formally Wednesday at 10 a. m. in the Elks' hall, when, after invocation by Bishop Johnson, special addresses of welcome will be made.

The committee has arranged to give ample time to the chairman of the standing committees of the General Federation to report their special work and to the Cincinnati biennial program committee to present their plans. There will be two daily sessions of the council on March 31 and April 1, from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. and from 3 p. m. to 5 p. m. The committees will report in alphabetical order at these sessions.

Wednesday night will be given up to a special evening program, when a distinguished woman and an eminent man will each bring a special message to the club women, while the San Antonio club women will furnish fine musical selections.

Alamo plaza, has been selected by the local committee as headquarters hotel, and all applications for reservations at this hotel should be sent to Mrs. Noyes Evans, Lexington avenue, San Antonio.

Under the chairmanship of Miss Heier V. Boswell of New York, the industrial and child labor committee of the General Federation of Women's Clubs has been appointed and the country districted as follows:

Mrs. Anthony Foster McKissick, vice chairman, 425 Cambridge street, Greenwood, S. C.; Mrs. A. E. Chandler, Tacoma Daily News, Tacoma, Wash.; Mrs. W. Draper Smith, 621 Park avenue, Omaha, Neb.; Mrs. Charles H. Kuntler, 127 Grafton avenue, Dayton, O.; Mrs. Ed. H. Johns, Fourteenth and Dakota streets, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Louisa, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Indian Territory, New Mexico and California; Mrs. W. Draper Smith, 621 Park avenue, Omaha, Neb.; Mrs. Charles H. Kuntler, 127 Grafton avenue, Dayton, O.; Mrs. Ed. H. Johns, Fourteenth and Dakota streets, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Louisa, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Indian Territory, New Mexico and California; Mrs. W. Draper Smith, 621 Park avenue, Omaha, Neb.; Mrs. Charles H. Kuntler, 127 Grafton avenue, Dayton, O.; Mrs. Ed. H. Johns, Fourteenth and Dakota streets, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Louisa, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Indian Territory, New Mexico and California.

Mrs. Floyd M. Smith is organizing a circle of the women of All Saints' church to work for a fair to be given after Easter in the parish hall.

The Parish Aid society of All Saints' church meets every Friday in the parish house to sew. Luncheon is served at 12 o'clock. These meetings are becoming very popular.

Announcements of the Theaters.

The 11th opening of the Orpheum tomorrow will be found in every way a pleasing successor to the series of fine entertainments which have preceded it. The beautiful spectacle of Tricollati's Aerial Ballet is one which should be seen by all. For the brief vaudeville tour the finest two of their diversions have been selected, and the sight is sure to be one well worth witnessing. Of equal interest is the engagement of Julie Herne in her own play-let, "A Mountain Cinderella." The young actress is the daughter of the late James A. Herne and is herself a person of much charm and distinction.

If you have not yet seen Maude Leone as Mistress Nell in the delightful romantic comedy that is being produced at the Burwood theater this week, you owe it to yourself to take advantage of the opportunity offered in the two closing performances of this afternoon and evening, as it is by far the most pleasing role she has essayed during her connection with the company. Of the production of "Mispah," which is to open for but a single week, tomorrow afternoon, it may be said to be chosen in keeping with the Lenten season.

Novel Sandwiches.

Trim off the crust from the sides of a brown and white loaf of bread and cut into slices lengthwise. Take a white slice of bread for lower layer and spread with moist cream cheese, then a layer of brown bread with thinly sliced pickles and mayonnaise, another of white and cheese, followed by one of brown bread with pickles and mayonnaise, and the last slice being white bread. Press layers together and slice across as you would a layer cake.

Yes, Judge, I Once Worked Five Hours

Prisoner Solemnly Tells Court He Has Not Been Idle All of His Life.

"Yes, Judge, I once worked five hours," said Bill McCarthy in police court Friday, when asked if he had ever been anything but a vagrant.

"Well, you may board at the county jail for fifteen days," remarked the judge by way of reward.

Mrs. Taft's Secretary.

Miss Hagner, who was Mrs. Roosevelt's social secretary, was transferred to the White House from the war department to a position in the bureau of trade relations in the state department. Mrs. Taft has chosen for her social secretary Miss Alice Blech, a stenographer, who has been for several years in the bureau of American republics, and who speaks German fluently and has a good knowledge of French and Spanish. From some points of view the $1.00 social secretaryship at the White House is almost as important as a cabinet portfolio.

Why quit sending her flowers after you are married?

They used to bring "her" pleasure. Perhaps you will find that they would count for even more now. It is a good way to remember the birthdays and anniversaries and to keep alive the sentiments, that count for most in life.

You can order by telephone if you want to. Look over the advertisements under the head of "Florists" on the want ad. page and you will find just the information that you need.
